ANNEXURE.

The matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Himalayan Aviation, Ltd., 9A, Esplanade East, Calcutta, and the Indian Airlines Corporation, 234/4, Lower Circular Road, Calcutta-20, on the one hand and their six employees, namely, (i) Shri K. P. Chatterji, (ii) Shri S. N. Das, (iii) Shri G. C. Sen Gupta, (iv) Shri B. C. Basu Mullick, (v) Shri T. Sanjeevi and (vi) Shri P. K. Chatterjee, C/o Shri K. P. Chatterjee, 106, Middle Road, Calcutta-14.

BY THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, NEW SECRETARIAT BUILDINGS, WEST BENGAL, CALCUTTA.

PRESENT:

MOTILAL CHAKRAVATTI, District Judge, Judge, Sixth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances.

The Indian Airlines Corporation: Shri M. M. Sen, Counsel, instructed by Mr. S. K. Mondal, Solicitor and Shri K. C. Gupta.

Messrs. Himalayan Aviation, Ltd.: None.

The Workmen: Shri S. Mookherjee, Federal Councillor, National Federation of P. and T. Union instructed by Mr. G. C. Sen Gupta.

Acting under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (of 1947), the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by order No. 3438Dis./D/4L-5/54, dated Calcutta, the 15th July 1954, referred the aforesaid dispute for adjudication, to me regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the order of reference.

SCHEDULE.

Whether discharge of (i) Shri K. P. Chatterji, (ii) Shri S. N. Das, (iii) Shri G. C. Sen Gupta, (iv) Shri B. C. Basu Mullick, (v) Shri T. Sanjeevi and (vi) Shri P. K. Chatterji is justified? Are they entitled to reinstatement and/or compensation?

AWARD.

The contention of the six discharged workmen is that they were the employees of the Himalayan Aviation, Ltd. and that the said Himalayan Aviation out of spirit of victimisation and unfair labour practice effected retrenchment of some of the employees quite arbitrarily and as a result there was a reference case at the instance of some of the discharged employees (vide order No. 2968Dis./D/4L-24/52, dated Calcutta, the 11th November 1952, read with corrigendum No. 4050Dis./D/4L-24/52, Calcutta, the 22nd December 1952) and in that case the Tribunal (Santosh Kumar Niyogi) gave an Award directing reinstatement with pay and it has been observed—

"The fact that the Air Lines have since been taken over by the reformed Corporation does not seem to stand in the way of reinstatement inasmuch as not being validly discharged by the employer, they should be deemed to have been in employment at the date of such taking over".

That award was dated 13th October 1953.

It is admitted that the six discharged employees now under reference in the present case were all discharged before 1st July 1952 and it is admitted that the Air Corporation came into existence and the property and funds of Himalayan Aviation, Limited, vested in the Air Corporation on the 1st August 1953. In the present case both Himalayan Aviation, Limited and the Indian Air Lines Corporation have been made parties.

The contention of the Indian Air Lines Corporation is that the reference against it by the State Government is illegal and that the reference on its own behalf is also invalid and that the dispute referred for adjudication was an industrial dispute because at that time there was no relationship of master and servant between these six employees and the Air Lines Corporation and that the Air Lines Corporation was never their employer nor it was the representative of the Himalayan Aviation, Limited, which was the employer of these six workmen in question. It is further contended that the Air Lines Corporation is the creature of a statute, viz., The Air Corporation Act, XXVII of 1953. Its rights and liabilities are all provided by that statute itself and that under the law no obligation, if any, of reinstatement of the said workmen or of paying them any compensation, attached to the Air Lines Corporation.

In the written statement the Air Lines Corporation also contends that the Himalayan Aviation, Limited, has now no power to reinstate the discharged employees and that the Tribunal also has no jurisdiction to direct the Himalayan Aviation, Limited, to reinstate them nor that the employees had any enforceable claim or cause of action against the Himalayan Aviation, Limited. The Himalayan Aviation has not filed a written statement in this case. Tribunal has been asked by the Air Corporation to decide the preliminary point, viz., whether the Air Lines Corporation has anything to do in the dispute involved in the reference case and whether any relief can be granted against it for the benefit of the discharged employees.

As the Air Lines Corporation is the creature of a statute its rights and liabilities arise from the statute itself and all the equities arisen against Messrs. Himalayan Aviation, Limited, did not automatically go with the acquisition of the Himalayan Aviation, Limited, by the Air Corporation to the latter. Under section 17 of the Air Corporation Act, "the rights and obligations of whatever kind then subsisting on the Himalayan Aviation, Limited, in relation to the undertaking vested in the Air Corporation on the 1st August 1953, subject to the provisions of section 17, and it is also provided that all assets of the Himalayan Aviation, Limited, vest in the Air Lines Corporation, "freed and discharged from all obligations, mortgages, charges, liens and other encumbrances on it". Section 22 provides the duty of the Himalayan Aviation to particulars of all liabilities and obligations of the said Company existing immediately before the appointed day, i.e., 1st August 1953, also of all agreements entered into by the said Himalayan Aviation, and in force on the 1st August 1953, including agreements, whether express or implied, relating to leave, pension, gratuity and other terms of service of any officer or other employee of the said Company" and in clause (1) of that section it has been also provided that if the existing Air Company, viz., Himalayan Aviation, Limited, fails to supply to the Air Corporation particulars of such "book debts, liabilities and agreements", the time allowed to it for the purpose under sub-section (1) nothing in this Act shall have effect so as to transfer any such book debts, liabilities and agreements to or to vest the same in the Corporation".

It is admitted that these six employees (discharged) were not shown as existing employees by the Company, viz., Himalayan Aviation, Limited, at the time of the said vesting, nor was the Air Lines Corporation informed that these six employees were claiming reinstatement and other reliefs from Himalayan Aviation, Limited, at that time. Under section 20 the Air Corporation is bound to take into its employment any employee of Himalayan Aviation, Limited, who had been employed by the said Company prior to the first of July 1952 and who has been discharged from employment from that Company on or after the said date, in case the Central Government directs the Air Corporation to re-employ such discharged employees. As these petitioners were discharged before the 1st July 1952, they did not fall under section 20 clause (2) also.

The reply of the workmen is that under clause (4) of section 17 the claim of said employees is maintainable against the Air Corporation, because the discharge or retrenchment having been made out of spirit of victimisation and principle of "last come, first go" having not been followed by the employer in the matter of the said retrenchment this claim for reinstatement and for compensation binds the Air Corporation as well. It has been further contended that in section 22 clause (2) there is no mention of the obligation which is there in clause (1) of that section and therefore the position stands as follows:—

That the Himalayan Aviation, Limited, was required by law to supply to the Air Corporation the lists of the particulars of all liabilities and obligations subsisting on the 1st August 1953 to the Air Lines Corporation and also of all agreements expressed or implied relating to gratuity, and other terms of service of any officer or other employees of the Himalayan Aviation and if default be made in that respect, only the liabilities and agreements particulars of which have not been so supplied would not bind the Air Lines Corporation whereas "the obligations" [mentioned in clause (1)] would remain and will be binding against Air Lines Corporation also.

The workmen do not agree with this interpretation of the section. In clause (1) the words are "all liabilities and obligations and agreements" and clause (2) the default clause, the words are "all liabilities and agreements". In the "obligations" and "liabilities" mean the same thing, and this becomes clear from clause (i) of section 17 where the provision runs and subject to the provisions contained in section 22, shall also be deemed to include all borrowings, liabilities and obligations of whatever kind then subsisting of the existing air company in relation to the undertaking".

The question is whether the Himalayan Aviation, Limited, had any obligation to reinstate or to pay compensation to these discharged employees at the time of their discharge, and whether these obligations were subsisting immediately before the 1st August 1953. Obligation means legal obligation, i.e., obligation which is enforceable under the law. I do not think there was any law in force under which these discharged employees could enforce reinstatement or payment of compensation as against the employer excepting the claim for one month's wages (if the discharge be on short notice.) There is the contention that these discharges were on short notice. The question is, whether the aforesaid circumstances would create any obligation or not on the part of the Himalayan Aviation within the meaning of section 17, clause (4) of the section 17, clause (1) of Air Corporation Act. The provision of clause (4) runs thus:—

"Subject to the other provisions contained in this Act, any proceeding or cause of action pending or existing immediately before the appointed date by or against any of the existing companies in relation to its undertaking may as from that date be continued and enforced by or against the Corporation in which it has vested by virtue of this Act, etc."

I have already observed that the other provisions contained in this Act viz., section 22, clauses (1) and (2), have not been complied with by the Himalayan Aviation, Limited. Moreover I hold that the word "cause of action" mean cause of action for a suit, and not a ground for reference under the Industrial Disputes Act for Adjudication. The present proceeding is not an action. Action means the step under law to enforce the binding ultimatum of law. I think that the definition of liability in Salmond's Jurisprudence, 9th edition, page 498, applies to the word "obligation" as well. I may quote Salmond's thus:—

"Liability is the vinculum juris—not of mere duty; it pertains not to the sphere of 'ought' but to that of 'must'. It has its source in the supreme will of the state vindicating its supremacy by way of physical force in the last resort against the uncompromising will of the individual. A man's liability consists in those things which he must do or suffer, because he has already failed to do what he ought. It is the ultimatum of the law"

Before the amendment of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by the Ordinance No. V of 1953, which came into force on the 19th November 1953, there was no law to bind the employer to pay retrenchment compensation to the employee. In the present case all the discharges were complete before 1st July 1952. The relief of reinstatement or compensation which the discharged employees sometimes obtained from the Industrial Tribunal were not the benefits of any existing law of the realm. Those reliefs cannot be said to be "vinculum juris" already referred to. Industrial Tribunal's duty is not the same as that of law courts. I observed in the case of Bl Municipality vs. Shri Madan Mohan Banerjee, reported in 1954, 2 L.J. page 500, that—

Judicial Tribunals always regard legal rights and liabilities as existing, because they are bound by fixed standards, they only what is according to law. But Administrative Tribunals do not act upon policy and expediency, themselves dictate what is proper or expedient. (Administrative Justice and Supremacy of Law John Dickinson.)

Therefore my conclusion is that no proceeding or case within the meaning of section 17, clause (4), was pending or existing concerning these discharged employees at the time of the vesting of the Himalayan Aviation ited, in the Air Lines Corporation on the 1st August 1953. It does not par from the written statement of the employee Shri K. P. Chatterjee, one month's wages in lieu of notice were not tendered to him, on the other hand it appears from the written statement of Air Lines Corporation that the other five employees have received one month's wages in lieu of notice. Therefore I hold that the Air Lines Corporation cannot be proceeded against by these six employees in question in the present proceeding.

The Air Lines Corporation contends that it is an industry carried on under the authority of the Central Government and the reference could be made by the Central Government and not by the State Government as has been done in this case.

On behalf of the workmen it is argued that when the Air Corporation is subject to the laws and rules of the State Government it cannot be said that the industry is carried on under the authority of the Central Government.

It appears from Chapter II of the Air Corporation Act that the Indian Air Lines Corporation in question was established under the authority of the Central Government in accordance with the provisions of section 3. Section 4 of Chapter 2 and section 10 of Chapter 3 indicate that the Air Corporation is entirely under the authority of the Central Government. Therefore I hold that the reference as against the Air Lines Corporation by the State Government is without jurisdiction and as such this Tribunal cannot proceed against the Air Lines Corporation.

The contention of the Air Lines Corporation that the order of reference is bad in law inasmuch as there is no mention there "that in the opinion of the Government as industrial dispute exists, etc.". On perusal of the order of reference it appears clearly that the Government was of opinion that the dispute exists and that it is expedient to refer the dispute to the Tribunal. Simply because in the order of reference words in the opinion of having been omitted, the order of reference is thereby rendered invalid. Moreover the Tribunal cannot sit in judgment on the said question of non-mention of the thing in the order of reference. The learned Counsel for the Air Corporation refers to the Supreme Court decision in the case of State of Madras versus C.P. Sarathi, reported in 3, 1 L.L.J., page 174. The Supreme Court did not decide that it was within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal itself to criticise the order of reference. It is for the High Court or the Supreme Court to decide whether the order of reference is bad in law or not, the Industrial Tribunal cannot.

I agree with the contention of the Air Lines Corporation that the said Corporation is not the representative of the Himalayan Aviation, Limited; on the other hand, it is the creature of the statute. I therefore conclude that the Tribunal cannot proceed against Air Lines Corporation, the present reference case is to proceed as between the aforesaid discharged workmen and the Himalayan Aviation, Limited, alone on the merits.

And whereas the said Second Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between the Textile Machinery Corporation, Ltd., Belgharia, 24-Parganas and their workmen represented by the Texmaco Workers' Union, Belgharia, 24-Parganas, referred under Government order No. 3150Dis./D/10L-49/54, dated the 26th June 1954.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak, assisted by Paul Rodreick

For the Company: Shri S. K. Bose, Counsel, instructed by Shri K. Mukherjee, Solicitor of Messrs. Khaitan & Co., with Shri S. Asthana and B. N. Srivastava.

AWARD.

The industrial dispute, regarding the matters mentioned in the schedule below, existing between Textile Machinery Corporation, Ltd., Belgharia, 24-Parganas and their workmen represented by the Texmaco Workers' Union, Belgharia, 24-Parganas, was referred to this Tribunal under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 3150Dis./D/10L-49/54, dated 26th June 1954, for adjudication.

Both parties filed written statements.

In the Union's written statement, it is, among others, alleged that the Textile Machinery Corporation, Ltd. (hereinafter called "Texmaco") is an Engineering concern having its factory at Belgharia, 24-Parganas and Head Office at 8, Royal Exchange Place, Calcutta. It employs nearly 100 workmen in its factory. The Union presented a charter of demands on 6th November 1953 but it was not favoured with any reply. On 27th January 1954, the Management dismissed Shri Prahlad Singh, a Driver, without any charge-sheet and with some ulterior motive. Shri P. Singh made a written representation against that order on the very next day and the Union took up his case with the management on 1st February 1954 but without success. The Union, therefore, claimed his re-instatement in service with full wages for the entire period of unemployment.

It further claimed for the Darwans, Motor Mechanics, Sweepers, Bearers, Drivers and Gardeners, employed in the factory, the same leave facilities with compensatory holiday that are enjoyed by other workmen employed in the factory. It asked for fixed hours of work for the said categories of workmen as also festival holidays. In addition, the Union demanded that they should get a "weekly off" on Sundays, or soon after if they are required to work on Sundays.

The Textile Machinery Corporation, Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company), in its written statement, denied the Union's allegations regarding the dismissal of Shri P. Singh from service and said that Shri P. Singh was dismissed for misconduct on a proper charge sheet and after a proper enquiry. The management was satisfied on enquiry that he was guilty of serious misconduct. As to the Union's other allegations, the Company stated that the Car Drivers enjoyed privilege leave with pay for 21 days, and leave with pay for 7½ days and casual leave for one week with pay every year. They are also paid daily food allowance on certain occasions and they do light work to do and are in no way connected with the manufacturing work in the factory. They are not factory workers. The Darwans are outside the scope of Factories' Act, being members of the Watch and Ward staff. They enjoy privilege leave with pay for 30 days and sick leave with pay for 7½ days to 14 days. Others are not workmen under the Factories Act. They are getting leave facilities they are entitled to. The issues are:—

- (i) Was the dismissal of Prahlad Singh justified? To what relief, by way of reinstatement and compensation he is entitled?
- (ii) What should be the leave facilities of the Darwans, Motor Mechanics, Sweepers, Bearers, Drivers and Gardeners? Should these persons work on Sundays; and if so, should they get a compensatory holiday as provided for in the Factories Act? Should they enjoy the festival holidays? What should be their working hours?

FINDINGS.

Shri Prahlad Singh was a motor driver in the service of this Company for about 7 or 8 years. He was dismissed from service for misconduct. Prahlad Singh denies the charges of misconduct and says that he has been dismissed for being a member of the Union. It was urged on his behalf that the decision of the management to dismiss him for his alleged misconduct was most arbitrary and against all principles of natural justice. He was not charge-sheeted and there was no enquiry into any of the charges alleged against him. The Company stands by the decision and contends very emphatically that its decision is justified on the facts and in the circumstances of the case. Both parties adduced evidence. P.W. 1, Shri Prahlad Singh, the only witness on his side, said that on 16th January, he obtained leave for the 17th, the next day which was a Sunday, from Choudhury Babu, meaning O.P.W. 1 Shri Manilal Choudhury, the Head Store Keeper and the man-in-charge of the Transport Department. He further said that he was not informed by Shri Sharma, a clerk, to go to the factory and did not disobey any such request or lawful orders of his superiors. He was also not informed by anybody to come to duty on 26th January, the Republic Day, also a closed holiday, and did not disobey any orders to do work on that day. The Company did not give him any charge-sheet and there was no enquiry into any charges against him. In cross-examination, he admitted having gone to the Works Manager on 26th January and he denied the charges before him and others, present there.

He denied having confessed or admitted having disobeyed the orders as him to come to duty on the 17th and 26th of January last year. He admitted that he worked on Sundays when necessary. The charge-sheet Ext. A. It says that he refused to work on the 17th and 26th of January and thereby committed an offence punishable under the Standing Order 16A and L. He was suspended and was told that unless satisfactory explanation was submitted, he would be dismissed after due enquiry. He also said that he refused to accept the charge-sheet when tendered as he behaved riotously. A torn copy of the charge-sheet purported to be a carbon copy, initialled in the same way as Ext. A, was shown to the Company's witness O.P.W. 8 who of course said that he did not see the original charge-sheet. The carbon copy differs from Ext. A on material points, namely, the dates on which the workman refused to work. It has been said on the Company's side that there were three copies of the charge-sheet, one was posted at the driver's residence and one at the Notice Board and presumably, the third one was kept in the office and produced as marked Ext. A in this case. That a copy of the charge-sheet was posted either on the Notice Board or at the driver's residence would appear from the fact that a torn copy of the charge-sheet is appearing in this case from the Union's side. That also suggests very strongly that there was refusal of accepting the charge-sheet, a fact which has been spoken of and proved by several witnesses, all of the Time Office, on the Company's side. The witness, O.P.W. 7 Shri Megnadh Ghose, said that Prahlad Sing refused to accept the charge-sheet saying that he had committed no offence.

Question now is whether Prahlad Sing refused to attend to duty when called on to do so, both on 17th and on 26th January. Admittedly O.P.W. 1 Shri Manilal Choudhury, the Head Time Keeper, is the Officer in-charge of the Transport Department who distributes work to the drivers. In fact, Prahlad Sing said that he obtained leave for the 17th January from Choudhury Babu. So, undoubtedly, he was the man-in-charge. O.P.W. 1 says that drivers are required to work on Sundays when necessary and they are paid extra food allowance for that. He said that on two dates mentioned in the charge-sheet, he sent information to Prahlad Sing to come to duty and Prahlad Sing refused. On the 17th of January, Shri Sharma a clerk, required a car in connection with his wife's illness and Shri Choudhury deputed Prahlad Sing for this duty. On the 26th of January Shri Razgharia, the Chief Officer, wanted the car in connection with his illness, and Shri Choudhury sent Behari Sing, Durwan, to bring Prahlad Sing driver for that purpose. Shri Choudhury deputed Prahlad Sing for that work. But Prahlad Sing refused. He said that he reported the matter to the Works Manager on the 27th of January and the Works Manager directed to issue a charge-sheet to him. Shri Choudhury said that a charge-sheet (Ext. A) was drawn up and signed by the Works Manager and was tendered to Prahlad Sing in his office and the latter refused. This fact has been proved by three assistants of the Time Office—O.P.W. 2 Mitra, O.P.W. 3 Baldeo Sing and O.P.W. 7 Megnadh Ghose. O.P.W. 7 deposes that Prahlad Sing refused to accept the charge-sheet saying that he did not commit any offence. O.P.W. 6 Shri Sharma and O.P.W. 5 Shri Behari Sing speak of Prahlad Sing's refusal to come to duty when called. Behari Sing made a written report (Ext. 12) and Sharma did not. Sharma got a slip with Choudhury Babu's order on it which he says he had lost. Prahlad Sing does not speak of any such slip. The details of the evidence are not so much important for our present purpose. Prahlad Sing said that he got leave for the 17th but he did not put that to Shri Choudhury when he was being examined. Prahlad Sing could not assign any reason for the alleged false charges against him. He said that he was victimised for being a member of the Union. There are other drivers who are also members of the Union. He did not say why he had been picked up for this special reatment. He has no special Union activities to his credit. There is no dispute of any serious nature outstanding between the Union and the Company. Prahlad Sing has no personal grudge against any of the Company's witnesses, neither they have any against him. The probabilities are against the story of bringing in any false charges against him. Shri Pathak, appearing on behalf of the Union, advanced two points: (i) the drivers was not under any obligation to work on Sundays and holidays; and (ii) nor he was obliged to perform any work unconnected with the business of the Company. It is very difficult to reject the Company's story of Prahlad Sing's refusal to do work on two days mentioned in the charge-sheet. I find that Prahlad Sing was called to duty under orders of the Officer-in-charge on two days namely on the 17th and 26th January last year and he refused to do work on both these occasions—facts which have been also proved by Prahlad Sing's admission before the Works Manager and the Labour Officer. It, however, appears that the management was prepared to condone his first act of disobedience taking place on the 17th of January. There was no report or charge-sheet immediately after the 17th. The drivers—Prahlad Sing is said to be a light car driver—are strictly speaking not factory workers as they are not employed directly or indirectly with any work connected with the manufacturing process in the factory. The fact that there is one 'Standing Orders' for the factory workers and the drivers, does not make the drivers workers of the factory under the Factories Act. Prahlad Sing is a monthly rated staff and admittedly worked on Sundays and holidays when necessary. Every worker is bound to do overtime work when required by the management to do so. He can of course legitimately demand payment for overtime wages. He cannot refuse to do overtime work when called upon to do so, particularly in emergency cases. And the decision of emergency as also calling the drivers to overtime duty, i.e., beyond regular working hours, rest with the management. It is idle for the Union to contend that there was no emergency for this or that the calling of the drivers to duty was not connected with the factory duties which the drivers are required to do. In fitness of things, the workers should not be allowed to question the propriety of the orders and that the management should be the sole judge in the matter. Both these contentions raised on behalf of the Union should fail. Mr. E. shows the findings of the Works Manager in an enquiry into the charges against Prahlad Sing. The management found him guilty on refusal to work of gross indiscipline which is punishable as an act of major misdemeanour under 16A of the Standing Orders. The charge of gross negligence in the performance of duties under 16L of the Standing Orders is not been established. Prahlad Sing was punished with dismissal from service. This Tribunal is not sitting as a Court of appeal over the decision of the management in this respect. It will only interfere if there is been absence of bona fides on the part of the management and basic error of facts or a perverse finding actuated by an act of victimisation or unfair labour practice or any violations of the principles of natural justice. In the findings given above, the Tribunal is unable to say that there has been any such defect or irregularity in the action taken by the management in this case.

Question now is whether the punishment is out of all proportion severe, justifying an interference of this Tribunal. It has been held by their Lordships of the Labour Appellate Tribunal in Bengal Card Board case, reported in 1954, L.A.C., page 234, that an Act of the deliberate refusal to comply with an order to work overtime is a misconduct, justifying dismissal from service. So, apart from the Standing Orders, this act of refusal on the part of the driver, amounts to misconduct for which he is liable to be dismissed. It is difficult to say that the finding of the management in this particular case is perverse on materials on record or that the punishment is unduly severe. The dismissal of Prahlad Sing is, therefore, justified and he is not entitled to reinstatement and/or compensation for his dismissal from service, I answer the issue accordingly.

Issue No. 2.

I gather from the learned representatives of both sides that there is only one Motor Mechanic, 50 Durwans, 8 Drivers, 12 Sweepers, 6 Bearer and 8 Gardeners in the service of this Company. Shri Bose appearing on behalf of the company says that the Motor Mechanic gets leave under the Factories Act and his hours of work are also regulated by that Act. In the Company's chart (Ext. K), it is stated that the Motor Mechanic gets 14 day privilege leave, 15 days sick leave on half pay, 4 days extra leave under the Award and 10 days festival leave. His hours of work per day are 8. He is not required to work on Sundays. No case has been made out on the Union's side to justify a change in his case.

The case of car drivers and durwans has been placed with good deal of care by the learned representative for the Union.

Let us take the case of their hours of work first. The only evidence on the Union's side is Ext. 7 which shows that in five Companies, the durwans and car drivers work 48 hours a week. Ext. K shows that the car drivers have no fixed hours of work and they are required to work on Sundays when necessary. The Durwans have their hours of work fixed, namely, 8 hours per day and they are required to work on Sundays. They get free quarters and uniforms. There is no dispute over the hours of work so far as Durwans are concerned. Question is: whether they should work on Sundays. Being an essential part of the Watch and Ward Department, they are under an obligation to work on Sundays, but in batches. As to the hours of work of the car drivers, it is necessary that their hours of work should be fixed. Under section 65(1) of the Motor Vehicles Act, a driver should not be allowed to work (a) for more than five hours before he has had an interval of rest of at least half an hour; or (b) for more than nine hours in one day or (c) for more than 54 hours in the week. The hours of work and period of rest have been explained in rules 88 and 89 of the Bengal Motor Vehicle Rules, 1940. It is not clear from the Union's chart whether hours of work for drivers shown in Ext. 7 include interval of rest. The best thing, in the circumstances, to do is to fix the same hours of work as have been done under section 65 of the Motor Vehicles Act and I do so in this instant case. The drivers are now required to work on Sundays when necessary. This cannot be totally avoided for the factories are mostly situated in out of the way places, accessible only by cars, and accordingly urgent and emergency cases require the attendance of the drivers at all hours and on all days. I gather that some of the drivers are provided with quarters in the factory premises and with good reason. The drivers, therefore, should work on Sundays when required. Of course, they are to be paid overtime while now being paid under the Standing Orders (Order No. 20) in accordance with the provisions of the Factories Act. The Works Manager and Chaudhury Babu could not give the rate of allowance payable to drivers working on Sundays and holidays. They said that the drivers are paid some allowance for these days at the rate between Re. 1 to Rs. 2 per day. The Tribunal does not encourage any difference in treatment in this respect between factory workers and drivers particularly when the Standing Orders are made applicable to them. They are, therefore, entitled to get it in accordance with the provisions of the Factories Act.

Regarding the Sweepers employed within the factory premises, they get the same leave facilities and enjoy the same hours of work as other workers employed in the factory under the Factories Act. They are not required to attend on Sundays. But Sweepers who are employed for work outside the factory have the same hours of work but they are required to attend on Sundays. They do not get festival holidays and extra leave under the Award. No case has been made out justifying any change either in the hours of work or in leave and holiday facilities.

The Gardeners are not required to work on Sundays. Their hours of work as shown in Ext. K are 8 per day. But during argument, Shri Bose said that they had no regular hours of work and that only one of them was employed in the factory and seven outside it. They get 14 days privilege leave, 15 days sick leave and 10 days festival leave. No case has been made out justifying any change in the existing arrangement.

The Bearers enjoy with the Durwans and the Car Drivers privilege leave of 21 days, casual leave of 7 days and sick leave of 15 days on half pay. They also enjoy the festival holidays and are not required to attend on Sundays. They get uniforms. Their usual hours of work are 8 per day. These do not call for any change at present.

I do not think that any compensatory holiday should, at present, be given to any of the said workers who is liable to be called for duty on Sundays. But they should be paid overtime at the rate mentioned above. It is desirable that overtime should be avoided as far as possible and only in urgent and emergency cases, the decision of which will rest with the management, the worker will be required to do it. Overtime work has caused considerable irritation among the drivers and there are good reasons to believe that the privileges now enjoyed by some of the staff for free use of cars is now being abused without the knowledge of the management. This should be stopped. The calling of the drivers to duty on Sundays and holidays should be made in urgent and emergency cases only, and formal notices should be given in advance wherever possible, and formal warrants or log book containing orders be handed over to the drivers where the hours of departure and arrival with dates and nature of duty be noted. It appears that warnings are not noted as required under the Standing Orders in the registers and service sheets and the service record of at least one driver produced before the Tribunal, disclosed a very unsatisfactory state of affairs. This was not maintained correctly and up-to-date. In the interest of security of service, service records should be kept properly and in due course of business and not perfunctorily as has been done in the case of Prahlad Singh. I answer the issue accordingly. This is my award.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Caltex (India), Ltd., 22, Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta, and their clerical employees in Calcutta District Office and installations in the Calcutta industrial area, represented by Caltex Employees' Union, 30, Gopimohan Dutta Lane, Calcutta-3.

BEFORE THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, NEW SECRETARIAT BUILDINGS, WEST BENGAL, CALCUTTA.

PRESENT:

SHRI MOTILAL CHAKRAVATTI, District Judge, Judge, Sixth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances.

For Messrs. Caltex (India), Ltd: Shri P. P. Ginwalla, Counsel, instructed by K. L. Chatterjee, Pleader of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co., Solicitors.

For Caltex Employees' Union: Shri Sadhan Gupta, Bar-at-Law, M.P instructed by Shri N. D. Chatterjee, Shri P. C. Dutta, Shri S. R. Set and Shri L. N. Mullick.

Acting under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by order No. 2733Dis./D/15L-5/54, dated Calcutta, the 27th May 1954 referred the aforesaid dispute for adjudication to me regarding the matter specified in the schedule to the Order of Reference.

SCHEDULE.

- (1) Additional bonus for 1952 payable to the clerical employees of the Company in Calcutta District Office and installations in the Calcutta industrial area.

AWARD.

Admittedly the Company has paid bonus for the year 1952, equivalent to one month's wages to the clerks concerned in this present proceeding. The said employees however claim six months' wages as additional bonus for the said year. The Company having refused to produce the Balance Sheet, it is contended on behalf of the workmen that the Tribunal is presume that if the Balance-Sheets were produced the hugeness of profit for the year 1952 and the previous years would have been disclosed.

The Company does not take the plea of incapacity or want of means to pay the additional bonus as claimed by the Union but the Company attention is that it should not pay anything which will not be reasonable in the circumstances of the case and the circumstances as contended are as follows:—

That the Company indents petrol and other products from foreign countries and stores them here and sell the same at profit and that the Caltex Company is only one of the many such companies dealing in the same commodities and amongst the three companies, viz., Burmah Shell & Co., Standard Vacuum Company and Caltex (India), Ltd.; the present Company, i.e., Caltex (India), Ltd., occupies the third place.

It is argued on behalf of the Company that the average basic wage paid to a workman of this Company amounts to Rs. 166 per month and if the average dearness allowance and the money value of other benefits which the workmen at present enjoy are added together, the total emolument would exceed the living wage figure even upon calculation on the basis of 390 as the cost of living index.

It appears from Ext. 3, produced by the Union that Burmah Shell imported about 11,74,64,089 gallons of oil and Standard Vacuum imported about 7,90,01,447 gallons of oil whereas Caltex (India), Ltd., imported 3,93,34,318 gallons of oil during the year 1952. From this statement it appears that the position of Caltex (India), Ltd., is in the ratio of about half of Messrs. Standard Vacuum Oil Company and about one-fourth of Messrs. Burmah Shell. So we should consider the amount of bonus which Burmah Shell and Standard Vacuum gave to their workmen for 1952. The Secretary of Burmah Shell Employees' Union, Shri Banamali deposed:—

that the scale of wages is from Rs. 80 to 470 per month and only three or four clerks draw Rs. 470. Dearness allowance is in accordance with the Bengal Chamber of Commerce scale. There is provision for pension and to the employees who do not qualify for pension, gratuity is paid subject to a maximum of fifteen months' wages and that employees putting in less than 10 years of service are not paid any gratuity. He further says that in final analysis of the pension and gratuity rules, the actual pension would work out at 23 per cent. or 25 per cent. only of the retiring salary and not 40 per cent. as alleged by the employer Messrs. Burmah Shell.

W. 3 Shri Indu Bhusan Chakravarti, the General Secretary of the Standard Vacuum Employees' Union, deposed that—the wage scale of Messrs. Standard Vacuum is from Rs. 80 to Rs. 400 and that there are only five clerks who draw above Rs. 400 per month which is a special category. In this Company also dearness allowance is paid in accordance with the Bengal Chamber of Commerce Scale. There is no gratuity scheme except for the particular period prior to the introduction of the Provident Fund in 1948. As regards Provident Fund contribution Standard Vacuum Company contributes only 7 per cent. of the basic wage whereas Caltex Company contributes 10 per cent. of the basic wage Caltex Company has got Provident Fund and gratuity both. I do not think that the total emoluments given by Caltex (India), Ltd., are in any way below par with the Standard Vacuum and Burmah Shell which are far more solvent than Caltex.

It has been shown by evidence that Burmah Shell and Standard Vacuum Companies have been involved in reference cases over the question of bonus for 1952 and that the awards now pending appeal at the instance of the workmen have given three months' wages as bonus. For 1950 Calcutta also was directed by the Tribunal to pay bonus equivalent to three months' wages. At that time, it should be noted, the minimum wage was Rs. 70 or 75 but not Rs. 80. The wages were increased to Rs. 80 with effect from 1951. It appears from the award of Messrs. Burmah Shell published on June 17, 1954, in the Calcutta Gazette, that Burmah Shell voluntarily gave one month's wages as bonus for 1952 and later on by award wages for two months more was directed to be paid as additional bonus for the said year. Considering all these circumstances I think that the claim of the Union for six months' wages as additional bonus is highly exorbitant and it should not be granted. I am of opinion that two months' wages should be paid as additional bonus for the year 1952, to the workmen concerned in this proceeding, and the payment be made within a month from the date of publication of the award in the Calcutta Gazette.

The Company's contention, on the basis of average income at Rs. 166 per month is highly faulty. It would be doing immense injustice to the workmen earning low wages by fastening average income upon them calculated along with the high wages paid to others.

I need not enter into the question of "living wage" figure, particularly when, no such figure as yet been laid down by any authority and when the approximate living wage figure is obviously a far cry from the wages now being paid by the Company.

It has been prayed on behalf of the Union that additional bonus for 1952 may be made payable not only to the workmen now in service but also to those who have retired and to the heirs of the workmen who have died during 1952 or afterwards.

The demand for bonus was made for the first time in February 1953. Therefore the workmen who retired after that date or the heirs of the workmen who died after that date provided the workmen had worked during 1952, may be entitled to get benefit of this award, whereas the workmen retiring before date or the heirs of the workmen dying before that date should not be held to be entitled to the said benefit of the award.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by Shri Lakshman Chandra Porel, post office Uluberia, village Natibpore, district Howrah, an employee of Gagalbhai Jute Mills, Ltd., arising out of an industrial dispute between 100 Jute Mills in West Bengal and their workmen referred by Government Order No. 1988Dis./D/7L-48(A)/53, dated 7th April 1954, 3393Dis./D/3A-10/54, dated 12th July 1954 and 3537Dis./D/7L-47/54, dated 21st July 1954.

BEFORE THE INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI M. C. BANERJEE, District Judge (Retd.), Chairman.

SHRI S. C. MOOKHERJEE, District Judge, Member.

For the Complainant: Shri Lakshman Ch. Porel himself.

For the Jute Mill: Shri J. Raman of the I.J.M.A.

AWARD.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 1988Dis./D/7L-48(A)/53, dated 7th April 1954, 3393Dis./D/3A-10/54, dated 12th July 1954 and 3537Dis./D/7L-47/54, dated 21st July 1954, referred the industrial dispute between 100 Jute Mills in West Bengal, including the Gagalbhai Jute Mills, Ltd., and their workmen to this Tribunal for adjudication. The proceedings arising out of this reference are still pending.

On 8th November 1954 Shri Lakshman Ch. Porel, an employee of the Gagalbhai Jute Mills, Ltd., village Natibpore, post office Uluberia, district Howrah, filed a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, stating as follows:—

The case of the workman is that he was discharged from the Mill on 7th October 1953, and he informed the matter to the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Howrah, on 24th February 1954. Thereafter conciliation proceedings were taken up, after which Lakshman Ch. Porel was asked by the Assistant Labour Commissioner of Howrah in his memorandum No. 2363 How., dated 24th June 1954, to receive payment of some of his dues, which he declined to accept. In his complaint, he makes a prayer for production of certain documents relating to his employment at the time of the hearing of the case.

The Company, in reply, states that the application filed by the complainant, Lakshman Ch. Porel is misconceived and is not maintainable in law, as it does not disclose any violation of the provisions of section 33 by the Company. Lakshman Ch. Porel's services were dispensed with on 27th October 1953, and the proceedings before this Tribunal commenced on 7th April 1954. As such, the provisions of section 33 are not attracted by the termination of services of the complainant.

On 10th February 1955 the case was partly heard and was fixed for 11th February 1955 for further hearing. On 11th February 1955 the complainant, however, filed a petition praying for withdrawal of the application under section 33A. He states in this petition that he has settled the matter with the Company and is not willing to proceed with the case. This petition appears as Appendix A to this award. The petitioner is permitted to withdraw the application under section 33A of the Act, the disputes having been since amicably settled, and there will thus be a "no dispute" award.

ANNEXURE.

The matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Casting Corporation (India), Ltd., 45, Madhusudan Pal Chowdhury Lane, Howrah and their workmen represented by Casting Corporation (India), Ltd. Mazdoor Union, 1, Rajaram Das Lane, Howrah.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

the Company: Shri U. N. Roy, assisted by Shri M. Guha.

the Union: Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate.

AWARD.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. Casting Corporation (India), Ltd., 45, Madhusudan Pal Chowdhury Lane, Howrah and their workmen represented by Casting Corporation (India), Ltd. Mazdoor Union, 1, Rajaram Das Lane, Howrah, regarding the matters mentioned below in the issues referred to this Tribunal for its adjudication under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 3292Dis./D/11L-169/54, dated the 6th July 1954 and subsequent corrigendum No. 4207Dis./D/11L-169/54, dated the 2nd September 1954.

Both parties filed their written statements in due course.

In the written statement filed by the Union, it is stated that it submitted a "Charter of Demands" to the management of the Casting Corporation (India), Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the "company"), to which the management did not even give a reply. On 19th January 1954, Shri Arish Santra, a permanent worker of the company, was discharged without any charge-sheet and without any scope of defence. He fell ill in his absence on 3rd January 1954 and left with the permission of the Manager of the department, Shri Bhupati Majhi. The reason of his absence was given to the management which verbally granted him leave. He came to work on 19th January 1954 with a medical certificate but he was refused admission and was dismissed for his said absence. This was against all principles of industrial justice and as such, the worker is entitled to reinstatement with wages for the entire period of his unemployment.

It further states that the company has no fixed rate of pay, far less scale of pay. The existing rate is poor and a flat rate of increment minimum pay should be given with retrospective effect. It does not grant any dearness allowance. The Union claims dearness allowance at the rate of Rs. 31 up to Rs. 50 per month and Rs. 42 up to Rs. 100 per month. The company does not grant any leave and the Union claims leave and holidays for the staff. At present, there is no retiral benefit for employees of this company and the Union claims one month's pay for a year of service as gratuity on death or termination of service for voluntary, for everybody.

The company, in reply, said that it was suffering recurring losses for the last four years in business. The total amount of net loss was Rs. 33,199. Due to this critical financial position, the company had to stop work for a few months last year. It is a small scale engineering concern depending purely on job works and employs at present permanent employees numbering 40. It allows full statutory leave under the Factories Act and 10 festival leave. It has been contributing to the Employees' State Insurance Fund and sick leave would be covered by that Fund. It is unable to grant any retiral benefits. Shri Ambarish Santra was absent from duty from 4th January 1954 to 19th January 1954 without any intimation to the company. On 7th January 1954, he took his wages from the Accountant but did not join to his duty. On 19th January 1954, he came to join his duty but was refused on the ground of his intentional absence for more than 15 days without any intimation. The workers of the company are all daily rated and monthly paid. Dearness is also paid to the workers.

The issues as per schedule to the order of reference are:—

- (1) Is the discharge of Shri Ambarish Santra justified? To what extent, by way of reinstatement and/or compensation he is entitled to?
- (2) Wages.
- (3) Leave and holidays.
- (4) Retirement benefits.

FINDINGS.

Issue No. 1.

P. W. 1 Shri Ambarish Santra said that he was absent from duty between 4th January 1954 and 19th January 1954. He had an attack of dysentery and suffered from it from the 3rd of February till he attended on the 1st of March. He was under the treatment of Dr. U. Khan who granted him a medical certificate (Ext. 1). The company refused to give him work when he came to duty. He said that one of his nephews Panchanan Mazhi, an employee of this company, obtained an advance of Rs. 5 against his pay on 4th January 1954 when he informed the office about his illness. He came to duty on the 7th in a rickshaw and obtained his wages. He said that he told the Cashier and the Chota Babu (Ashish Babu) about his illness. He was without any employment between the date of his dismissal and his joining S. C. Das & Co., two months ago. He asked for reinstatement with his wages. In cross-examination, he admitted that he did not go to the company's doctor, Dr. D. K. Das, during his illness. No witness was examined on behalf of the company. The learned Advocate for the Union accordingly asked this Tribunal to believe the evidence of Shri Santra.

the issue in his favour. There are certain discrepancies in the story by Shri Santra in his written statement and as told in his deposition to this Tribunal. He said in his written statement that he fell ill in the night of 3rd January 1954 and went home with permission of his Mistress, Mrs. Mazhi. He abandoned this story at the time of hearing and said that he fell ill in its place. In fact, 3rd January 1954 was a Sunday, a closed day. He however said that he fell ill on that day and sent information to the office on 4th next through one of his nephews Panchanan Mazhi. Panchanan Mazhi has not been examined and with no good reason. He did not draw his wages on the 7th, the pay day, and said that he had informed the Chota Babu about his illness. This is a new story, not told in his written statement. He has not examined his doctor who produced a medical certificate (Ext. 1). At the same time, he admitted that he had gone to his company's doctor, Dr. Das, during his illness. He did not say why he did not do so. In the ordinary course of things, he should have gone to the company's doctor not only for the certificate but for treatment during his illness. He further said that he was a permanent worker in the service of this company and was out of employment since dismissal till he joined S. Das & Co., two months ago. He admitted that he had been in service of S. Das & Co. before and after his dismissal. In a written statement, one of the Directors of S. Das & Co. said on 5th February 1954 that Ambarish Santra was in their service and was laid off from 1st January 1953 to 4th February 1954. He joined his firm on 5th February 1954 and is working till today. This fact was not put to P. W. 1 in cross-examination, neither he declined it. At the time of argument, it was stated on his behalf that Ext. C was a piece of forgery and that he was employed since he was dismissed by this company. The company was asked to produce the Wage Register and the Attendance Register of S. Das & Co., Ltd., in the Tribunal. One of the Directors of that company came to the Tribunal with the Wage Register and the Attendance Register on 5th February 1955 and showed the books to the Tribunal in the presence of Union officials. The company's application dated 9th February 1955 supported by the Union officials speaks in support of the company's contention that the genuineness of Ext. C. That demolishes the story of Shri Santra's remaining unemployed since his dismissal by this company. It is extremely unfortunate that Shri Santra did not tell the whole truth about his dismissal before this Tribunal. Rather he told the story which demonstratively proved to be untrue. The Tribunal does not believe the story of illness to be true. Neither it believes that he remained unemployed during the entire period since his dismissal and before two months today. It is true that he was refused work for his long absence and did not give any information to the company and dismissed from service without a wage-sheet and a formal enquiry. It has been laid down by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in a case reported in 1954, L.A.C., page 828, that the thing in such cases has got to be considered from broad angle. It has been shown on behalf of the Union that the management had any good reason to be angry with Shri Santra or that Shri Santra had any bad Union activities to his credit. There was no serious dispute pending between the Union and the company which demanded any such victimisation of a poor employee who was known to be ill to the management. That being the case, it is difficult to see why the management should come out with a false story to justify its action of dismissal of Shri Santra. Admittedly, Shri Santra did not take any leave for his absence, either verbally or in writing. He was a permanent worker. He was and still is on the permanent pay roll of S. Das & Bros., Ltd. Accordingly, the Tribunal finds that Shri Santra's dismissal cannot be acted upon. His discharge in the circumstances of the case is justified. He is not entitled to any relief by way of reinstatement or compensation.

Issue No. 3.

In paragraph 5 of its written statement, the company stated that it was allowing full statutory leave under the Factories Act and 10 days' festive holidays to its employees. It is also contributing to the Employees' State Insurance Fund and contended that the sick leave would be covered by the Fund. The Union, on the other hand, suggests that they are entitled to leave and holidays as under the Second Major Engineering Tribunal Award.

Regarding the sick leave, the First Award provided as follows:—

"Sick leave with half pay for 15 days in a year of service, such leave being allowed to accumulate from year to year and being liable to be discontinued as soon as the Employees' State Insurance Act comes into operation."

The Second Major Engineering Tribunal reaffirmed this in its Award. I have no objection of granting leave and holidays to the employees as per Second Major Engineering Tribunal Award. I answer the issue accordingly.

Issue No. 4.

At present, the employees do not get any benefit on retirement. The Union asks for one month's pay for each year of service as gratuity and company contests this claim mainly on the ground of its critical financial position.

The company has produced its Balance Sheets and Profit & Loss Account for the last four years. They are exhibits D to D3. These have not been accepted by the Union to be correct. Nothing has been shown on the Union's side that any particular entry in the Balance Sheet and the Profit & Loss Account of any year is inaccurate. The learned Advocate for the Union contends that the company's accounts, so far as the Stocks-in-hand concerned, are not audited by the Auditors. And that the Auditors have accepted the valuation given by the management as correct. This does not prove that the Balance Sheets audited by the Auditors are inaccurate. The company's accounts for the year ending 30th June 1954 have not been filed. They have not been audited as yet. It appears from the material on record that this company has been incurring systematic loss in the last few years past and in fact, stopped production between the middle of November 1952 and February 1953. It also appears from a note prepared by the Howrah Manufacturers Association (Ext. B) that most of the small firms are suffering losses for the last few years. From Ext. A, it is clear that small engineering industries in Howrah are "poor in organisational capital structure. They also suffer from many other handicaps". In this company is a small engineering concern having many difficulties in its operation. Its financial position is far from stable and satisfactory. It would be extremely unfair in the present circumstances to impose a heavy financial burden on its poor resources under the head of "Retirement benefits". The demand for the introduction of retirement benefits at present is refused.

Issue No. 2.

The Union demands a revision of the present rates of wages on the ground that these rates are grossly inadequate and much below those fixed by the Major Engineering Tribunal Awards, to which this company was also entitled as also the rates prevailing in the comparable concerns of the localities. The Union stated the present rates in annexure A to its written statement and demands in annexure B of it. It also said that no dearness allowance is payable at present and that suitable provision should be made for its payment in the present case. The learned Advocate for the Union contends that the provision on wages is comprehensive enough to include dearness allowance.

company contests this claim on the ground of its critical financial position and contends that any further imposition on its slender finances would lead to a sure ruin of the industry. It says that it is paying dearness allowance to its employees with wages, which are adequate.

Oral evidence is adduced by either party on this issue. The company produced Exts. C1 and F, two charts to show the present rates of wages including dearness allowance as paid to its employees and the prevailing rates in the locality. The Union produced four charts (Exts. 2, 2A, 2B and 2C) showing the rates of wages in a local firm known as Dhang & Co. and also other comparable concerns of the same locality. In Ext. 2, the Union attempted to give a comparative table showing wages actually paid in this company and in five other companies within its neighbourhood. The learned representatives of both parties proceeded to argue the issue on the basis of the charts. The Tribunal, therefore, finds no good reason to discard them as incorrect or incomplete. There is no other alternative evidence on which to decide the issue. In annexure B, the Union claims different scales of pay for different categories of employees of this company. They are as follows:—

Foreman—Rs. 75—3—135.
 Fitter—Rs. 75—3—135.
 Helper—Rs. 40—1—60.
 Foreman and Helper—Rs. 50—1½—80.
 Apprentices—Rs. 80—5—180.

The company opposes the introduction of any new scales of pay for its employees at present. The issue on wages has got to be considered in the light of the company's work and stability and finances. The learned representative for the company has taken pains to make an impression on the Tribunal about the very insecure position of this company as an industry in a critical financial position for the last few years. He said that this company, being a member of the Engineering Association, came to be treated as a party before the First Major Engineering Tribunal. In actual fact, it is a very small industrial concern doing purely job works and it should properly be classified as "small engineering jobbers." This company does not employ any machine shop. It has no machine shop. It employs a handful of workmen, mostly semi-skilled. It pays them quite adequate wages, which include dearness allowance also. The learned Advocate for the company said that the size of the industry had no relevancy to the adjudication of this issue and that this company was a member to the First Major Engineering Tribunal (Serial No. 114) and that learned Tribunal had fixed the rates after carefully considering the fact that the weakest of the parties was it deserved special protection. Considering the bad days of the industry, the First Major Engineering Tribunal, rather in a halting manner, tackled this problem, endeavouring to avoid dislocation as best as possible. However, it pointed out that the proper approach was primarily to take workers' needs into consideration in fixing the minimum wages. The inability of the industry to pay was really no consideration in deciding that Exts. A to A4 taken along with Ext. B undoubtedly establish the case for special treatment for small industries including the present company. The company's Balance Sheets (Ext. D series) prove that it has incurred losses year after year in its business and is far from being stable at present. It had to stop its production for some months, only two years ago.

On a consideration of all these, the Tribunal does not consider the present time to be proper for introducing grades and scales of pay for the employees. Neither it considers it equitable and fair, in the circumstances of the case, to impose any heavy financial burden on the company on account of its losses. At the same time, it is not unmindful of the fact that a fairly large portion of its employees are getting inadequate wages and accordingly they should be allowed some increment in wages to help them in their financial difficulties. On company's evidence (Ext. C1), about 50 per cent. of employees get a total emolument of less than Rs. 58 per month and at 33 per cent. get Rs. 39 or even less than that per month. According to learned representative for the company, the employees are semi-skilled, according to Ext. A (page 46), 76 per cent. of the employees of small industries in Howrah are skilled and 24 per cent. are unskilled. According to Ext. A (page 46), a labourer employed in these small industries, earns on average monthly wages of Rs. 57.2. According to Ext. A3, he earns between Rs. 54 and Rs. 60 per month and according to Ext. B, he earns on an average Rs. 60 per month. On Union's evidence (Ext. 2), it appears that 38.1 per cent. of the company's employees earn much below Rs. 61 per month. In other comparable concerns in the locality at least in three of them, there is not even one employee who gets below Rs. 61 per month, the minimum total emoluments fixed by the Second Major Engineering Tribunal. The position of the coolies in this company is still more miserable. 50 per cent. of them earn Rs. 39 and the remaining 50 per cent. earn about Rs. 45 per month. In three other comparable concerns mentioned in Ext. 2A, there is no employee who gets below Rs. 61 per month. They are also industries of very small size and employ less number of men than this company. Under the Major Engineering Tribunal Award, an unskilled worker gets Rs. 30 as basic wages and Rs. 31 as dearness allowance per month. In all, he gets a total emolument of Rs. 61 per month. That has been considered to be a standard rate even for the weakest of the parties before that Tribunal. It is not very material for our present purpose to decide whether this company was a party to the First Major Engineering Tribunal by sheer chance or on merits. It is enough that this company was a party before it and accordingly its award is binding on it. It has been said by the learned representative for the company with reference to Exts. F and C1, that at least six out of the total of 56 employees have left the company's service and that there are at least five boy helpers among them. The boy helpers are Nos. 33, 34, 35, 36 and 42 (Ext. C1). They are paid at the rate of Re. 1 or 14 as. each per day including dearness allowance. It has however not been made clear why the boy helpers are paid much less than others doing probably equal work in the factory. After all, equal work ordinarily should carry equal pay. We have anxiously considered the evidence, the facts and the circumstances of this case against the background of the company's finances and come to the conclusion that the present rates of the employees should be revised with a view to bring the existing minimum wages up to the standard fixed under the Major Engineering Tribunals' Awards. The cases of boy helpers as trainees however stand on a different footing. They should be paid during their period of training a total emolument of Rs. 40 per month. The minimum wages including dearness allowance of other employees should be Rs. 61 per month. To maintain the wage differentials and in the interest of industrial peace, other employees drawing above Rs. 61 per month should be paid non-recurring increment of Rs. 2 only per month.

The learned Advocate for the Union pressed for retrospective operation of this award from the date of the submission of the "Charter of Demands". I am unable to accede to this request. The increased rates will come into operation with effect from March 1955. I answer the issue accordingly!

RE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

Union: Shri A. N. Banerjee, Secretary, Engineering Mazdoor Union.

Company: Shri N. M. Das Gupta, Advocate.

AWARD.

By order No. 2384Dis./D/10L-19(A)/54, dated the 10th May 1954, Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Poddar Automobiles, 113, Park Street, Calcutta and their workmen as represented by Engineering Mazdoor Union, 65, Kansaripara Road, Bhowanipore, Calcutta-25, regarding the matter specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act by notification No. 592Dis./D/12L-5/52, dated the 23rd January 1953, for adjudication.

After summons the parties entered appearance and filed their written statements after taking adjournments. The pleadings were completed on 10th October 1954. Thereafter the issue was amended by Government order No. 4149Dis./D/10L-19(A)/54, dated the 28th August 1954. The parties thereafter filed supplementary written statements. The dispute was decided after adjournments on 24th February 1955.

The matter of dispute, after amendment, is as follows:—

(1) What should be the quantum of bonus for 1952-53?

DECISION.

Messrs. Poddar Automobiles (hereafter called the Company), 113, Park Street, Calcutta, is a workshop for repairing and services of automobiles. Their workmen represented by Engineering Mazdoor Union (hereafter called the Union) laid claim for bonus for the year 1952-53 under two heads—one on the basis of profit-sharing and the other as Puja bonus. They claimed 3 months' basic salary/wages under each of these heads. The Company resisted the claim.

The financial year of the Company is from July to June. The balance sheet of the Company for the year ending June 1953 shows a small profit of Rs. 2,835-14-3 pies. According to the Full Bench formula bonus can only be paid should there be a residue after deducting prior charges and also after making provisions for the return on working capital. On such deductions, it is obvious, there would be no available surplus. Thus the claim for bonus on the basis of profit cannot be sustained. During hearing the Union's representative also filed a petition stating that he did not press claim on this head.

As regards Puja bonus, the Union's representative also stated by the above petition that the workmen had no dispute regarding the quantum of Puja bonus for the year 1952-53 in question. He also stated that the workmen had received one month's wages as Puja bonus for the year in question and did not press further claim. In the circumstances, claim for additional Puja bonus must also fail. The contention of the Union that such Puja bonus is a condition of service, cannot be gone into when the dispute regarding the said Puja bonus for the year in question ceased to exist. The Tribunal can go into the question during the subsistence of the dispute and not otherwise. As in the present case the Union's representative states that the workmen had since received payment of the Puja bonus for the year in question in full and final settlement, it is obvious that the dispute ceases. It being so, the question, whether the said bonus is a condition of service or not, cannot be gone into and is left open. The Union's claim, therefore, fails.

I award accordingly.

AWARD.

By order No. 2879Dis./D/10L-88/54, dated the 4th June 1954, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Tarapada Biswas, 391, G. T. Road (North), Salkia, Howrah and the workers Narayan and (ii) Khalil represented by West Bengal Steel Trunk Suit-case, Cash-box Workers' Union, 84/1A, Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, Notification No. 592Dis./D/12L-5/52, dated the 23rd February 1953, for adjudication.

Schedule.

(1) If the two workers (i) Narayan and (ii) Khalil are entitled to reinstatement and/or any other relief.

2. On receipt of the reference on 11th June 1954, summons in Form "F" sent by registered post with acknowledgment due to the parties fixing 17th June 1954 for appearance and for filing of written statement of claim to the Union. Summons on the Union was served and the workmen represented by West Bengal Steel Trunk Suit-case, Cash-box Workers' Union appeared and filed written statement of claim on 5th July 1954 for taking an adjournment. Summons on the employer, Sri Tarapada Biswas, was however returned unserved by the postal authorities with the remark "Left". Thereupon the Government in the Labour Department was written to for supply of new address of the said employer. By No. 611 Dis./D/10L-88/54, dated the 30th December 1954, the Assistant Secretary to the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, replied: "The present address of Tarapada Biswas cannot be obtained despite the best efforts of the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Howrah." Then notice was issued on the Union to show cause why the proceeding should not be held infructuous. On receipt of the said notice the Union supplied fresh address of the employer wherein he is alleged to have been residing. The summons was accordingly sent to the employer at the said residential address by registered post with acknowledgment due, but this too was returned unserved with the remark "Left". The Union prayed for service of the summons by publication in the newspapers. I find no such provision for service of summons. The provisions in the Civil Procedure Code regarding service of summons on the parties have no application. Rule 12 of the Bengal Industrial Disputes Rules, 1947, provides for service of summons by notice, process or order in the following manner:—

- (a) it may be sent by registered post; or
- (b) if such notice, summons, process or order is to be served within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court of Small Causes, Calcutta, it may be sent to the Registrar of that Court for service, accompanied by a conveyance charge of annas 4 in respect of each notice, summons, process or order to be served; and the Registrar shall, on receipt thereof, proceed as if it had been issued by the Court of Small Causes, Calcutta, and shall then return the same to the Court or Board or Tribunal together with the record (if any) of the proceedings with regard thereto.

In the present case clause (b) has no application as the address of the employer given is outside the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court of Small Causes, Calcutta. So the only mode for service in the present case was by registered post. The said channel was resorted to and on all the occasions summons was returned unserved.

DECISION.

In the circumstances, when the proper address of the employer is available and, as a result, summons could not be served upon the employer, it must be held that the reference has become infructuous.

I award accordingly.

The matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. John Dickinson and Co., Ltd., 6, Clive Row, Calcutta and one of their employees, Miss M. Hemingway, 2, Prince Court, 74, Theatre Road, Calcutta-17.

FORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

the employee: Shri J. Pandey.

the Company: Shri S. K. Mallick of Sanderson & Morgans, Solicitors.

AWARD.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. John Dickinson & Co., Ltd., Clive Row, Calcutta, and one of their employees, Miss M. Hemingway, Prince Court, 74, Theatre Road, Calcutta-17, over the termination of services of the latter was referred to this Tribunal for its adjudication under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department order No. 4631Dis./D/11L-296/54, dated the 29th September 1954.

Both parties filed their written statements.

In her written statement before this Tribunal, Miss M. Hemingway said that she was permanently employed in the service of John Dickinson & Co., Ltd., from the middle of the year 1946, in the capacity of Secretary-Stenographer to the Branch Manager. She was appointed on a salary of Rs. 300 per month and she was drawing Rs. 560 per month at the time of her discharge. Mr. Melton, during the absence of Mr. Powell the permanent Branch Manager, acted in his place from time to time. He appointed Miss Berry, a junior Stenographer and cultivated friendship with her. He tried insinuating Miss Berry into the Manager's secretarial work from the time he realised that he was likely to be a full-fledged Branch Manager. On the other hand, he started heaping every type of work on Miss Hemingway to keep her busily engaged for more hours than usual which she performed ungrudgingly and efficiently. Mr. Melton prompted Miss Berry to suggest to Miss Hemingway to resign on several occasions. In 1952, he recommended a heavy increase in salary for Miss Berry whereas Hemingway got an ordinary increment of Rs. 10 only. Mr. Melton was to get rid of Miss Hemingway and did so most arbitrarily on 25th March 1954, when he handed over a letter of termination of employment to Miss Hemingway without assigning any reason for that. On repeated enquiry Miss Hemingway was told by a letter dated 23rd April 1954 that she was dismissed for gross impertinence. The dismissal was effected in violation of the principles of natural justice and without chargesheet, explanation, enquiry and opportunity for defence. Accordingly, Miss Hemingway is entitled for reinstatement with back wages for the entire period of her unemployment.

John Dickinson & Co., Ltd. (hereinafter called the "company"), contested this case and contended among others that the reference was bad in law for at the time of it, Miss Hemingway was not a workman and that the dispute was an individual dispute.

The company denied Miss Hemingway's allegations and said that they were most impertinent and defamatory and made solely with a view to prejudice this Tribunal against Mr. Melton. Miss Hemingway was prepared to work with any European executive other than Mr. Powell and was extremely indifferent to her work and unpleasant in her behaviour towards Mr. Melton. Whenever she was sent for by Mr. Melton for taking notes, she delayed as much as she could and on one occasion, when she was asked by Mr. Melton the reason for such behaviour, she gave her reply in a most arrogant and impertinent manner. On the 24th of March 1954 she was found by Mr. Melton sitting on her chair doing nothing for over an hour. On enquiry, why she was spending her time in that manner, she got infuriated and with a belligerent attitude, started a row with Mr. Melton. She was extremely insolent and impertinent in her talks with and defied the authority of Mr. Melton. The company, however, did not take any step in the matter in expectation that she would come to her senses and apologise. Instead of apologising she asked Miss Berry when leaving the office at 5 p.m. that day to communicate her statement to Mr. Melton to the following effect:—"You tell Mr. Melton from me that if he wishes he can sack me but if he does I shall make him look the biggest fool in Calcutta." On the morning of the 25th March 1954, she was given time to apologise for her conduct of the previous day which she refused to do. In the circumstances and having regard to her aforesaid grossly insolent behaviour, the company felt it impossible to retain her in its employ any longer. Although she could have been dismissed for her aforesaid conduct, the company treated her leniently in the matter and instead of dismissing her terminated her employment by payment of one month's salary in lieu of notice. The company justified its action in terminating her services for good reasons, and she was not entitled to reinstatement, nor any compensation.

The issues are:—

- (1) Whether the termination of services of Miss M. Hemingway on 25th April 1954 was justified? To what relief is she entitled?
- (2) Whether the reference is illegal and ultra vires?

FINDINGS.

Issue No. 2.—It has been contended by Shri S. K. Mallick on behalf of the company that the reference of the dispute to this Tribunal is bad in law on two grounds: (i) Miss Hemingway was not a workman at the time of the reference; and (ii) being an individual dispute, it does not come within the mischief of the Industrial Disputes Act. During argument id not press the first ground for good reasons. Regarding the ground, he said on the authority of a decision of the Patna High t, reported in 1954, II, L.L.J., page 21 that an individual dispute is an industrial dispute under the Industrial Disputes Act. Sri Pandey on behalf of Miss Hemingway mainly relied upon the Full Bench Decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal reported in 1953, L.A.C., page 137 and ended that an individual dispute has been held to be an industrial dispute under the Act. There has been a conflict of judicial decisions on point so far as our different High Courts are concerned. Allahabad Court supports the decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal whereas Calcutta and Ernakulam High Courts went against it. There is no decision of the Calcutta High Court directly applicable to the facts of this case. Full Bench Decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal has taken into consideration the conflicting decisions of the High Courts and on an interpretation of the section of the Act, comes to the conclusion that an individual dispute is an industrial dispute under the Act. With the findings of that decision, I respectfully agree. In my judgment, the individual dispute is an industrial dispute under the Act and as such the reference is not bad in law. Further, I have good reasons to doubt, sitting on the Industrial Tribunal, to which this reference was made under section 10 of the Act, whether I can, strictly speaking, entertain any such objection to the jurisdiction of this Tribunal on this point. Ordinarily, the propriety of the reference is not a matter for adjudication by this Tribunal. I decide this issue against the company.

Issue No. 1.—The issue takes us to the merits of this case and to the evidence on record. Miss Hemingway was appointed as a Stenographer in Calcutta Branch Manager's office of this company on a consolidated pay Rs. 300 per month. Her appointment letter is not forthcoming. There has been a good deal of controversy—not over this appointment—over the designation of that post to which the appointment was made. The company's contention is that Miss Hemingway was appointed as a Stenographer whereas Miss Hemingway contended throughout that she was appointed to the post of a Secretary-Stenographer to the Manager. The Register which were called for by her and produced by the company show that Miss Hemingway was only a Stenographer. Miss Hemingway never produced Ext. 1, a certified copy of the advertisement appeared in the Statesman dated 27th May 1946. It says: "Lady Stenographer-Secretary required....." Miss Hemingway after an interview was offered the post as Secretary-Stenographer by the then Manager's letter (Ext. A). The appointment was to be confirmed after a trial period of five weeks. There is no letter of confirmation forthcoming in this case but Miss Hemingway said that her appointment was confirmed. Mr. Powell, the then Branch Manager, is now at the head of the administration for India and Pakistan at the moment, posted in Karachi as its General Manager. His evidence is not forthcoming in this case. Admittedly, there are no grades and scales of pay for the Stenographers of this company and none for the alleged post of Secretary-Stenographer to the Manager. Miss Hemingway said that apart from exclusively working with the Manager, with greater responsibilities, no special privileges or status are attached to the post of the Secretary. In this state of evidence, there is no real substance in the contention that the lady continued in the post of Secretary-Stenographer to the Manager. In fact, there is no difference in the status and privileges between the lady Stenographers now employed in the Calcutta office of this company. Miss Hemingway was handed over a letter dated 25th March 1954 (Ext. 6)

terminating her services with immediate effect. She was allowed to a month's salary in lieu of notice, her arrear salary for the month and her contribution to the Provident Fund. Miss Hemingway said that she protested against this arbitrary action of the company and went to the Manager to enquire why she was not allowed to draw the company's contributions to the Provident Fund. She did not ask the Manager anything about the grounds for her dismissal and she explained that in the event of any further enquiry she would have got the same reply, namely that it was the prerogative of the Manager. She received on the same day a formal receipt (Ext. B), her salary and notice pay in full and the final settlement of all her claims. The payment is not disputed although an endeavour was made by Shri Pandey to show from an evident error in the date that the receipt was brought into existence on the previous day with a view to get rid of Miss Hemingway by foul means. Miss Hemingway did not say anything about the error or correction in the receipt. Mr. Melton explained the correction and the error by saying that he noticed the error regarding the date only after the dispute was raised but remembered to have got the correction on the very day of payment. In fact, Miss Hemingway's contention throughout has been that nothing happened on the 24th and that she never resigned her appointment. Accordingly, the error or the correction in the receipt does not affect the merits of this case. Shri S. K. Mallick on behalf of the company did not contend that this receipt operated as a bar to Miss Hemingway's raising the present dispute with a prayer for reinstatement in service. As a matter of fact, it has not been shown that the lady accepted the payments with full knowledge of its consequences upon the dispute. I refer to a case reported in 1952 L.A.C. p. 291 on this point. Miss Hemingway, the only witness on her side, has deposed in this case. She denied the allegations of the incident of the 24th March and said that the story of the 24th was introduced very late in the day after the dispute was raised on to support the arbitrary action of the management. The real motive behind her discharge was to promote Miss Berry, the star favourite of Mr. Melton, to the post of Manager's Secretary which Mr. Melton could not do as long as she remained in service. I regret I could not persuade myself to believe that to be the motive for the termination of Miss Hemingway's services on the 25th March (not in April 1954 as wrongly stated in the order of reference). Miss Berry was appointed as a lady Stenographer to Mr. Melton sometime in 1948. She had been working with Mr. Melton all the time. In 1952, Mr. Melton assumed the charge of the Branch Manager's office in place of Mr. Powell, the permanent Manager who went away. Miss Berry (now Mrs. Fossey) had been working for the Manager ever since. According to Miss Hemingway, she had occasionally been working for the Manager but she had been attached to Mr. Davis, the second European executive in the office. Miss Hemingway did not complain but went on working ungrudgingly in the altered circumstances. Since 1952, nobody received any increment. Miss Hemingway and Miss Berry shared the same fate together. Miss Berry has not been promoted up to now. She was not given any special allowance. Apart from working for the Manager, and occasionally for Mr. Davis when required, she was not getting any special privilege in her present post. In the circumstances, it is really difficult to see with Miss Hemingway that the real motive for her discharge was to promote Miss Berry in her place. In 1952, Miss Berry got an increment of Rs. 25 and Miss Hemingway got an ordinary increment of Rs. 10. Mr. Melton said that he recommended these increments which were granted by Mr. Powell. Unequal increments are not an abnormal feature in this office. In fact, when increments depend purely on the discretion of the Manager, there are likely to be discrimination here and there. Miss Hemingway got a special increment of Rs. 90.

Mr. Powell in 1949 and there is nothing to be surprised if Miss Berry handsome increment from Mr. Melton in 1952. The real motive must be something else. Mr. Melton has deposed in this case. Mr. Davis and Fossey (Miss Berry) have also deposed on behalf of the company. It is evidence of Mr. Melton that Miss Hemingway disliked him and he resented the same since he was a junior officer in his office. Miss Hemingway did not like the idea of working with the junior officers although she said that she did not make any complaint officially, at least to anybody regarding that. She further said that she did not complain about her heavy work to anybody although when Mr. Powell came, he told him about it and on his advice, refrained from putting anything in writing. Mr. Melton said that Miss Hemingway was extremely arrogant in her manner and she did not conceal her dislike for him even for a single day. Her manners were insulting and he said that he avoided her as far as possible to avoid unpleasant things in the office. She used to delay whenever called to take notes. The matter came to a head on the 24th, Mr. Melton was rebuking one of the drivers for accident in the office car. He was shouting to the driver in his room to get the car. Miss Hemingway rushed to Mr. Davis and said: "Look at the way you are treating the driver in his room." Mr. Davis advised her to go to work for it did neither affect him nor her. Shortly after, at about 4 o'clock in the same afternoon, Mr. Melton was looking for a stenographer and found, passing through Stenographers' room which is in the next cubicle, Miss Hemingway sitting for over an hour although she was not working to do. On his making an enquiry he got an arrogant reply. He went back to his room. Miss Berry who had been working for Mr. Davis taking notes for his letters in the meantime, had come back to Mr. Melton and had just taken her seat to take down notes. At that time, Miss Hemingway came into the door and shouted to the Manager: "Do you know that I had been working till 6 o'clock last evening?" At this Mr. Melton said, "Well, if you do not like the job, you may resign?" At this she got infuriated and said in an arrogant tone, "I will not resign." Mr. Melton then said, "Do you know that you are talking to your Manager?" At this Miss Hemingway replied very rudely, "when the Manager commands respect, he will get it", and with these words she left the room and in the Stenographers' room, she told Miss Berry sometime later, within the hearing of Mr. Melton, "Tell Mr. Melton that if he does not let me, I will make him look the biggest fool in Calcutta." Mr. Davis said that Miss Berry both corroborated Mr. Melton's evidence. Mr. Davis learned from another cubicle beside the partition of the Manager's room that happened between Miss Hemingway and Mr. Melton. He was not present at the time but he overheard all that took place between them. Admittedly, Miss Hemingway said that she got on well with Mr. Davis. She had no grudge against him. Neither Mr. Davis has any against her. Mr. Davis is a covenanted officer recruited in England. As such it may be presumed that he has got some independence of his own in the office, that is to say, not merely an ordinary subordinate to Mr. Melton, likely to depose falsely at his request. I fail to see why Mr. Davis is to be believed in this case. Mr. Melton spoke in a straightforward manner. He told the Tribunal that he and Miss Hemingway disliked each other. When then, he was prepared to take her back into the office if she apologised and expressed her regret for the incident. Miss Hemingway did not accept the advice of Mr. Davis to apologise to Mr. Melton for her rudeness. She did not do it even on the next morning. Miss Hemingway left Mr. Davis's work unfinished. The termination of her services took place on the 25th, that is, four or six days before the end of the month. Even in his letter of termination of services, Mr. Melton scrupulously avoided making the use of the word 'dismissal' or 'discharge' in it for he had expressed in his correspondence with Miss Hemingway thereafter and in this Tribunal that he did so so that she might after all get the company's contribution to the Provident Fund. I believe that there was the incident on the 24th March which led to Miss Hemingway's dismissal on the next day.

Question is whether this amounts to gross impertinence, stated to be ground for discharge and to misconduct justifying the termination of her services. Apart from offensive words used against the Manager in his office over a perfectly legitimate enquiry about her work, her arrogant manner amounts to gross misconduct. Miss Hemingway charged the Manager with partiality, accused him of being unworthy of commanding respect from his subordinate and openly charged and defied his authority. There cannot be a greater act of indiscipline in the office. Internal discipline is a management function and this Tribunal will not ordinarily interfere with it unless it is shown that in taking the disciplinary action, the Manager was actuated by an ulterior motive for victimising the employee. In a fit of anger, which has not been sufficiently explained on her side, she overstepped the legitimate bounds of decency and there was that incident on the afternoon of the 24th March. Miss Hemingway did not take this Tribunal into confidence by giving out the whole truth about it. The Tribunal could not judge from the one-sided version of the incident whether there was any sufficient provocation for it. It, therefore, finds that Miss Hemingway was guilty of gross impertinence amounting to misconduct.

Question now is whether there has been any violation of the principle of natural justice in terminating her services without a charge-sheet and proper enquiry. Admittedly, there was no chargesheet given to her as there was no enquiry either. This has been sufficiently explained in the large volume of correspondences placed on record of this case which pass between Miss Hemingway and the management. In a case like this the Tribunal is competent to go into the merits of the matter and to decide for itself whether the management is justified in taking the action against the employee. I rely upon the observations of their lordships of the Labour Appellate Tribunal in a case reported in 1952 L.A.C. p. 490 (Buckingham Carnatic Co., Ltd., versus their workmen). Their lordships observed—

"The decision of the management with regard to a charge of misconduct will not prevail if—

- (i) there is want of bona fides; or
- (ii) it is a case of victimisation or unfair labour practice or violation of principles of natural justice; or
- (iii) there is a basic error of facts; or
- (iv) there has been a perverse finding on the materials."

It cannot be said that in not offering the charge-sheet to the employee before her dismissal, the company acted rightly. This act is not free from technical defect but as has been laid down by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in 1 L.A.C., page 828 that the whole thing is to be considered from broad angles. After all, the absence of an enquiry by the Manager, who was the competent authority to hold it in the particular facts and circumstances, does not affect the merits of this case. After all, the Manager himself was a party to the incident and it took place in his presence. He was the provocator and accordingly, he could not possibly be blamed if he did not offer any enquiry in the case. The point is whether on the evidence before it the Tribunal can find that Miss Hemingway was guilty of gross impertinence.

nting to misconduct. On a scrutiny of the facts and the circumstances in this case, the Tribunal cannot say that there is either absence of bona fides or unfair labour practice or anything of that kind in this case. Next important point to be considered in this connection is whether the punishment is unduly severe in the circumstances of the case.

Hemingway did not, on Mr. Melton's evidence, defied his orders on any occasion previous to the incident in dispute. Apart from her conduct in the office in connection with her work with Mr. Melton, which is said to be objectionable and offensive for which Mr. Melton told her sometimes, there was no warning in writing given to her. Accordingly, her record of service with this company cannot be characterised as bad. A dismissal of service which is the extreme penalty that can be inflicted on an employee by the management does not seem to be warranted in this case. Question arises whether she would be reinstated particularly when the dismissal as a punishment is not justified. Normally, reinstatement is the rule. But it has been laid down in the Buckingham & Carnatic Co., Ltd.'s case, 1952, L.A.C., page 492, that: "It is essential in all cases that the matter should be considered not only from the points of view of the employer and the employee but also in the interest of the industry for bringing about a harmonious relationship between the two." It has also been laid down in the Labour Appellate Tribunal in Beneras Light & Power Co., Ltd., vs. Bulghar Mazdoor Sangh, Beneras, reported in 1952, L.A.C., page 243, that, "where it is clear that reinstatement would not tend to promote harmonious relations between the parties, but would have an adverse effect, the parties having lost confidence in each other, the proper remedy is not reinstatement but adequate compensation." In this particular case, the fact has been established that Miss Hemingway and Mr. Melton, the present Manager, have strong dislike for each other. This relationship has been further embittered by indiscreet allegations made by the employee against the management and by a long fight over the dispute. Accordingly, Miss Hemingway's going back to the office as a Stenographer whose work is more or less that of a confidential personal assistant will not promote harmonious relations between the parties but would have an opposite effect. In the interest of industrial peace, a congenial condition of work is necessary. I do not think that the reinstatement of Miss Hemingway will be either advantageous in the long run to her or to the management in this case. I emphatically do not think it prudent to direct a reinstatement in this case. Miss Hemingway on her own evidence is out of employment except for 26 days ever since April 1954. She is entitled to adequate compensation for loss of employment. The management has appointed a Stenographer in her place to carry on the work in the office. It has incurred expenses, and is not entirely to blame for the loss sustained by the employee. Miss Hemingway has put in near about 8 years of service under the company. She has got company's contribution to the Provident Fund and a month's salary in lieu of notice. That is admitted. She is entitled to four month's salary and dearness allowance at the rate last drawn as compensation for loss of employment. The company is directed to make this payment within a month from the date of the operation of this award. I answer the issue accordingly. This is my award.

AWARD.

This is an application, by Dindayal Shaw and 48 other workmen, under section 33-A of the Industrial Disputes Act, against their employers, Messrs. Bhartia Electric Steel Co., Ltd. This arises out of an industrial dispute between the same parties pending for adjudication before the Tribunal, referred by Government of West Bengal, Department of Labour, No. 1989Dis./D/101-10/54, dated 7th April 1954.

This was filed on 4th February 1955. The petitioners stated among others that they were Crane Drivers in the Company's workshop at Swinhoe Street, Calcutta-19, and were engaged in a continuous process work. They were before 15th January 1955 given the assistance of 3 to spare hands per shift. Since 17th January 1955 they were not given such assistance of spare hands and were made to do work which they were not used to do before and thereby changed their conditions of service without the permission of the Tribunal. The petitioners accordingly prayed for restoration of the conditions of service at an early date.

Due notice of this application was given to the Company.

Both parties filed a joint petition of compromise which embodies terms settlement of the dispute referred to in the said application under section 33-A.

Heard learned President of the Union and the Personnel Officer of the company who presented this petition of compromise before the Tribunal.

I am satisfied that the terms are fair and reasonable and should be ordered.

I pass an award in terms of the settlement. The joint petition of the parties and the petition of compromise do form part of this award.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT :

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

For the Company: Shri B. P. Khaitan assisted by Shri S. K. Bose.

For the Union: Shri Ram Sen with Shri B. Mazumdar.

AWARD.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. Bhartia Electric Steel Co. Ltd., 42, Shibtolla Street, Calcutta and their workmen represented by Bhartia Iron & Steel Workers' Union, 249, Bowbazar Street, Calcutta, regarding the matters specified below in the issues was referred to this Tribunal for its adjudication under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 1989Dis./D/10L-10/54, dated 7th April 1954.

Both parties filed their written statements in the case.

In the written statement of Bhartia Iron & Steel Workers' Union is stated that Messrs. Bhartia Electric Steel Co. (hereinafter called company) is an engineering unit of West Bengal having its factory at 8, Swinbo Street, Calcutta-19 and Head Office at 42, Shibtolla Street, Calcutta, employing about 3,000 workmen in all. In reply to the Union's "Charter of Demands" sent on 2nd June 1953, the company pleaded inability to concede any of the demands placed by the Union. During the pendency of the conciliation proceedings over the said dispute, the company discharged two of the crane drivers without any permission of the Conciliation Officer which incident increased the tension existing between the parties. Despite its sound financial position, the company did not grant any increment to its employees who were paid low wages much below the bare subsistence level. The Union accordingly demanded an annual increment of Rs. 10 per month to the basic wages of all categories of workers with effect from 2nd June 1953, the date of submission of the "Charter of Demands". It claimed a bonus for the year 1953 equivalent 65 days' wages for daily rated workers and 2½ months' wages for monthly rated workers less what was received by them as advance during the Pujame.

Shri Ram and Shri Biswanath, two crane drivers, were discharged by way of retrenchment without the permission of the Conciliation Officer. In protest, the order was withdrawn and the said two employees were transferred to "impossible duties" thereby forcing them to go out of work. The Union demanded their reinstatement with back wages.

In spite of the clear direction of the Major Engineering Tribunal, the company since December 1948, withdrew the benefit of extra night allowance. The Union claimed for the restoration of the benefit.

Duty hours of the lorry drivers are at present 12 per day. The Union demands that the duty hours be fixed at 8 and that overtime should be paid at double the rate of pay.

In a counter statement, Messrs. Bhartia Electric Steel Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the company), denied the allegations of the Union and alleged among others that the wages paid to its employees were low and that increments had been granted to deserving employees in time to time. It contested the claim for ad-hoc increments on the ground that it militated against the whole conception of increment and standard basic wage in the industry. I further stated that any such increment was beyond the capacity of the industry to pay.

Regarding bonus for 1953, it stated that it was never paid as a condition of service and that the offer for payment of bonus for 35 days refused by the Union during the conciliation proceedings now stood withdrawn. Trading results for the year in question were unsatisfactory and no dividend was paid to the shareholders for a long time. The profits were utilised. The company denies the Union's claim for bonus on merits.

As to the retrenchment of the two crane drivers, Shri Ram and Shri Biswanath, it stated that they were surplus to requirements and accordingly they were at first retrenched without permission of the Conciliation Officer but subsequently that order was withdrawn. They were transferred to other posts which they refused to join and absented themselves from work. Subsequently they abandoned their services. The company stated that there was no justification for the restoration of the extra night allowance which was discontinued since 1948 and that there was no breach of the conditions of the Major Engineering Tribunal Award in doing so.

It further stated that the lorry drivers did not come under the Factories Act and accordingly their duty hours should not be restricted to 8 hours a day; neither they were entitled to overtime allowance at the rate payable under the Factories Act.

The issues are—

- (1) Increment.
- (2) Bonus for 1953.
- (3) Whether Shri Ram and Shri Biswanath are surplus to the Company's requirements for Crane Drivers.
- (4) Night shift allowance.
- (5) Duty hours of the Lorry Drivers.

FINDINGS.

Issue No. 1 (increment).

The Union claims with retrospective effect from 2nd June 1953 an ad-hoc increment of Rs. 10 per month to the basic wages of all categories workers on the ground that their wage rates are low and that no increment was allowed to them for years though the company's financial position sound. The company contests this claim and denies the Union's allegation.

The Union examined two employees—P. W. 1 Shri Biswanath and P. W. 2 Shri Subrata Dutta. P. W. 2 speaks on this issue. He says that the wages are inadequate and that only a handful of employees get annual increments at the rate varying between 1 to 4 annas every year. General body of workers do not get it. In cross-examination, he admitted that he did not know the rules of increment of other companies. He also does not know anything about the grades prevailing in them. O. P. W. Shri S. K. Asthana, Labour Adviser of the Engineering Association, said that to the best of his knowledge, there was no system of regular increment in the firms mentioned by P. W. 2. Those firms allowed ad-hoc increment based on merits and efficiency but they had no time scales. The number of workers receiving ad-hoc increments vary between 20 to 25 per cent. It appears from Ext. A, that on 31st October 1954, this company had total complement of workers (daily rated) numbering 2,588 plus monthly paid of about 150. Ext. A1 shows the number of workers who obtained increments during 1949 to 1954. A total number of 524 workers obtained increments. On the company's own evidence, about 1/5th of the staff got increments during these years. Accordingly, the Union's contention that everybody did not get any regular increment in the service of the company is established.

The Union contends that the average wages paid are low. P. W. 1 says that the question of wages is now pending before the Labour Commissioner for disposal. It is not directly in issue in this reference but Shri Ram Sen appearing on behalf of the Union, raised this point in connection with the issue on increment to show that increment is justified in view of the very low wages paid to the employees of this company although he said that he did not ask for a revision of the wages structure. Here again, the oral evidence of P. W. 2, the only witness on the Union's side, is not very material and helpful. He said that they were not getting any adequate wages for their work and casually mentioned that some other engineering firms pay higher rates in the locality. O. P. W. 2 has given a denial (and he is more competent to speak authoritatively) on this point. Let us now look to the charts of wages filed by the parties. Ext. 3 shows the wage rates of workers in April 1954 as filed by the Union. It appears that no one is paid below Rs. 61, the total emoluments of an unskilled worker fixed under the awards of the two Major Engineering Tribunals to which this company was a party. Ext. F is the statement of wage rates filed by the company. That also shows that nobody gets less than Rs. 61 per month. In fact, Shri Khaitan said that the minimum wages of an unskilled worker were fixed in an earlier tribunal at Rs. 61 per month and the company was paying the same even after the Major Engineering Tribunal reduced it to Rs. 55 per month in its first award and Rs. 61 per month in its second award. In this connection, Shri Khaitan said that the cost of living index in 1948 at the time of the First Major Engineering Tribunal was 310 and in 1950 at the time of the Second Major Engineering Tribunal was 340. He said that the cost of living index was much less than what it was in 1950 when the total emoluments of an unskilled worker was fixed at Rs. 61 per month. He accordingly tends that there has been no change in the circumstances since the last and, accordingly, there is no justification for the Union to put forward a plea for revision of wages by granting an ad-hoc increment to anybody. Moreover, he said that he would be put to a great disadvantage if his company was selected out of so many competitors in the field to pay higher rates of wages to its employees particularly when they are dealing in castings, bars and rods on more or less rates fixed by the Government. Further, he raised legal objections as well on the authority of several decisions of the State Tribunals and Labour Appellate Tribunals reported in 1953, I. L.L.J., page 246, 1954, I. L.L.J., page 766. It has been found on evidence that there are no grades and scales of pay for the employees of this company at present. The increments were not regularly paid and therefore a claim for ad-hoc increment as a condition of service cannot be entertained. It has been held by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in a case reported in 1954, I. L.L.J., page 766, that no ad-hoc increment should be given when there are fixed grades and incremental scales in existence or without fixing by adjudication incremental scales when such scales are already in existence. The financial condition of the company will have to be taken into consideration for no financial burden could be imposed where the financial position of the company is already uncertain and unstable. In this particular case, the grant of an ad-hoc increment of Rs. 10 as demanded by the Union would cost the company an additional amount of Rs. 3,36,000 a year. This imposition of extra cost in the present circumstances does not appear to be desirable. Shri Ram introduced matters not supported by any materials on record to show that there was fair justification for raising the rates of wages now paid to the employees of this company. On a consideration of all these, I am inclined to think that no ad-hoc increment, as claimed by the Union, to the basic wages of all categories of employees can be allowed in this particular case. I decide the issue against the Union.

Issue No. 2 (Bonus for 1953).

This relates to Bonus for the year 1953. The Union demanded a bonus as a condition of service equivalent to 65 days' basic wages for workmen and 24 months' basic wages for clerks and other monthly rated workmen. In doing so, it stated among others, that the management agreed in writing to pay 35 days' wages as bonus to workers and employees and raised this to 42 days' which, however, the workmen did not accept. The company denied the Union's allegations that bonus was paid as a condition of service and contended that the trading results of the year in question were unsatisfactory and did not permit any payment of bonus to the workmen. It also said that since its offer for payment of bonus for 35 days was not 42 days, as alleged, was refused, it should be treated as withdrawn.

Neither party adduced any oral evidence on this issue. There is no material on record to support the Union's contention that bonus is paid as a condition of service. In fact, there is no evidence of its payment in the previous years. Naturally, the claim is to be decided on the general principles which govern all cases of payment of bonus to workers.

In a dispute arising out of a claim for payment of bonus to workers, the principles now follow the well-established principles laid down by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in its Full Bench Decision in Mill Owners' Association, Bombay vs. Rashtriya Mill Mazdoor Sangh, Bombay, reported in 1952 L.A.C., page 433. The Full Bench Decision has now received the approval of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in a case Shen Moir Mills, Ltd. and Suti Mill Mazdur Union, reported in 1955, I.L.J., page 1. It held that, "the quantum of bonus must depend upon the relative prosperity of the concern during the year under re and that prosperity is best reflected in the amount of the residuary su of profits." The Hon'ble Supreme Court held in the above menti case that, "there are however two conditions which have to be sati before a demand for bonus can be justified and they are (i) when w fall short of the living standard; and (ii) the industry makes huge pr part of which are due to the contribution which the workmen make increasing production. The demand for bonus becomes an industrial c when either or both these conditions are satisfied. Bonus is not a defe wages. If in any particular year, the working of the industrial concern resulted in loss, there is no basis nor justification for a demand for bonu

No endeavour was made by either party to establish the first condi laid down in the Hon'ble Supreme Court decision, viz., that the exist wages fall short of the living standard. Some evidence of the exist rates of wages was adduced and considered in connection with the decis of the issue on "increment". There are however no sufficient materials record to show conclusively that the wages now paid are below the liv standard. Anyway, neither party pleaded this as a ground in support denial of the claim for bonus. The Union based its claim on the sec condition, namely, that the industry has made huge profits in the year question primarily due to the workers' efforts.

Exhibit B is the audited Balance-sheet for the year ending 31st Decem 1953. It appears from the Balance-Sheet that the company's gross pr amount to Rs. 20,92,259-2-1p. only. The net profit, according to Profit and Loss Account, comes up to Rs. 9,32,815-7-3p. only. This fig was arrived at after deducting the Managing Agents' and Directo commission and fees, approximately amounting to 1/4th of the gross pr and depreciation amounting to Rs. 6,30,000. It has been laid down numerous decisions of the Labour Appellate Tribunal including an r reported decision in appeal between Messrs. J. K. Cotton Manufacturin Ltd., Cawnpur and workmen of J. K. Manufacturing, Ltd., Cawnpur a others that "the Balance-Sheet must be presumed to be correct unless t contrary is shown by definite evidence." Shri Ram Sen on behalf of t Union did not adduce any evidence to show that any particular entry this Balance-Sheet is inaccurate. He, however, made several commen regarding the very high fees paid to the Directors and the Managing Agen out of the profits and many other huge expenses incurred by the manage ment as also unduly high reserve for taxation provided in the Balance-Sheet. He filed three charts (Exts. 1 to 1B) showing what according to him th capital invested in this business, the income-tax payable for the yea and the amount of depreciation which should be deducted from the profits. He also prepared a chart showing what according to him would be the surplus profit available for distribution as bonus among the worken. This chart is exhibit 4. Shri Khaitan on behalf of the company relied mainly on four charts (Exts. A4 to A7) besides the Balance-Sheet (Ext. B) in refuting the argument advanced by Shri Sen that there w available surplus profit for payment of bonus. According to Shri Khaitan, there is a deficit to the tune of about Rs. 3,59,743 in the year if prior charges are duly deducted from the net profit of the year. Shri Sen contends on the authority of Ext. 1 that in actual fact, a capital of Rs. 20,01,070 is invested in the company's business and that the remaining portion of the capital represents the capital bonus of different year. He said that the provision for reserve on account of taxation amounting to Rs. 5,00,000 was grossly excessive, out of proportion with the net profit shown in the Profits and Loss Account. In Ext. 1A, he explains that there has been an excess provision of Rs. 1,04,166 on account of income-tax alone. A similar excess provision was made in the year 1952. In r, the excess was Rs. 2,28,008. In Ext. 1B, he has attempted to show t the depreciation claimed by the company in 1952 is Rs. 5 lakhs and 1953, Rs. 6,30,000. This depreciation, he said, was much in excess of rates prescribed by the Income-tax Act. Further, he pointed out that additional block capital made at a cost of Rs. 12,77,979 for which reciation was claimed was not brought into use in 1953. The normal reciation would be much less than what has been provided for in the ance-Sheet and what has been claimed in excess of that in Ext. A4. i. A4, a chart showing surplus or deficit apparently prepared in ordance with the provisions of the Full Bench Furmula, shows that ss profits should be Rs. 15,62,815 including depreciation provided in Balance-Sheet amounting to Rs. 6,30,000. Rs. 8,73,291 has been ucted as depreciation in this chart saying that the company is entitled that under the Income-tax Law. Income-tax, Super Tax amounting to 2,99,480 has been deducted from the gross profits. Six per cent. idend on "Paid-up Capital" of Rs. 50 lakhs amounting to Rs. 3,00,000 been claimed. Four per cent. dividend on "Working Capital" has been med. This amounts to Rs. 67,529. Provision for arrears of deprecia- a distributed over four years amounting to Rs. 3,82,258 has been lucted showing a deficit balance of Rs. 3,59,743. I do not think that re is much force in Shri Sen's argument that the capital should not be 50 lakhs as shown in the Balance-Sheet but I find no good justification the company to make double provision for payment of income-tax ticularly setting apart such an excess amount for taxation reserve. ere is no evidence to show that the entire reserve was employed as rking capital throughout the year under reference. That being so, re is also no justification for deducting Rs. 67,529 from the gross fits. At best, 2 per cent. dividend on the amount of working capital ually employed in the year may be deducted under this head. The nagement no doubt is entitled to deduct depreciation allowed by the ome-tax authorities out of the gross profits. Practically speaking, the reciation now claimed is at least Rs. 2,43,000, more than what was lucted in the Balance-Sheet. It is also not explained why depreciation Rs. 12,49,930 for additions made during the year not brought into use ording to the Directors' Report has been charged in the accounts of s year. If that amount is left out, then the claim on account of reciation would be reduced by half. The Balance-Sheets show that the npany has been building up huge reserve out of all proportion to net fits in the business, year after year, besides incurring heavy expenditure management alone. Practically speaking, the entire amount of net fit of about Rs. 10 lakhs in the year under reference has gone over to e management leaving nothing for the workers who contributed not to small extent to the earnings of such huge profits. The industry must ow but should not entirely at labour's cost. The real prosperity is lected to some extent in the audited Balance-Sheet but not at all in the rt (Ext. A4). There is absolutely no material except an uncertified tement in Ext. A6 to show that the arrears of depreciation up to the end 1953 amounted to over Rs. 15 lakhs. Copy of the assessment orders of e income-tax authorities would have shown the depreciation allowed for e purposes of assessments of income-tax. They have been withheld. is very difficult in the circumstances to accept the company's figures to correct. After all, this chart was prepared only during argument for e purpose of this case. Further, the arrears of depreciation to which e management is legally entitled to should have been spread over a sonable period of years, not to four years as has been done in this case. e careful consideration of the two charts relevant on this point, filed both parties, it is clear that there is a large surplus profits available istribution as bonus among the workers. In this connection, the Union invited the attention of this Tribunal to the management's offer payment of bonus for 35 days (in writing)—an offer subsequently raised to 42 days in the conciliation proceedings—and said that the management knew full well of its financial position at the time of this offer. The management admitted that it made an offer of payment of 35 days' basic wages as bonus but not of 42 days' as stated by the Union and it was unwilling to stand by that offer in this case. The offer and its refusal in the conciliation proceedings do not establish the Union's claim or disprove it but it shows to what extent the management was out to accommodate the workers in this matter. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and the materials placed before the Tribunal, I am inclined to hold that there is surplus profits available for payment of bonus to the workers. I have anxiously considered the amount which may be paid to the workers without putting the management to any particular difficulty. The workers of all categories are allowed a bonus out of the profits of 1953 equivalent to 1/8th of the total basic wages of the year. All payments should be made within one month from the date of the operation of this award. I answer the issue accordingly.

Issue No. 3 (whether Shri Ram and Shri Biswanath are surplus to the Company's requirements for Crane Drivers).

Shri Ram and Shri Biswanath, two crane drivers in the service of the company were discharged by way of retrenchment. The company said that they were surplus to requirements and at first they were served with notice of termination of their services and thereafter it was withdrawn and they were transferred to other departments where they absented themselves from work with effect from 16th December 1953. Its contention was that they abandoned their services and accordingly they were not entitled to reinstatement and/or compensation.

Question now is whether they are surplus to the company's requirement for crane drivers and that is the issue referred to this Tribunal to adjudication.

Shri Ram has not been examined. Shri Biswanath is P. W. 1. He said that there were 46 crane drivers in 1951 when he was appointed and that 11 cranes worked in three shifts and that the work had recently increased. P. W. 2 Shri Subrata Dutta said that new machinery including the sand mill were being gradually installed in this company. The installation of the sand mill was commenced in 1950 and completed in 1954. He denied the suggestion that it was completed in 1952. He also denied the suggestion that due to mechanisation introduced in the company, the workload on the crane had decreased. O. P. W. 1 Shri Bagre, a Director of the company, has in his deposition elaborately explained the mechanisation scheme adopted by his company and said that due to the installation of the sand delivery system, the work on the crane was considerably decreased. He said that it was absolutely false to suggest that the workload of the crane drivers had been increased and that they did not get any time for tiffin or for answering calls of nature. Shri Ram Sen on behalf of the Union laid particular emphasis on the fact established in evidence in this case that the crane drivers are doing overtime now. The overtime is admitted and it is said to be a normal feature of factory work in which continuous work is done throughout day and night. From November 1953, the company started work in the furnace and therefore, there was an increase in overtime work. This overtime cannot be eliminated by appointing extra men. The nature of work is such that the movement of goods does not start within the fixed hours. Further, there was no complaint coming from any of the existing staff of drivers that they were heavily worked and that their workload had ceased. At present, there are 43 crane drivers. One driver had been discharged since after the retrenchment of the two drivers in question. On average, the company says, one or two cranes lie idle for want of work for repairs. Even if it is so, 11 cranes in three shifts require 33 drivers to say, another 5 or 6 for relieving hands. On all accounts, these two drivers would be surplus to the requirements of the company at present. 50 per cent. machineries have been installed. With the installation of the remaining 50 per cent., there would be less necessity for the use of all the cranes to their fullest extent as now for lifting or carrying heavy loads. It is not the Union's case that any of these drivers was dismissed for his Union activities or for any other reason. At least, it has not been shown that these two drivers particularly incurred the disapproval of the management in any way. Therefore, I fail to see why the management should terminate their services on account of retrenchment. And no good reason to hold that the decision of the management in this respect is actuated by ulterior motive. It is now well-settled (Re: Biswanath Press, 1952, L.A.C., p. 20 at p. 33 and 1955 1, L.L.J., page 656—J. K. Hosier Factory, Cawnpur) that in the case of retrenchment of workmen, the question that necessarily arise are: (i) whether the grounds for saying that their surplus have been made out; (ii) if such a ground has been made out by the employer, whether in the matter of retrenchment the employer has acted bona fide; and (iii) whether in discharging those redundant workmen, the employer has followed the principle of "last come first go", or not. This rule is not a fixed rule but it is the normal rule. If it is departed from by the employer in a particular case, he must justify by evidence of that departure. The first two questions have been established and the last has not been raised in this case. In the opinion of the Tribunal, these drivers—Shri Ram and Shri Biswanath—are surplus to the company's requirements for crane drivers. I decide the issue accordingly.

Issue No. 4 (night shift allowance).

The Union's case and evidence is that this extra night shift allowance was in existence before 1948 and that this allowance was withdrawn and discontinued although the Major Engineering Tribunal clearly said that existing benefits should in no way be curtailed. This was admittedly decided before the award of 1948. It is the Union's case that this was discontinued after the strike in September 1948. The company denies this. The Major Engineering Tribunal did not allow any night shift allowance to any of the employees. Shri Ram Sen contends that the award said that this finding would not adversely affect the existing benefits enjoyed by the employees. He accordingly contends that the company, in fairness or justice, cannot snatch away these benefits from the employees which they enjoyed for a long time. Admittedly this has been discontinued since 1948. And the dispute on this point is raised only after the lapse of five or six years. It is in evidence that this is not paid anywhere. Speaking about it, O. P. W. 1 Shri Bagre proved a copy of a letter from the Tata Steel (Ext. E) and said that National Iron & Steel Co., a concern which does the same work as this company does, also did not pay any night shift allowance. On cross-examination, he said that the night shift allowance was discontinued since after the Major Engineering Tribunal Awards and had nothing to do with the strike in September. The strike was only over the issue of bonus. As stated above, this industry does continuous work for technical reasons. The learned representative for the company invited a reference to a Full Bench Decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal in Boston Cement, Ltd., and their workmen, reported in 1954, 1, L.L.J., page 656 and contended that on the facts and in the circumstances of the case, the continuous work in this industry was essential for technical reasons and the workmen engaged in this work by rotation were entitled to any night shift allowance. It has been held in that case it is a part of the workmen's job and no special allowance is called. Shri Ram Sen's principal contention that the Major Engineering Tribunal Awards left the existing night shift allowance unaffected does not appear to be sound for that learned Tribunal decided unreservedly the issue of night shift allowance against the workmen. Therefore, the question of saving the existing benefit under the penultimate general direction given in the award do not justify the restoration of the said allowance at a distance of time, after a lapse of six or seven years. I answer the question against the workmen.

Issue No. 5 (duty hours of the Lorry Drivers).

The Union demands that the hours of work for the lorry drivers, who are at present 12 a day, should be fixed at 8 hours per day and that there should be overtime at double the ordinary rates. That was in the 'Character of Demands' submitted to the management. The company justifies the existing arrangement on the following grounds:—

- (i) They are not workers under the Factories Act;
- (ii) Their work is such that no fixed hours can be rigidly laid down
- (iii) Actual driving is hardly 25 per cent. of the total time of duty;
- (iv) They are not meant to work for 12 hours a day as alleged; and lastly
- (v) They are paid at least Rs. 30 in excess of the wages fixed under the Major Engineering Tribunal Awards just to compensate them for their irregular hours of work.

No lorry driver has been examined on the side of the Union. P. W. Shri S. Dutt, an employee in the Pattern Shop Department of this company says that the lorry drivers are employed generally for over 12 hours a day—that is to say, they take out their lorries in the morning and return after the evening. There are some workshops in which the duty hours are 8 a day. In cross-examination he said that he did not know if the arrivals and departures of the lorry drivers were noted in the Log Book of the department. He did not know the working of the department. The duties of the lorry drivers are to bring scraps into the factory and deliver manufactured articles outside as also to remove the rubbish from the factory. He said that it was incorrect to say that duty hours varied between 58 and 71 hours a week. There is no oral evidence on this point on the company's side. Shri Ram Sen filed a chart showing the duty hours of lorry drivers in other engineering concerns. It shows that in four of the duty hours for lorry drivers are 48 per week. The said chart is not verified or certified by anybody to be correct. Ext. D is the chart showing weekly working hours of the lorry drivers up to 4th February 1954 in the company. The average hours per week appear to be somewhere between 58 and 71 hours. There are altogether seven drivers, five of them are paid at the rate of Rs. 90 per month plus dearness allowance of Rs. 42 per month. Two of them only get basic wages of Rs. 68 per month besides dearness allowance of Rs. 42 per month. Shri Ram Sen pleaded for fix the hours of work at 48 per week as under the Factories Act. Shri Khatri for the company contends that drivers are not factory workers and as such their hours of work should not be fixed under the Factories Act. The lorry drivers, strictly speaking, cannot be said to be factory workers and on 2(b) of the Factories Act for they are not employed in any manufacturing process or in cleaning any part of the machinery or premises for manufacturing process or in any other kind of work incidental to connected with the manufacturing process or the subject of manufacturing process. That being so, they cannot claim to be treated at par with the factory workers. Shri Khaitan invited the attention of this Tribunal to certain observations of their lordships of the Labour Appellate Tribunal in paragraph 13 of a case (Arthur Butler & Co., Ltd. vs. their workmen) reported in 1952, II. L.J.J., p. 29 at p. 33 in respect of his contention that the nature of the duties of the drivers are such that no hours can be laid down for them. Their lordships were dealing with a claim for overtime allowance for lorry and motor drivers. In that connection, they said: "The nature of their duties in this company does not permit any fixing of hours of duty. They do not work all the time continuously from hour to hour and the evidence is that on Sundays almost every week, they have to sit idle. At times, no doubt they have to work for longer hours than usual but that is compensated by the period of rest when there is little or no work for them. In these circumstances, we cannot accede to this claim." Shri Khaitan pointed out that the salary awarded by the Major Engineering Tribunal for the drivers is Rs. 60 per month including dearness allowance of Rs. 42 per month. In this company, the drivers are getting much higher pay than that and for good reason. The higher salary is given just to compensate for the irregular hours of work. At the same time, he conceded that he was bound by the Motor Vehicles Rules framed under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939. He referred to section 65 of the Act and rules 88 and 89 of the Bengal Motor Vehicles Rules, 1940. It is obligatory on all employers, or persons owning a transport vehicle, not to employ drivers (a) for more than five hours before he has an interval of rest of at least half an hour or (b) for more than 9 hours in one day or (c) for more than 54 hours in the week. Rules 88 and 89 require the employer to fix hours of work in advance with period of rest. At present, the lorry drivers work on an average for more than 9 hours a day including of course periods of rest. They work on Sundays and 1 am informed by Shri Khaitan that the drivers dispose of rubbish from the factory getting an extra of Rs. 3 per head per day. Shri Ram Sen for the Union was not in a position to contradict the statement. He did not comment either. If the Sunday arrangement as spoken of by Shri Khaitan is left out of consideration, then the average hours of work should probably be fixed under section 65 of the Motor Vehicles Act. There are certain difficulties in having fixed hours of work for these lorry drivers—difficulties which prevented their lordships of the Labour Appellate Tribunal, in the case noticed above, to accede to the Union's claim. But since a dispute has been raised on this point and not settled amicably, it is expedient in the interest of industrial peace, that it should be decided and hours of work for these drivers should be fixed. This Tribunal can do no better than to fix hours of work with period of rest as laid down under section 65 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939 and rules 88 and 89 of the Bengal Motor Vehicles Rules, 1940. This will not, in any way, adversely affect the wages and benefits which the lorry drivers are getting from the company. I decide the issue accordingly. This is my award.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Bhartia Electric Steel Co., Ltd., 42, Shibtolla Street, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Bhartia Iron & Steel Workers' Union, 7/1, Jamir Lane, Calcutta-19.

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

For the Company: Shri B. P. Khaitan assisted by Shri S. K. Bose.

For the Union: Shri Ram Sen with Shri B. Mazumdar.

AWARD.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. Bhartia Electric Steel Co., Ltd., 42, Shibtolla Street, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Bhartia Iron & Steel Workers' Union, 7/1, Jamir Lane, Calcutta-19, regarding matters mentioned below in the issues was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department order No. 4173Dis./D/10L-10/54, dated the 31st August 1954.

Both parties filed their written statements.

The Union in its written statement said that the factory canteen being a part of the company's establishment, the company should pay entire expenses for running it. At present, the salaries of four of employees working are paid out of the profits made by the sale of goods the company, therefore, should bear the entire establishment cost. It said that the durwans having no fixed hours of duty they work through the week without rest and that they are not given any summer and winter uniforms and head-gears. The Union prayed that the duty hours should be fixed at 48 per week and that any work in excess thereof should be at double the rate of their salary and that uniforms and head-gears supplied to the durwans, both in winter and in summer.

The company, in reply, stated that it subsidised the canteen to extent of nearly Rs. 1,000 to Rs. 1,200 per month by bearing the salary of the majority of the canteen staff and the cost of coal, electricity, and that under the Factory Rules, they were not liable for bearing establishment costs including the salary of all the canteen persons. The durwans, i.e., the watch and ward staff, are not workers under ories Act and, therefore, they are not entitled to any weekly holiday matter of right. In view of the extra amenities allowed to them, the any contends, that no overtime should be paid to them. Uniforms and gears also cannot be claimed as a matter of right.

10 Issues are—

- 1) Establishment cost of the works canteen.
- 2) Weekly off or overtime pay for and the provision of uniforms to the durwans.

FINDINGS.

Issue No. 1.

In the "Charter of Demands", the Union demanded that the entire establishment cost of the canteen should be borne by the employers. It is that at present, four of the canteen personnel were paid from the funds of the canteen. The Factory Rules require that the canteen should run on a non-profit basis. The employer, therefore, should bear the establishment cost. The same demand has been repeated before this Tribunal. The company contested this demand and said that it had been running the canteen by paying Rs. 1,000 to Rs. 1,200 per month for the salaries of the majority of the canteen staff and by providing free of fuel and electricity. It contends that it is under no obligation to make any such payment and that this concession is liable to be withdrawn at its discretion.

There is no oral evidence on this point on either side. The Union relies on its chart (Ext. 2) and the company on its chart (Ext. G) showing establishment cost of the canteen. The total establishment cost coming to the Union comes up to Rs. 1,219-5-4p. Of this, the company contributes in cash Rs. 807 for the salaries of 10 persons employed in it for fuel, and electricity free of cost. The Canteen Managing Committee bears the remaining expenses, namely, Rs. 412-5-4p. Ext. G however shows otherwise. There is some discrepancy between the two charts which it remains unexplained. According to Ext. G, the company pays Rs. 964 for the salaries of 12 persons and the Canteen Committee pays Rs. 242. The total expenses come up to Rs. 1,206 per month. Regarding total expenses, there is not much of real difference between the parties. The question is whether the entire expenses should be borne by the company. The company's reply is that it is under no obligation to pay anything for the establishment cost of the canteen. Shri Khaitan referred to section 46 of the Factories Act. Section 46 deals with canteen. It requires every factory wherein more than 250 workers are ordinarily employed to provide and maintain a canteen for the use of the workers. Under this provision, the occupier of the factory is required to provide and maintain a canteen for the use of the workers. Detailed rules for providing a canteen in a factory and for its maintenance have been framed under the provisions of the Factories Act. They are contained in rules 66 to 71 under the West Bengal Factories Rules, 1949. Rule 66, sub-rule 2, requires the occupier of a factory to provide in or near the factory an adequate canteen according to the prescribed standard. Rule 68, sub-rule 1 says: (i) there shall be provided and maintained sufficient utensils, crockery, cutlery, furniture and any other equipment necessary for the efficient running of the canteen. (ii) clean cloths for the employees serving in the canteen shall also be provided and maintained. The only thing to be charged is mentioned in rule 69 which says that the prices to be charged on food, drink and other items served in the canteen shall be sold on a non-profit basis and the prices charged shall be subject to the approval of the Canteen Management Committee. The law does not lay down the extent of cost of running canteen to be borne by the management. In actual fact, a substantial portion of the establishment cost of this canteen is borne by the management of the company. In all fairness or reason, the management should pay the entire cost of the salary of the canteen staff. Only the salary of four employees is not paid. The case of the Hon'ble Labour Appeal Tribunal between Burns Labour Union and Burn & Co., Ltd., I.L.L.J., page 774, decides the similar point. Their Lordships direct the management to bear (a) the cost of utensils including cooking vessels etc., (b) the cost of furniture, (c) the cost of coal, fuel and electricity (e) the salary of the cooks and the canteen staff. On a consideration of all the facts and circumstances of the case, the Tribunal directs the management of the company to bear the entire establishment cost of "Works Canteen" including the salaries of the four employees which are now paid by the Canteen Committee.

Issue No. 2.

This relates to the question of weekly off or overtime pay for and provision of uniforms to the durwans. The Union claims that the hours of work of durwans should be fixed at 48 per week as in the case of other factory workers and they shall be entitled to weekly rest. They shall be allowed either a weekly off or payment of overtime at double the ordinary rates of wages. They should be further provided with adequate and regular supply of summer and winter uniforms and head-gears.

During argument, Shri Ram Sen went a bit further and asked for umbrellas and shoes for them. He said that although they were not factory workers, but since they were connected with the factory, they should be treated at par with the factory workers. The company denies this claim although it said that the durwans were given uniforms regularly. It has been decided in several cases of the State Tribunals that the members of Watch and Ward staff of a factory are not persons employed in a manufacturing process or in other kind of work incidental to or connected with the manufacturing process and, therefore, they are not workers as defined under the Factories Act. No durwan has been examined in this case. P. W. 2 Shri Subrata Dutta said that the durwans are given uniforms, a shirt and a pant, at an interval of two or three years. They do not get any summer and winter uniforms every year. Neither they get any shoes. This is the only oral evidence on this point. The company has filed a chart (Ext. J) showing the supply of uniforms to the durwan (Ext. J shows that every member of the Watch and Ward staff (jamadars and durwans) with the exception of Sukh Singh (No. 26) is given two pairs of coats and two shirts every two years. Jamadar Nursing Singh is provided with a turban. No other durwan was provided with any turban. This evidence is substantially corroborated by that of P. W. 2. The question now is whether any change in the existing practice is called for. A point of some nicety has been taken by Shri Khaitan on behalf of the company on the authority of a case, reported in 1952, L.A.C., page 440, viz., that the uniforms are not wages and therefore does not form the subject matter of a valid industrial dispute, in this case. In that particular case, the Lordships were deciding a preliminary point, namely, whether the appeal regarding an award on the subject of uniform is appealable. Their Lordships held that the uniform does not come under the definition of wages and therefore it is not appealable. The case, as I read, it, is no authority for the proposition sought to be established by Shri Khaitan in this case. Umbrellas and shoes were not in demand included in the "Charter of Demands" submitted to the management. Nobody says that the durwans entitled to the use of them at the cost of their employer. The Major Engineering Tribunal did not make any provision for the free supply of uniforms to the durwans. I am told by Shri Khaitan that it did not fix any hours for them as well, and for obvious reasons. Anyway, the Tribunal does not find any justification for making any provision for the supply of uniforms to the durwans in this case. The existing benefits of the durwans remain unaffected under this award. Question now is whether the durwans are entitled to a weekly off or overtime pay. As stated above, the Major Engineering Tribunal did not fix any duty hours for the durwans. Durwans work in rotation and they work also on Sundays. Their salaries include payment for work done on Sundays. Shri Khaitan in these circumstances argued that the company was not bound to pay them any overtime pay. He relied on a case (Sugar Mill's case, reported in 1954, 1 L.L.J., page 791), and says that since the durwans are not workers under the Factories Act they are not entitled to weekly rest as provided in the said Act. Shri Ram Sen, handicapped as he was, could not unfortunately meet the points raised in this connection by Shri Khaitan on behalf of the company. Two points are very material, viz., (i) whether durwans are paid salaries including for work done on Sundays. They are monthly rated staff and in all probability, they are given suitable allowances to compensate for their work. Further, I am told that they live on the company's premises, get free quarters and free fuel. This has not been denied on the Union's side; and (ii) it is very material to know what leave and holidays they enjoy in the service of this company, i.e., whether they enjoy longer leave and holidays than other workers employed in the factory. In the absence of these materials, it is difficult to reject the contention raised by the company on this issue. As at present advised, I am not inclined to allow either any overtime or weekly off to the durwans for their work. I answer the issue accordingly. This is my award.

AWARD.

In this case referred to this Tribunal, by Government of West Bengal Labour Department, order No. 4786Dis./D/11L-343/54, dated 20th October 1954, the dismissal of one G. D. Sharma of 402, Upper Chitpore Road, and his employers Kirana Commission Agents Association, 13, Portuguese Church Street, Calcutta-1, was in dispute.

Due notice by registered post was sent to the workman, at his usual address. It was returned with the postal remark "Left". His present whereabouts could not be ascertained by the Labour Directorate.

The workman who is represented in the dispute by himself and not by any Union, did not take any steps for the prosecution of this dispute. The company was duly served with notice but did not appear. In the circumstances, and in the absence of both parties, the tribunal presumes under rule 15A, of the Bengal Industrial Disputes Rules, 1947, that the industrial dispute, under reference, is no longer in existence and submits this accordingly to the Government.

DECISION.

Issues 1 and 2 are taken up together for consideration.

In support of their case the workmen have examined P. W. 1, Shri Saudagar (serial No. 17 in the list of workers of the order of reference), P. W. 2, Shri Muneswar (serial No. 3) and P. W. 3, Shri Kalipada Das (serial No. 10), besides proving documents—Exts. 1, 2, and 2(a). Company, on the other hand, has examined the Works Manager of Factory, D. W. 1, Shri P. R. V. Ramani besides proving documents A, B, C to C5, D, E and F.

Messrs. J. K. Steel, Ltd. (hereafter called the Company), is a public limited company incorporated under the Companies Act on 13th Oct 1953. Prior to the formation of the said Company, a private limited company named, J. K. Iron & Steel Co., Ltd., with office and factory at Kanpur used to manufacture jute baling hoops. The management of this private limited concern decided that a public limited concern should be floated and established in or near Calcutta where the jute manufacturing concerns are situated, for the purpose of manufacturing jute baling hoops. In pursuance of the said decision, the J. K. Iron & Steel Co., Ltd. of Kanpur acting as promoter of the present Company started the building of the factory at Rishra, Hooghly in May, 1951 and commenced operations at Rishra with effect from 1st August 1952. On the formation of the public limited company on 13th October 1953, the Company (Messrs J. K. Steel, Ltd.) took over the business of the factory from the hands of the promoter, the J. K. Iron & Steel Co., Ltd., of Kanpur.

The workmen in the factory at Rishra are represented by Engineering Workers' Union, West Bengal (hereafter called the Union). The workmen, according to the Union, placed a charter of demands on 24th August 1953. The Union alleged that due to adamant attitude of the Company there could be no settlement regarding the demands and on the contrary there was sudden retrenchment.

The 18 workmen named in the order of reference were retrenched by notices dated 10th February 1952 [Exts. 2 and 2(a)] with effect from 11th February 1954 as being surplus to the requirement. Out of the said 18 workmen, 11 namely, Abinash Debnath, Banshi Mollah, Kalipada Das, Amarendra Nath Das, Hari Choubey, Janki, Santi Ram Chatterjee, Ramdhari, Satya Prosad Mitra, Soudagur and Abadhi Behari Mishra (serial nos. 8 to 18 in the order of reference), who had served in the concern for more than one year prior to the retrenchment, were offered one month's wages in lieu of notice as also compensation as per provisions under section 25(f) as introduced by recent amendment in the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, in addition to wages up to 10th February 1954 and for the period of leave, if any, to their credit (vide Ext. 2(a)). Workman Satya Prosad Mitra (serial No. 16), it appears, has since died. The remaining 7 workmen, namely, Ram Lakhani, Nizamuddin, Muneswar, Rajaram Ahir, Ramandan Rajbar, Suren Mullick and Sitaram (serial Nos. 1 to 7 in the order of reference), who had served for less than one year prior to retrenchment were however offered wages till 10th February 1954, up to which they worked also wages for the period of leave, if any, to their credit (vide Ext. 2).

As required under section 25(f) of the Industrial Disputes Act, the Company gave notice about the proposed retrenchment of the 11 workmen as aforesaid who had served for one year or more, to the Government on 9th February 1954 (vide Ext. A). All the 18 workmen were thereafter intimated by notice, Ext. B that they would be employed as substitutes in leave vacancies as and when these would occur provided they were found near the gate and were qualified for the category intended to be recruited. Out of the 18 retrenched, 8 have since been re-employed in permanent cadre, namely, Ram Lakhani, Nizamuddin, Rajaram Ahir, Banshi Mullah, Amarendra Nath, Janki, Santi Ram Chatterjee and Ramdhari, and some others as ad hoc from time to time. The evidence disclosed that the occasions for the 8 permanent appointments arose after retrenchment—4 as a result of permanent hands quitting their jobs, one on account of starting canteen and 3 as a result of installation of a new Rolling Mill in December 1954.

In Annexure "A" to the Company's written statement the Company mentioned who out of the 18 workmen were employed in the construction work and the nature of their respective works as also dates of appointment who were employed in the operational work and in what categories and dates of their appointment. The said list at the instance of the Union was marked Ext. 1. The dates of appointment as noted therein were adopted by the Union.

The list, Ext. 1, disclosed that out of the 18 retrenched workmen, 11 were employed in the construction work and the remaining 7 in the operational work. In the list of workers annexed with the order of reference, their nature of work was also so described.

The Union alleged that because of presentation of the charter of demands the Company all on a sudden retrenched the 18 workmen. It was said that these workmen were permanent workmen who had served in the Company for more than 6 months and who were engaged in works of permanent nature. They could not have been considered as temporary hands as stated in the notice of retrenchment dated 10th February 1954. It was thus that the Company had no justification to retrench the permanent hands according to the Standing Orders they were also liable to be made permanent after service for more than 6 months.

The Company on the other hand, pleaded as follows. The 18 workmen retrenched were temporary hands. There were two types of workmen who were working in the factory at Rishra since August 1952:—

- (a) workmen who were and are employed for the purposes of and connection with construction works, i.e., erection of machine and buildings for the purposes of the factory;
- (b) workmen who were and are employed in operations connected with manufacturing of hoops.

All workmen employed in construction work were and are temporary. As regards those who were employed in operational work, some of them were temporary and some were permanent. As the Company at the commencement of the operation of the manufacturing work was not in a position to fix the exact number of permanent hands which would ultimately be required for the operational work, it therefore recruited some operatives on permanent basis and others on temporary basis. This fact was known to the persons concerned and this would be borne out by the Muster Rolls as well as pay slips.

On completion of the construction work the Company scrutinised the staff position in December 1953 and fixed the number of permanent hands to be engaged in the operational work. According to the scrutiny it was found that in some sections the number of permanent hands was less than the requirement; on the other hand in some sections the number was sufficient. Consequently when the Company found that the number of permanent hands was less than the requirement, it recruited some of the temporary hands who were found suitable in the permanent cadre. After filling up the said number the Company found that there was still a very large number of workmen who were surplus both in the construction work and in the operational work. The Company therefore decided to retrench all surplus hands. Thus the 18 workmen were retrenched. The Company could not absorb them in any other work and therefore it was compelled to retrench them. The Company was not actuated by any ulterior motive as alleged by the Union. The Company never gave any assurance that all workmen would be made permanent after 6 months' work. The Standing Orders provided that when a workman was provisionally appointed to fill a permanent vacancy, then alone he was entitled to be made permanent on completion of 6 months' probationary period if he was found suitable. The Company thus pleads that the retrenchment was just and bona fide.

After careful consideration of the matter it appears to me that all the 18 workmen as named in the order of reference were temporary hands. The Muster Rolls (Ext. B series) and the pay slips (Ext. C series) from December 1952 to February 1954 specifically mentioned them as temporary. The workmen concerned, it appears from evidence, while receiving wages signed those pay slips. The workmen who deposed in this case admittedly signed the pay slips concerning themselves. These pay slips (Ext. C series) specifically mentioned that they were temporary hands. Had they not been temporary they would not have willingly signed them.

Of the workmen, 11 were employed in construction work. The construction of buildings and sheds was no doubt almost wholly completed by May and these people were appointed subsequently as the list, Ext. 1 reveals that this is of no help as the said construction work was carried on by the contractor, while these men were admittedly direct employees of the Company engaged in connection with construction that remained to be done here and there. There can be no doubt whatever from the evidence that these 11 workmen were employed by the Company in connection with construction work that remained to be done after May 1952 as the list, Ext. 1 revealed. P. W. 3, Shri Kalipada Das had in a way to admit the truth of the said list. He admitted duty in terms of Ext. 1. The nature of work which 11 workmen had to do, it appears, had no connection with actual operational work for manufacturing hoops but with construction work.

So when they were specifically employed in connection with the construction work and when the said construction work was completed, it is natural that their employment which was purely of temporary nature should cease with the termination of the construction work for which they were employed.

As regards the remaining 7 workmen who were employed in operational work, the evidence in the Muster Rolls and in the pay slips also reveals that they were taken as temporary hands as the Company was not in a position to commence the operational work to fix the number it would require permanently in the operational work. Merely because they were employed in the operational work it cannot be said that they were permanent. These workmen may as well be taken as temporary hands even in works of permanent nature. In the present case the Muster Rolls and the pay slips show that in the peculiar circumstances of the case, these 7 workmen were employed as temporary hands in the operational work. All of them no doubt served for more than 6 months from the dates of their appointment till retrenchment, but from this it cannot be said that they had acquired the status of permanent workmen before retrenchment. The Standing Orders (Ext. F), in my opinion, cannot be interpreted as such. Clause 3(c) lays down as follows:

"A 'Probationer' is a workman who is provisionally employed to fill a permanent vacancy in a post and has not completed six months' service thereon. On completion of six months' probationary period, if he is not found suitable either he may be discharged or his probationary period extended further for six months with his consent in writing. No probationer will be deemed to be permanent unless specific confirmatory order is passed and handed over to him by the Management."

Only when a man is appointed to fill a permanent vacancy in a post and completes 6 months' probationary period to the satisfaction of the management, he is entitled to be made permanent and not otherwise. In the present case when these 7 workmen were appointed as temporary hands, though in operational work, the length of more than 6 months' service cannot give them the status of permanent workmen. The Badlis (substitutes) and the ordinary hands, it appears, will continue temporary notwithstanding service for 6 months or more. The Company consistently maintained such position in their letter Ext. D. The evidence of the Factory Manager (P. W. 1) shows that on scrutiny they were found to be surplus and could be absorbed. In the circumstances the Company was justified to retrench these workmen.

The action of the Company cannot be said to have been actuated by any malicious considerations. The Union might have presented a charter of demands on 24th August 1953, but there is nothing satisfactory to show that it had anything to do with Company's action. It, on the contrary, appears that the Company not only offered legitimate dues to the workmen while retrenching them but also assured them at the time that if in future any vacancy arose and the workmen concerned were found suitable, preference would be given to them at the time of recruitment. It further appears that the Company translated such intention into action when it admittedly re-employed 11 out of the 18 workmen retrenched—8 in the permanent cadre and 3 as Badlis from time to time. All these show bona fide on the part of the Company. I am, therefore, of opinion that the termination of employment of the workmen as mentioned in the list is justified.

As to relief, the Company's offer as per its notice, Ext. 2, to 7 workmen who did not complete one year's service and as per notice, Ext. 2(a), to 1 workman who had served for one year or more seems to me just and proper. The Company is directed to make those payments as soon as the award becomes enforceable.

I award accordingly.

ORDER.

No. 1030Dis./D/11L-3/54.—10th March 1955.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 714Dis./D/3/54, dated the 15th February 1954, the industrial dispute between Messrs. ANNEXURE.

In the matter of a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), as amended by the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950, filed by Shri Ambujakha Chatterjee, an employee of Messrs. National Moulding Company, Ltd., 2, Dharmatolla Road (South), Belur, represented by Plastic Workers' Union, 80, Dawnagazee Road, post office Bally, Howrah.

BEFORE THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL, CALCUTTA.

PRESENT:

MOTILAL CHAKRAVATTY, District Judge, Judge, Sixth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances.

Messrs. National Moulding Co., Ltd.: Shri P. R. Mookerjee, M.A., L.B.

The workman: Shri Patit Paban Pathak, President of the Union.

The original reference out of which this case has arisen was made under Government order No. 714Dis./D/11L-3/54, dated Calcutta, the 15th February 1954.

AWARD.

In this application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, the petitioner Shri Ambujakha Chatterjee contends that he is an executive member of the Union and as such he was not in the good grace of the Management and that the charge-sheet made by the Management against him and on the basis of which he has been dismissed was not a bona fide and the order of dismissal was arbitrary and illegal and it was with ulterior motive and that the Management dismissed him without the sanction of the Tribunal although the reference case was then pending.

The contention of the Management is that the application under section 33A is not maintainable because the Government Order of Reference did not reach the Company before the time of discharge of Ambujak and it is also contended that on the 26th and 27th February 1954, machine operated by the said workman stopped after being choked up by brass piece in the nozzle and that the Management made instantaneous investigation into the matter through the Chief Engineer and the officer came to the conclusion that the brass pieces were deliberately inserted by the operator Shri Ambujakhyia, and that there was no other probable origin of the said trouble. Accordingly a charge-sheet was framed against Shri Ambujakhyia and the latter did not give any explanation other than the short reply, viz.,—

"It has no connexion with me".

Accordingly the Company dismissed Ambujakhyia after careful scrutiny of the evidence in the case and that the Management had had no knowledge as to whether Ambujakhyia was a leader of the Union or not and if he led any deputation on behalf of the workers. The Company submit that Ambujakhyia was guilty of sabotage, the Company lost all confidence in him and therefore he had to be dismissed. It is also alleged that Ambujak did not turn up at the investigation, after the charge-sheet.

From the evidence I find that Ambujakhyia was an active member of Union and he took active interest in the matters of the Union with Management and on some occasion he led deputation on behalf of workmen. It also transpires that on the 26th February, the nozzle of machine got choked up with brass pieces and that similar incident occurred on the 27th February in the self-same machine. Such incident occurred in respect of Machine No. 4 also, which was operated by Pranab Banerjee.

Ambujakhyia says that the nozzle of the machine used to choke several times due to foreign things, such as, brass, iron, aluminium, etc. being mixed with the plastic powder, which is fed into the machine from the hopper by mechanical process. The said plastic powder is an important article. Ambujakhyia contends that the choking of the nozzle of the machine occurred now and then in this factory and the foreman was informed of all such incidents whenever that occurred. The foreman has been examined. From the evidence I find that the foreman keeps a book also in which such notes are made by him. The investigating officer did not look into the said khata nor did he examine the said foreman. It appears from the evidence of the Engineer that on the 26th February 1954, he made an informal investigation on the nozzle of the machine operated by Ambujakhyia being choked up. It is evident that the choking is due to foreign substance, viz., brass piece. From the report, Ext. A, dated 26th February 1954, submitted by Chief Engineer it appears that the Engineer examined the plastic powder also on that very date. On the 27th February he did not make any fresh investigation into the matter save except writing a report, Ext. B. In his finding, Ext. C, he observed that Ambujakhyia "failed to explain how the brass pieces could come into the nozzle although he could at least say something regarding the cause". The Engineer's observation is:—

"A really innocent man could at least suggest something in this respect, Besides the attitude maintained by this worker in his usual movement in the factory is an extremely adamant one. I have been convinced beyond doubt that he had wilfully attempted to cause damage to employer's property and business."

On the evidence I find that the Company keeps a grinding machine rejected products are re-ground into powder and the same is mixed the imported plastic powder and treated into the moulding machine making plastic goods. It appears also from the evidence that some brass was found ground in the said grinding machine and brass pieces were lying there. There is no evidence that Ambujakhya was responsible for this. On the other hand, the evidence is that a cooly operates the grinding machine. Therefore I find that there was every chance of plastic powder made in the said grinding machine being mixed up with pieces before the said powder was put into the hopper for making products. There is no evidence that Ambujakhya put the brass into the opening boxes for the purposes of choking the nozzle of machine thereby. It did not strike the investigating officer (engineer) that the brass pieces found in the grinding machine had every chance of being mixed up with the plastic powder in the hopper because the fact is that re-ground powder obtained by grinding is sometimes mixed up with imported plastic powder for the purpose of making the plastic goods in the moulding machine. If the investigating engineer had considered the matter dispassionately he would have easily understood how the brass pieces come at all into the picture of the plastic powder in the hopper and in that case he would not have made the remark in his finding—

As an operator he (Ambujakhya) could at least say something regarding how the brass pieces could come at all.

A really innocent man could at least suggest something in that respect".

It appears that the engineer's suspicion was not based on reason, it was on suspicion that he held Ambujakhya to be guilty and in that respect it is clear from his findings that he was influenced by certain extraneous factors which were not in the charge-sheet at all, viz., "adamant attitude". There is no evidence that Ambujakhya was present at the time of the alleged falsification of the plastic powder by the investigating officer (engineer). The engineer says that he interrogated the foreman but did not note what had been stated. The foreman is still in service, he was not called as a witness in this case. The engineer admits that the foreman has a Hat-khata regarding the machines. There was no note anywhere where there was no occasion on the 26th and 27th February 1954, to mix the powder obtained from the grinding machine, with the original plastic powder which was fed into the moulding machine through the hopper.

I cannot believe the allegation of Ambujakhya that he was not given opportunity to submit explanation after the charge-sheet was framed against him. From the evidence I find that the charge-sheet was made over to him and he was given 24 hours' time to submit explanation in writing. Ambujakhya endorsed his explanation then and there and did not think it worth while to make deliberation and then submit a written explanation. At this point the Management is not to blame.

Had it been a case of reasonable suspicion on the part of the Management against Ambujakhya, I would not have interfered with the decision of the Management but I find that Ambujakhya was dismissed on mere suspicion without any reason behind it. I cannot believe that Ambujakhya is such a knave and villain that he would repeat the choking incident on the 27th February morning after there was such an investigation by the Chief Engineer himself on the 26th February 1954. In my opinion the evidence rather indicates that really the brass pieces (one or two in number) now got mixed up with the powder obtained by re-grinding in the grinding machine—with the original plastic powder imported from abroad as a result the brass pieces choked the nozzle of the moulding machine.

The dismissal order should therefore be set aside and he should be paid 50 per cent. of his wages (including dearness allowance, if any) for the period of unemployment. The date of the order of reference is immaterial, it is not necessary that the Management should get previous knowledge or information of the said order of reference for the purpose of invocation of section 33A by the workmen. The reference becomes operative from the moment of communication of the reference to the Tribunal and not from the point of time when the Management actually comes to know of such reference order.

Reinstatement and compensation be made within three days from the date of publication of the award in the Calcutta Gazette.

Calcutta Clinical Research Association, Ltd., 10, Rowdon Calcutta-16, with their factory at 6, Chowringhee Road, Calcutta and workmen represented by Calcutta Clinical Research Association & Union, 1, Joy Bhattacharjee Lane, Calcutta-3, regarding the matters specified to the schedule to the said order, dated the 25th May 1954 referred for adjudication to the Third Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the Tribunal a complaint in writing was made before it by Shri Bibhuti and 15 others, workmen of the said Company, against the said Company alleging that the said Company had altered, to the prejudice of the 16 workmen, the conditions of service applicable to them immediately before the commencement of the said proceedings;

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 33A Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the said Tribunal adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the Government; is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, amended by Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950, led by Shri Bibhuti Singh and 15 others against Messrs. Calcutta Clinical Research Association, Ltd., in connection with Government order No. 2650Dis./D/11L-65/54, dated the 25th May 1954.

ANNEXURE.

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

Miscellaneous case No. 169 of 1954 under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Bibhuti Singh and 15 others, C/o. Calcutta Clinical Research Association Mazdoor Union, 1, Joy Bhattacharyya Lane, Calcutta-3 ... Petitioners,

versus

Calcutta Clinical Research Association, Ltd., 10, Lawdon Street, Calcutta ... Opposite party.

For the petitioners: Shri Panchanan Bhattacharyya.

For the opposite party: Shri S. C. Roy, Law Officer of Company.

AWARD.

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act on 11th September 1954 by Shri Bibhuti Singh and 15 others. They said that they were employees of the opposite party Company and had received Puja bonus at the rate of 15 days' wages in 1953 and that they understood that the opposite party Company was not going to pay such bonus this year. They accordingly prayed that the Company should be ordered to pay them the usual bonus.

The Company opposite party contended that the application as framed was not maintainable in law, nor did the same disclose any cause of action against the Company. As regards merits of the case, the Company denied payment of Puja bonus ever formed any part of the terms and conditions of service and pleaded that on or about 22nd September 1954, it paid the petitioners 15 days' basic wages as bonus for the current year except for Shri Bibhuti Singh, who was found guilty of misconduct on or about 1st January 1954 and for whose dismissal an application for permission was submitted on 13th February 1954 to the Labour Commissioner, West Bengal.

The point which therefore arises for determination is whether the complaint as framed is maintainable.

DECISION.

I may straightaway note that I agree with the Company opposite party that the complaint as framed is not maintainable. Only when an employer contravenes section 33, the employees aggrieved by such contravention may file a complaint in writing under section 33A and not otherwise. In the present case, the complaint did not disclose that there had been alteration in the conditions of service applicable to the workman. It merely stated that the workmen understood that there would be no payment in the current year. Then it was not also stated in the complaint that payment of Puja bonus was a condition of service. In these circumstances prima facie there has been no contravention of section 33 of the Act, as such the complaint under section 33A is not maintainable. Besides, it appears that there has since been payment at the rate of 15 days' wages as Puja bonus for the current year to the petitioners except Bibhuti Singh. Regarding the latter (Shri Bibhuti Singh) the question of non-payment to him cannot be gone into when no such complaint was made before me.

So, to be precise and to conclude, I find that the complaint under section 33A must fail. It is awarded accordingly.

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI G. PALIT, District Judge, Chairman, Fifth Industrial Tribunal
Present for the Company: Shri M. M. Ghosh and Shri Janaki Ramani the I.J.M.A.

Present for the Union: Shri Jagannath Pandey.

1. By Government order No. 1769Dis./D/7L-8/53, dated the 14th July 1953, and subsequently by another corrigendum No. 2416Dis./D/7L-8/53, dated the 8th July 1953, the aforesaid dispute was referred to the 7th Industrial Tribunal, presided over by me, for adjudication under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947). The said Fifth Industrial Tribunal was constituted under notification 3581Lab., dated the 9th June 1951.

2. The reference was received here on 20th May 1953. After usual procedure the Union submitted its written statement on 7th July 1953. The Company filed written objection on 20th July 1953. After several adjournments the case was taken up for hearing on 14th January 1955 when the reference was concluded, and the arguments heard. The award was reserved.

3. The only issue contained in the schedule to the order of reference was as follows:—

- (1) Whether the basic wages of the Sacking Line Sirdars stand in need of revision? If so, what should be the fair basic wages for them?

AWARD.

It is contended by the Union that the major Jute Textile Tribunal dealing with the disputes of 89 Jute Mills in West Bengal, was set up in 1948. The award of the said Tribunal fixed the basic wages of the Hessian Sirdars and the Sacking Line Sirdars with reference to the wages of corresponding weavers, as per Appendix VI of the said award. The basic wages of the Sirdars of the Hessian Line and the Sacking Line were fixed at 150 per cent. of the wages of the corresponding weavers. But the Company, sometime in 1950, raised the basic wages of the Hessian Line Sirdars to 181 per cent. of the wages of that line, while the basic wages of the Sacking Line Sirdars were retained at 150 per cent. of the earnings of the weavers of the same line. The Sacking Line Sirdars objected to this discrimination, but the Company turned a deaf ear to the matter. This was the dispute. The Sacking Line Sirdars also claim the revival or restoration of the bonus for picking at the rates prevailing in 1948.

The Company resists the claim under both these heads. It urges that according to the award the Hessian Line Sirdars always got more, because of the manufacture of special fabrics, than the Sacking Line Sirdars. So, they earn more even now, the Sacking Line Sirdars cannot make a complaint on the basis of that fact. They should be satisfied with this that they have no increment in their earnings, as under the award, which has been fully implemented in their case. The present disparity in the wages of the Hessian Line Sirdars and of the Sacking Line Sirdars is the result of the special circumstances which the Company could not help. When going to implement the award of the Jute Textile Tribunal, the Company found great difficulty, so far as Hessian Line Sirdars were concerned. So, in this case the Company introduced time-rate. Later on, however, the Company realised that this guaranteed wage derogated from their efficiency and quality of work. At this time the communal disturbances broke out in March 1950. Most of the old Sirdars left. When new Hessian Line Sirdars were appointed, the Company gave them piece-rates wages as per the award of the Tribunal's award. But when those old Sirdars returned, some of them demanded continuance of the time-rate. As the Tribunal's award enjoined the Company to maintain the status quo, and not to reduce existing earnings, the Company gave the Tribunal's rate which was 50 per cent. of the average earnings plus one anna extra for every four annas on such earnings. The Sacking Line Sirdars did not view this with favour. They also demanded corresponding increase in their rates. But the Company could not see its way to accede to the prayer.

If we analyse the position taken up by the Company regarding the claim of the Sacking Line Sirdars to have the rates granted to the Hessian Line Sirdars, the stand seems to be two-fold, viz., (1) of the Hessian Line Sirdars get more, the Sacking Line Sirdars cannot murmur, as the Hessian Line Sirdars get higher wages because they manufacture special fabric and (2) that the Sacking Line Sirdars get increased wages on the line award, and so it is none of their business to bother what the Hessian Line Sirdars are being given by the Company. They might clamour if in their case the award would not have been implemented by the Company. The Company introduced the time-rate, and next reverted to the piece rate. So the original piece-rate given by the Tribunal underwent a little interference in the shape of increment. The Company is within its right to do so. So the contention of the Sacking Line Sirdars is untenable.

In the paragraph 2(a) of the Company's written statement I get this: "Owing to the manufacture of special fabrics in the Hessian looms for which the line sirdar's rate per cut was high the average earnings of the Hessian Line Sirdars were always greater than the average earnings of the Sacking Line Sirdars." Then I refer to the paragraph 4 of the Company's written statement which runs thus: "According to that Appendix (Appendix VI of the First Jute Textile Tribunal's award) the average earnings of the Sacking Line Sirdars are higher than those of the Hessian Line Sirdars not because of any higher responsibility as assumed by the Union, but because of the higher rates of wages paid in general to the sacking weavers on whose earnings depend the earnings of line sirdars. Now, if these two statements are considered side by side, it will be seen that as a result of the award the earnings of the Sacking Line Sirdars became higher than those of the Hessian Line Sirdars. But if I refer to the paragraph 2(d) of the Company's written statement, I find as follows: "They (meaning the Hessian Line Sirdars) were accordingly given a 150 per cent. increase (average earnings of the line plus 50 per cent.) and for every 4 annas on their earnings so calculated." This indicates the present position. So the present position seems to be that the Hessian Line Sirdars get 150 per cent. of the earnings of the weavers on the Hessian Line plus 1 anna extra for every 4 annas on their earnings. This would amount to something like 181 per cent. of the weavers' earnings on the Hessian Line. But what do the Sacking Line Sirdars get? They get 150 per cent. of the weavers' earnings in that line. So the position is totally upset by the Company regarding the Hessian Line Sirdars vs. the Sacking Line Sirdars. Under the Award, as per Appendix VI, the Sacking Line Sirdars were to get more than the Hessian Line Sirdars. This is the very admission of the Company in its written statement. But the Company for some reasons relegated the Sacking Line Sirdars to a lower position, and gave more to the Hessian Line Sirdars. This is certainly not according to the award. The Company wants to take shelter by saying that what it does with regard to the Hessian Line Sirdars is no business of the Sacking Line Sirdars. But such a contention can never hold water. There is evidence that these two sections are more or less interchangeable. At all events, these two classes of Line Sirdars were treated on the same footing by the Tribunal. So it does not lie with the Company to disturb that relative position. If they do such preferential treatment to one class over another, that certainly cannot be conducive to industrial peace and harmony. So the Company cannot be permitted to ask tribunal to shut its eyes to this aspect of the Hessian Line Sirdars' earnings, and to merely remain content with the implementation of the award, so far as the Sacking Line Sirdars are concerned. That would be suppressing the dispute, and not settling the same.

Next, let me consider how far the Company is justified in making this disparity between the two sections of Line Sirdars. The Company says it found difficulty in implementing the award, so far as the Hessian Line Sirdars are concerned. What the difficulty was the Company does not present before me. Even if there was any difficulty, that was not very much important. The Company introduced the "time-rate" for the Hessian Line Sirdars. Later on, the Company found it to be inconvenient in its own interest. So it reverted to the old piece-rate system. But that was not free from difficulty. The old Sirdars who had temporarily been granted because of the communal disturbances then prevailing, returned and insisted on the time-rate to be given to them. So the Company increased the piece-rate given by the Tribunal. That might be some justification for the step the Company undertook, but that does not justify the disparity created in sister sections of the Mill. If you raise the wage of one section of workers, you must be prepared to raise the same in other sections, provided the service conditions are identical. In the present case, there is nothing before me to come to the conclusion that the Hessian Line Sirdars substantially differ from the Sacking Line Sirdars. The Tribunal treated them on the same footing. So the Company is not justified in creating this unnecessary disparity.

Having regard to the above, I award that the rate given to the Hessian Line Sirdars should be extended also to the Sacking Line Sirdars. This award should be prospective from the date of operation of the award. It should not be retrospective, but as there is no evidence about the Company's financial position, I cannot give retrospective effect to it. So my answer to the issue is that the basic wage of the Sacking Line Sirdars requires revision. Their fair basic wage would be at the same rate as given to the Hessian Line Sirdars henceforward.

There is another claim for bonus for picking at rates prevailing after 1946. The Company resists the claim as this was abolished in 1946, prior to the Tribunal's award. Be that as it may, I am not very much concerned with it because there is no issue pertaining to this matter. Therefore, I refrain from deciding it either way.

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Indian Research Institute, Ltd., 3, Rustamjee Parsi Road, Cossipore, Calcutta and Shri Bikhan Bhagat, a worker, as represented by Calcutta Clinic Research Mazdoor Union, 1, Joy Bhattacharya Lane, Calcutta-3.

BEFORE THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI MOTILAL CHAKRAVATTI, District Judge, Judge, Sixth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances.

For the Company: Shri S. K. Dhar Choudhury, Pleader.

For the workman: Shri Panchanan Bhattacharjee, President of the Union.

Acting under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by order No. 785Dis./D/11L-19/54, dated Calcutta, the 16th February 1954, referred the aforesaid dispute for adjudication to me regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the order of reference.

SCHEDULE.

- (1) Whether the discharge of Shri Bikhan Bhagat was justified and what relief is he entitled to?

AWARD.

The allegation against Bikhan Bhagat is that on the 2nd May sometime after the usual departure of the workmen from the factory closing of the day's work Bikhan Bhagat was found leaving the factory with a packet in his hand and when durwan Sakal Deo insisted on the said packet being opened in his presence, Bikhan Bhagat had to open it and noticed that some new wire nails belonging to the factory were in the packet of the said packet. Bikhan Bhagat begged to be excused but the durwan Sakal Deo retained the said stolen wire nails and let Bikhan Bhagat go. Later on durwan informed the Secretary of the Company of the incident. It is also alleged that on the 3rd May (Sunday) Bikhan Bhagat as Manager, S. Mitra, in the latter's garden at Barasat and there in the presence of Birendra admitted his guilt and begged to be pardoned.

that there he said that the wire nails which he had taken from the factor were old wire nails and that he required the same for repairing his Khatia. But on the 4th May 1953, i.e., Monday, the nails were produced before the Manager in his office in the factory by Sakal Deo. The said nails were found to be brand new. On that date Bikhan was away from the factory on some official business. On the next day, i.e., 5th May 1953, Bikhan was confronted with the nails but the latter could not give any satisfactory reply. So he was charge-sheeted for such misconduct and he was placed under suspension. On the 7th May 1953, Bikhan submitted reply to the charge-sheet (Ext. B) and there he stated that he never admitted to have committed theft of wire nails and that Sakal Deo falsely reported against him out of personal grudge.

The Company's contention is that afterwards on the 11th May 1953 an enquiry was held in the presence of Bikhan, Sakal Deo, Clerk Sunil Paul Secretary of the Company and Biren Babu and it is alleged that at the enquiry Bikhan confessed his guilt and also divulged that he did not know the contents of his written explanation to the charge-sheet and that he simply signed it without knowing the contents. The Company's case is that on enquiry it was decided that the allegation of Bikhan Bhagat of his personal grudge with Sakal Deo is baseless and that the company was satisfied that Bikhan was guilty of theft of the wire nails belonging to the factory. So he has been dismissed.

Bikhan Bhagat denies the allegation of theft as well as the alleged confession on his part. The only eye witness to the theft as alleged is Sakal Deo Singh, the durwan. Sakal Deo was officiating as a durwan at that time in the place of Kapil Deo who was on leave. Kapil Deo is a brother or a cousin to Sakal Deo. Sakal Deo did not take the said wire nails (alleged to have been stolen by Bikhan and seized by Sakal Deo) to the Secretary though he visited the residence of the Secretary of the Company twice on the date as he deposes. Sakal Deo admits that on the date of occurrence he did not show the stolen wire nails to anybody. Bikhan Bhagat's allegation is that Sakal Deo had borrowed Rs. 12 from him and that Sakal Deo is rather reluctant to repay it and that Bikhan made insistent demand for repayment of the said loan and that on the 1st May 1953, Sakal Deo paid the said loan to him reluctantly and at that time, he threatened Bikhan that he would teach Bikhan a lesson.

Once Bikhan suggested that the Manager and Birendra have got some grudge against him as he refused to work in the garden of the Manager at Rasat but in his own cross-examination he said—

"I never refused to work in the garden because all the despatchers used to work there, so why should I refuse?"

The Secretary Shri Akhoy Kumar Bose deposed that on the 2nd May 1953 at about 9 p.m. Sakal Deo came to his residence and informed him of the occurrence of theft of wire nails by Bikhan. He also says that on the 3rd May, i.e., Monday, he came to the factory but Sakal Deo did not show him the wire nails and the said wire nails were produced by Sakal Deo after the Manager Shri S. Mitra had arrived at about 9-30 a.m. Shri S. Mitra, the Manager, not having been examined, his alleged statements are not admissible in evidence. Moreover it appears that S. Mitra left Calcutta the very date of hearing of the case. There are other circumstances also in which it would appear that S. Mitra, I think, was evading deposition before the Tribunal for reasons best known to him.

It appears from the evidence of the Secretary that at the enquiry into the charge-sheet (11th May 1953) Satrugna Singh and Bimal Singh were not examined although the Company's case is that on the date of occurrence Sakal Deo went to the Secretary to give him the information about the theft of the wire nails after leaving Bikhan Bhagat in the custody of Satrugna Singh in the factory. However, the evidence is that Satrugna Singh is no longer in service of this Company. The Secretary also says that on reference to the Attendance Register of Bikhan Bhagat of the 2nd May 1953, i.e., the date of occurrence, it was found that Bikhan Bhagat's departure was noted as 4 p.m.

Witness Birendra is an employee of the factory and he is also the person who looks after the garden of the Manager Shri S. Mitra at Barasat. It also appears that although the factory has been closed long ago, this employee Birendra is still retained in service. I think he is a creature of the Manager S. Mitra.

From the evidence of Sunil Paul who is no longer in service it appears that on the 2nd May 1953, the factory closed at 4 p.m. He says that on the 4th May (Monday), after the Manager had come to the factory Sakal Deo produced some wire nails before him and that on the 5th May, the Manager called Bikhan and there Sunil Paul produced the nails before the Manager. Sunil says that there Bikhan pleaded guilty and begged to be excused, but when he was asked to make a written confession, Bikhan refused and therefore the charge-sheet was framed and that at the enquiry into the charge-sheet Bikhan stated that the reply to the charge-sheet was written by somebody who misstated the fact and that he (Bikhan) was still confessing that he actually stole the wire nails.

I think, the story of confession on the part of Bikhan is not at all true. It appears from Ext. B, reply of Bikhan to the charge-sheet, that on the 11th May 1953, i.e., the date of the enquiry the Manager S. Mitra endorsed that Bikhan confirmed his previous admission but in the final order dismissal Ext. C it does not appear that Bikhan at all admitted his guilt before Shri S. Mitra, on the 11th May, i.e., on the date of enquiry. There is no mention in Ext. C that at the enquiry Bikhan pleaded guilty or that he confessed having stolen wire nails, on the other hand, Ext. C shows that at the enquiry Bikhan made argument in support of his plea of innocence. I do not think that in a case where the employee confesses guilt, the enquiry officer would write the record of the proceeding in such a way as Ext. C has been done. This shows that the story of confession is a myth. Of course Bikhan could not make out by evidence that Sakal Deo had any grudge against him or there was any money lending affair between them but in view of the conduct of Sakal Deo and the conduct of the Manager S. Mitra as it appears from his endorsement in Ext. B, considered with Ext. C, I have reason to believe that there was some conspiracy against Bikhan Bhagat. It may be, it was with regard to the Bekar service in the garden of the Manager at Barasat. The charge-sheet is dated 4th May 1953, and there it is said that the theft was detected at about 5 p.m. on the 2nd May 1953, Saturday. There is no evidence save and except the word of mouth of Sakal Deo that actually there was any such occurrence at 5 p.m. or that Bikhan Bhagat did not leave the factory at 4 p.m., i.e., the hour which is noted in the Attendance Register as his hour of departure on that date. If really Bikhan were taken into custody on the 2nd May 1953, so late after 4 p.m., certainly evidence would have been forthcoming in support thereof. When the conduct of the Director (or say the Manager S. Mitra himself is so much suspicious I cannot attach any weight to the evidence of his creatures who have been examined as witnesses in this case. My finding therefore is that the dismissal of Shri Bikhan Bhagat was not justified.

From the evidence of Shri Akhoy Kumar Bose, Secretary of the Company, it appears that Bikhan Bhagat had been serving in his factory since 1945 or 1946 and that this was the first charge-sheet against him during his tenure of service. The enquiry was held on the 11th May 1953 and dismissal was dated 23rd May 1953, and the dismissal was to take effect from the 3rd May 1953. It is admitted that on the 4th May and 5th May 1953, Bikhan worked in the factory and was on duty. This shows how arbitrary the dismissal is. From the evidence of the Secretary I also find that the factory has been closed since May 1954, i.e., about a year after the dismissal order (passed upon Bikhan Bhagat). In these circumstances reinstatement will be out of the question. Compensation would be the only relief which can be granted to Bikhan Bhagat. It is therefore directed that the Company shall pay compensation to Bikhan Bhagat equivalent to 15 days' wages per each year of service rendered by Bikhan Bhagat. Payment be made within 10 days' from the date of publication of the award in the Calcutta Gazette.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Biswa Bharati Mill, 112/114, Raja Dinendra Street, Calcutta-4 and their workmen represented by Telkal Mazdoor Congress, 1, Joy Bhattacharjee Lane, Calcutta-3.

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Company: Shri Bankim Chandra Bhattacharyya.

For the workmen: Shri Panchanan Bhattacharyya, President, Telkal Mazdoor Congress.

AWARD.

1. By order No. 3495Dis./D/15L-20/54, dated the 20th July 1954 the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Biswa Bharati Oil Mill, 112/114, Raja Dinendra Street, Calcutta-4 and their workmen represented by Telkal Mazdoor Congress, 1, Joy Bhattacharjee Lane, Calcutta-3, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 592Dis./D/12L-5/52, dated the 23rd February 1953, for adjudication.

2. After summons the parties entered appearance and filed their written statements duly. The pleadings were completed on 7th September 1954. The parties were thereafter directed to file lists of documents. The dispute was then heard on 14th February 1955.

3. The matters of dispute as stated in the schedule to the order of reference are as follows:—

(1) Whether the discharge of (a) Patal Ghosh, (b) Jayram Kurmi, (c) Ram Basant, (d) Ramlout, (e) Bhardeo and (f) Rambachan is justified. To what relief are they entitled?

(2) Whether the management is justified in changing the service conditions of the workers?

4. The case of the workmen represented by Telkal Mazdoor Congress briefly stated, is as follows. The workmen of Messrs. Biswa Bharati Oil Mill demanded annual statutory leave and overtime wages in accordance with the provisions of the Factories Act, besides paid holidays. This enraged the employers and all the permanent workmen were dismissed. The oil mill has been working on full swing and new hands are working. In the circumstances, the workmen prayed among others for reinstatement and for payment of compensation for the period of unemployment.

The management of the mill replied as below:—

The mill was started in or about the year 1948. The number of workmen in the mill was always below nine. The Factories Act has no application to the mill.

No person of the name of Ram Basant as mentioned in the order of reference ever worked in the mill. The other five workmen were none permanent hands. Shri Patal Ghosh joined the mill on or about 5th Baisakh 1360 B.S.; Shri Joyram Kurmi worked up to 17th Magh 1359 B.S. then left for home for 2 months and rejoined on or about 7th Baisakh 1360 B.S.; Shri Ramlout left the work on 4th Baisakh, 1360 B.S. and joined again on 1st Asar, 1360 B.S.; Shri Bhardeo rejoined on 1st Jaistha 1360 B.S. after he had left the job 6 or 7 months previous to rejoining, and Bhattachan joined the mill from the month of Jaistha 1359 B.S. None of these workmen was dismissed. They stopped work of their own accord on 19th January 1954 and left their jobs subsequently after taking their respective dues in full.

Of these workers, Shri Patal Ghosh was Ghunyman drawing a salary of Rs. 80 per month and the rest were all coolies drawing each at the rate of Rs. 50 per month. The workers were to do pressing 12 times in course of 8 hours. For extra work beyond those hours the Ghunyman used to be paid the rate of four annas and the coolies at the rate of two annas each.

On or about Bhadra 1360 B.S., it was found that some tools were missing. The workers who used to live inside the mill premises were warned of the loss. Having thus been enraged, they started "go slow" tactics. Instead of doing 12 pressings, they used to do 8 or 9 pressings in 8 hours. As a result, the mill suffered loss. When the workers would not mend in spite of repeated requests the mill management wanted to pay them on the daily basis instead of on monthly basis as hitherto before. Upon such proposal the workers stopped work and left the mill on 19th January 1954. The mill had thus to be closed. When after long waiting the workers did resume duty, the mill was started with new hands. In the circumstances, the mill submitted that the claims of the workers should be dismissed.

DECISION.

Issues 1 and 2 are taken up together for consideration.

In support of the case, Telkal Mazdoor Congress (hereafter called the Mill Congress) has examined the Ghunyman, P. W. 1, Shri Patal Ghosh, the Coolies, P. W. 2, Shri Joyram Kurmi and P. W. 3, Bhardeo, besides filing documents, Exts. 1 to 7. The mill, on the other hand, has examined one of its employees, D.W. 1, Shri Bankim Bhattacharyya, besides filing documents, Exts. A, B to B2, C and D.

FACTS. Biswa Bharati Oil Mill is a partnership business started in or about 1948. The number of workers in the mill, it appears, was always 9 and at the relevant time it was 7 (vide Ext. A). I, therefore, find that the Factories Act had and has no application to the said mill.

The mill maintains accounts according to Bengali year Baisakh to Chaitra. The workmen mentioned in issue No. 1 of the order of reference were all employed in the mill except Shri Ram Basant. The Mazdoor Congress admits that there was really no such worker of the name of Ram Basant but one named Ram Bahar Kurmi. The evidence shows that the said Ram Bahar Kurmi has been still in employment of this mill (vide Ext. A). So the case of Ram Basant goes out of the Tribunal. Thus only the cases of the remaining five workers are left for consideration.

Ext. D is a file containing correspondences which the mill either made or received in this connection. These have been marked collectively Ext. D. In the instance of the Mazdoor Congress. Exts. 1 to 7 are likewise the correspondences which the Mazdoor Congress either made or received.

The facts leading to the dispute as appears from these correspond and the evidence are as follows. There were altogether 7 workmen in the mill at the relevant time out of whom there was only one Ghungyman Patal Chandra Ghosh and the rest were coolies (vide P.W. 1). Out of the 5 workers 5 became members of Telkal Mazdoor Congress sometime in the month of November/December 1953. It appears that subsequently Shri Panchanan Bhattacharjee, President, Telkal Mazdoor Congress moved the Labour Officer on their behalf for redress of certain grievances sometime in the month of November/December 1953. What were the grievances are not definitely known. It may be that these relate to a leave, overtime wages, etc., as stated in the written statement. Be that as it may, following such representation the Labour Officer called a conference first on 29th December 1953 and then on 6th January 1954. Then on the prayer of the mill for postponement on the ground that it had to attend the Court of Subordinate Judge at Alipore on 6th January 1954 the date of conference was shifted.

In this state on 12th January 1954 the mill through its lawyer complained to the Labour Officer that the workers had adopted "go slow" tactics for some months past (vide Ext. D and Ext. 7). On 20th January 1954 the mill also wrote to the Labour Commissioner that "for the last few months the labourers are not working up to the mark expected of them. They are following slow progress tactics....." It was further stated in the letter that the workers were accordingly informed about 1½ months ago that if they did not increase production the mill would be compelled to pay them on the basis of daily output instead of monthly wages as they were getting. The mill ultimately informed that as the workers were continuing slow progress tactics, it decided that the labourers should be paid daily according to the amount of labour, i.e., to say, the output they made instead of monthly wages, and that the mill would introduce the said system on and from 22nd January 1954 (7th Magh 1360 B.S.).

On 22nd January 1954 the mill informed the Labour Commissioner that the labourers stopped work since 19th January 1954 (5th Magh 1360 B.S.) and that the mill was therefore closed. It was further stated in the letter that the workers had refused to work on daily basis according to output made by them. In that letter the mill also informed the Labour Commissioner that the workers signed in the pay register for the month of Pous 1360 B.S. but did not take payment when asked to sign for the working days of Magh 1360 B.S.

During trial the parties admitted that there was no work since 19th January 1954 and that the 5 workers concerned received their wages up to 22nd January 1954 corresponding to 7th Magh 1360 B.S.

On 28th January 1954 the mill wrote to the Officer-in-charge, police station, to say that it wanted to re-start work from 29th January 1954 with new hands as the old workers refused to work and as they might thus create trouble. On that very day the mill also wrote to the Labour Commissioner to inform him as follows:—

"(a) The labourers of the mill have not taken their monthly salary of Pous 1360 B.S. though they have signed receipts.

(b) They have declined to work on daily basis according to output as they have not left the mill premises.

(c) The mill have been lying closed for over a week."

So the mill proposed to take in new hands with immediate effect and start work. Thereafter the mill's representative had interview with the Labour Commissioner on 23rd February 1954. The evidence shows that ough the labourers did not work since 19th January 1954, the mill asked to pay their wages up to 22nd January 1954 corresponding to Magh 1360 B.S. (in addition to salary of Pous 1360 B.S. for which workers signed receipts). Then the workers admittedly received their dues up to 7th Magh 1360 B.S. The mill informed the Labour Commissioner 25th February 1954 that the labourers had accepted their wages up to Magh 1360 B.S. and had left the mill premises. It would thus appear actual payment for the month of Pous 1360 B.S. and for the first week of Magh 1360 B.S. was made in between 23rd February 1954 and 25th February 1954.

The President of the Mazdoor Congress, on the other hand, made complaint about termination of employment of these workers for the first time on 7th January 1954 by Ext. 1. He wrote to the Labour Officer that as a result of his representing the grievances of the workers to him, the 5 men concerned were discharged. Then again on 1st March 1954 the President of the Mazdoor Congress wrote to the Labour Officer that the mill had in its employ 14 workers as per enclosed list and that out of them who were members of the Union, were discharged. In the said letter as stated that these discharged workers were paid wages up to 7th Pous 1360 B.S. and that though they were monthly paid workers, they were not given even salary of the whole month of Magh 1360 B.S. In the letter appended with the letter, the President stated length of service of the discharged workmen. The mill on receiving the copy of the said letter from the Labour Officer for comments replied to the Labour Officer on 16th March 1954 (vide Ext. 5). The mill stated that the number of labourers discharged exceeded 9 at any time and that of the 14 workers named, five, namely, Sukdeb, Charai, Jugal, Mani and Sachin, never worked in the mill and were fictitious names. The mill also challenged length of service given in the list and appended its version. The mill further stated how it discharged workmen left their jobs. It stated that the workmen were very insubordinate and that they broke certain machinery parts and stole tools to the extent of Rs. 400 to Rs. 500 and when this was detected, they slowed down production and joined the Union. Thereupon the Mazdoor Congress wrote two letters to the Labour Officer respectively on 1st March 1954 (Ext. 3) and on 2nd April 1954 (Ext. 4). By the letter of 1st March 1954, the Mazdoor Congress challenged the charges brought against the mill against the workmen and asserted that the workers were driven out of their jobs for four months back. In the letter of 2nd April 1954, it was stated that the length of service of the workers was not correctly stated in the letter of the Mazdoor Congress. Then there was a joint conference on 19th April 1954. The Labour Officer wrote to the mill on 23rd April 1954 whether it was agreeable to take back the workers as per old service conditions and requested reply within 3 days. The mill replied on 28th April 1954 that as the workers had taken their own jobs of their own accord and as they refused to work on the basis of daily output, and as it had engaged new hands, it would not be able to take back the workmen. Thus the dispute came to be referred to the Labour Tribunal for adjudication.

Regarding merits, I do not believe the case of the workmen that they were either discharged or dismissed by the employer. They could show some convincing why the employer would discharge or dismiss them. The workmen could not even state how and when the alleged discharge or dismissal took place. The evidence and circumstances rather point in favour of the case of the employer that when there was proposal by the employer to change the status of the workmen from monthly-rated into daily-rated according to daily output, the workmen themselves ceased to work since 19th January 1954 and ultimately refused to resume work on 22nd January 1954 from which date the employer formally brought into operation the said new rate.

It is agreed on all hands during hearing that the mill was closed on 19th January 1954. It appears that the said closure could be explained only on the employer's case that the workmen stopped work and not otherwise. The workmen did not plead or prove how otherwise the mill was closed on 19th January 1954. The circumstances that there was provision for change from monthly-rated into piece-rated status prior to 19th January 1954 followed by actual introduction from 22nd January 1954 of the said piece-rate according to the quantity of daily output in place of the monthly-salaried rate of the workmen, would on the contrary afford cause for the workmen for cessation of work from 19th January 1954 resulting in the closure of the mill since 19th January 1954. It is thus obvious that the workmen were neither discharged nor dismissed but on the contrary, themselves ceased to work since 19th January 1954 and ultimately refused to resume work when actually the new system was introduced on 22nd January 1954. This explains how the workmen, although they resumed work since 19th January 1954, were paid their dues till 22nd January 1954. It is common ground during trial that the five workmen concerned received in full their wages up to 22nd January 1954 though there was no work since 19th January 1954, and that the employment of these workmen ceased with effect from 23rd January 1954. It appears that after 22nd January 1954 the workmen received their dues and left the mill premises between 23rd January 1954 and 25th February 1954 the mill could re-start regular operation from 26th February 1954 after two previous unsuccessful attempts.

The employer alleges in justification of the action for introducing the new system that the workmen for some time past since Bhadra 1360 had adopted "go slow" tactics as they were taken to task in connection with the missing of certain machinery parts which was detected at the time. The workmen were admittedly living inside the mill premises at the time. So when the missing was detected in Bhadra 1360 B.S., it was there natural that the workmen would be taken to task for the missing of machinery parts from the mill premises and would be asked to move away from the mill premises. I also believe that this had enraged the workmen and consequently they declined to oblige the employer by continuing to do 12 pressings daily as they had been doing hitherto before. The employer alleged that the workmen were doing aforesaid 12 pressings in course of normal 8 hours' working a day, while the workmen contended that the said 12 pressings were not possible in course of 8 hours but were used to be done by employing them overtime without extra payment. It is that as it may, when the number of pressings thus became lesser, the output necessarily became smaller. The employer naturally thought aggrieved and thus sought to introduce piece-rate according to the quantity of daily output in place of monthly-salaried rate of the workmen.

The presentation of charter of demands, it appears, had nothing to do with such change. Unless the employer felt aggrieved that his workmen were not doing their bit as they used to do before, there could have been no meaning for introducing the new system. None would think of victimisation in such roundabout way. The fact that the workmen themselves ceased to work, on the contrary, points that the presentation of demands by the employer had nothing to do with the action of the employer. I am therefore, unable to hold that the action of the employer in introducing the new system was either mala fide.

From the materials placed before this Tribunal, it cannot however be that the employer has been able to establish beyond doubt that the workmen adopted "go slow" tactics resulting in lesser production. There has been of course variation in the output from what it was before, but there is nothing to show that the said difference was due exclusively to the human element involved in the process of production. Difference in the output might have been due to various factors, namely, bad quality of raw materials, stock position, duration of working hours. In the absence of evidence showing stock, working hours, etc., it cannot be said that the difference was due exclusively to the human element involved in the process of production. So the charge of "go slow" tactics cannot be accepted, unless it has been established. D. W. 1 had, in a way, to admit this in cross-examination. The employer thus appears to have acted mainly on suspicion. Suspicion cannot be a good ground for bringing into operation a new system affecting the existing terms and conditions of service. The employer is thus not strictly justified in introducing the piece-rate system in place of the existing terms and conditions of the five workmen concerned being on monthly rates.

The five workmen, it appears, had none continuous employment even a year before they ceased to work on and from 19th January 1954.

Patal Chandra Ghosh admittedly joined for the first time as a workman in Baisakh 1360 B.S. The four other workmen were working as casuals and they too admittedly had no continuous employment. They, according to their own showing, used to go and stay at home for 2/3 months during which they used to get no salary. They too, the evidence shows, needed the mill for the last time on different dates in 1360 B.S. as alleged by the employer. There is nothing to show that any of these five workmen were appointed permanently.

As regards relief, when the workmen were not permanent and when they themselves stopped work and ultimately left their jobs, I think they cannot, in fairness, claim any compensation for the period of unemployment, if any. At the same time, when the employer was not strictly justified in introducing the piece-rate system in place of the monthly rates and in the Wage Register (Ext. A) does not show that there was any new appointment in their place except one, I think that the five workmen concerned should be reinstated when they are willing to resume work on the existing terms and conditions. The employer is accordingly directed to restore the five workmen concerned on the old terms and conditions of service if the workmen present themselves for work within one month from the date the award becomes enforceable.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Mahabir Hosiery Mills, Ltd., 8, Kali Majumder Road, Ghosury, Howrah, and their workers represented by the Bengal Hosiery Workers' Union, 122, Benares Road, Salkia, Howrah.

BEFORE THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL, CALCUTTA.

PRESENT:

SHRI MOTILAL CHAKRAVATTI, District Judge,
Judge, Sixth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances.

For the Company: Shri P. R. Mookherjee, M.A., LL.B.

For the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak.

Acting under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, (XIV of 1947), the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 689Dis./D/8L-2/54, dated Calcutta, the 12th August 1954, referred the aforesaid dispute for adjudication to me regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the said Order of Reference.

SCHEDULE.

- (1) To what relief the workers are entitled as a result of closure of Mahabir Hosiery Mills with consequent termination of services of the workers.

AWARD.

According to the Union 41 workmen constituted the staff which has been retrenched on account of the closure of the Mahabir Hosiery Mills business. This business was carried on by Mahabir Hosiery Mills, Ltd. The Company has not been wound up but it has closed down the Hosiery business on the allegation that the business was entailing loss and that there was no chance of profit on account of the keen competition in the market. The Company's contention is that there were 39 workmen and that before losing down of the Hosiery business, the Union was taken counsel with and was resolved on the 2nd July 1953, in the General Meeting of the Company that the Hosiery Mills should be closed down and the workmen are to be retrenched with effect from 15th July 1953, and that accordingly a notice was given of the said Resolution and that the Draft Notice was corrected and approved of by the President of the Union. The Draft Notice is marked xt. "B". To support this contention of the Company that the closure was due to financial difficulties and heavy losses incurred by the Mill, the Company produced the Balance Sheet also.

It appears from the evidence that in 1950, the Mills were once closed down involving discharge of 79 workers. There was a Reference case arising out of the same discharge. The Award was published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated January 11, 1951. In the award, there was an observation that "the Management contemplates to re-open the departments gradually and to re-appoint the discharged workers according to necessity". The Tribunal held that the closure of the Mill was on bona fide trading grounds. After the passing of that award, the Mills were restarted by the Company and it appears from the evidence that only 39 workers formed the total strength this time. On the side of the Union, there is no evidence at all. Further appears that on the 1st May 1954, the Company sold away the Hosiery Mills business to one Sumermall Pandaya for Rs. 10,000. The copy of the conveyance is marked "D". In the evidence, however, the Company's witness admitted that the sale was for consideration of Rs. 80,000 and that nothing was received in cash and that the entire purchase money was set up against outstanding debt due to the purchaser.

It appears that workmen were not paid any gratuity or any retiral benefit at the time of the first closure in 1950. On the one hand, the workmen were retrenched for no fault of theirs although they were serving this Company even before 1950. On the other hand, the Company had to close down the business on account of bona fide trading reasons. The question is whether in the circumstances, the Company should pay compensation to the workmen out of the attenuated capital. The Balance Sheet does not show any reserve money in the hands of the Company. Even if we suppose that the Company received Rs. 80,000 in cash from the Purchaser as purchase money, the fact remains that the paid up capital far exceeded that amount. It has been held in Associated Rubber and Plastic Works vs. Workmen, 1954, 1 L.L.J., page 183, by the Appellate Tribunal that an employer has the right to close his business and compensation is payable only if it is proved that the closure is not for bona fide trading reasons.

The decision in that case was not influenced at all by the fact that the workmen also by their irresponsible conduct contributed to the trade depression. This case has been properly reported in 1954, 6 F.J.R., page 195.

In New India Commercial Company vs. Jyotirmoy Ghose, 1954, 1 L.L.J., it was held—

"that compensation in the case of the termination of services of a workman on account of closure of business should be awarded on the same basis on which compensation is awarded, in case of retrenchment". But in that case the closure was not due to bona fide trade reasons or to economic difficulties of the employer.

In that case, the business was closed and the firm was dissolved due to the difference between the partners. Therefore, the decision in that case is not applicable to the facts of the present case. I, therefore, hold that the workmen are not entitled to get any re-instatement order nor any compensation but I recommend that the purchaser of the business may be pleased to employ workmen out of these retrenched hands, if and when any occasion would arise and that there should not be any discrimination in the matter of recruitment, so far as these retrenched workmen are concerned.

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Titaghur Jute Factory Nos. 1 and 2 of Titaghur, 24-Parganas, and their Spinners as represented by the Bengal Provincial Chatkal Mazdoor Union of Mahatma Gandhi Road, Titaghur, 24-Parganas.

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL
PRESENT :

SHRI G. PALIT, District Judge,

Chairman, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company : Shri K. B. Basu, Counsel with Shri N. M. Gupta, Advocate, assisted by Shri M. Ghosh, of the I.J.M.A.

Present for the Union : Shri Shyam Chakravorty, Vice-President of Union, and Shri Kalika Prasad, General Secretary of the Union.

1. By Government order No. 2163Dis./D/7L-29(A)/53, dated 13th June 1953, and, subsequently, by another corrigendum, No. 2660Dis./D/7L-29(A)/53, dated the 29th July 1953, the aforesaid dispute ferred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal presided over by me for adjudication under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (IV of 1947), the said Fifth Industrial Tribunal was constituted under Notification No. 3581Lab., dated the 9th June 1951.

2. The reference was received here on 18th June 1953. The Union filed written statement on 1st July 1953. The Company filed written objection on 24th July 1953. After several adjournments, the case was taken up for hearing on 3rd February 1955 and 4th February 1955, when evidence was concluded including the argument. The award was served.

3. The issues contained in the schedule to the order of reference stand follows:—

- (1) Standardisation of work load in the Spinning Department of Titaghur Jute Factory No. 1 and Titaghur Jute Factory No. 2.
- (2) Whether the arrangement of Titaghur Jute Factory No. 1 should employ an adequate number of spinners so as to enable each spinner to look after 27 spindles and not more.

AWARD.

4. Before I discuss the issues, I should point out that when the case was taken up, the parties by their common consent agreed to keep out of consideration the matter raised as per issue No. 1. I have noted this in my order No. 12, dated 3rd February 1955, in the order-sheet of the case. The issue No. 2 was also considerably narrowed down, I mean, its scope. The Hessian Weft Section was left out of the scope of the issue. So the matter really to be considered was confined to the Sacking Weft Section workmen. This also I noted in my order No. 13, bearing the same date with the signatures of the parties noted in the margin.

Coming next to the consideration of this truncated issue, I find that the grievance of the workmen that in the Mill No. 1, 68 spindles constitute the spinning frame, and this is being handled by two spinners; but in the Mill No. 2, the frame comprises 54 spindles, and that is handled by two workers. According to the workmen, 27 spindles per spinner should be the adequate standard. It should rather be less, but never more. Operating of 34 spindles by one man has resulted in impairing the health of the spinners. So this should be rejected, and the number of spindles should be limited to 27 only.

The Company resists this claim. It contends that the number of spindles is hardly worth any consideration, as the whole thing is being run by electricity. Even a lesser number of spindles might work well, if the running is defective. The matter which counts and which constitutes labour of the workmen is not the number of spindles, but the number of breakages in the yarn thread. These men are time-bound, and so, even that has hardly any weight. Besides, the frame which runs 68 spindles, depends on the space in the Mill, and the peculiar layout. The Mill No. 1 was constructed as far back as 1884, and the Mill No. 2 in 1906. 68 spindles exist in the Mill No. 1 all along. There has been hardly any complaint. In the present system one spinner operates 34 spindles much more in number, even double the present number.

Coming to the evidence, I find that this system of 34 spindles operated by one spinner in the Mill No. 1, admittedly exists for a number of years, I mean, more than two decades. No case could be cited where such working has told upon, or affected adversely, the health of the spinners. The workmen of the Mill No. 2 came over to work in Mill No. 1 for nearly 5 years, according to the Spinning Overseers Mr. Nathison. They never grudged operating 34 spindles per head. So on the evidence I find that the grievance of the spinners to have to work 34 spindles per head, is not real. It is only an attempt to exact some extra salary on the score of extra spindles.

During the argument, an objection came from the Union that spinners have hardly any opportunity even to answer the call of nature. The work-load is very heavy, and a relief should be given, if not on other grounds, at least on this score. But even here, I do not find the grievance is genuine. There is a sufficient number of helpers, the Sacking Weft the number is 6. These helpers relieve the spinners when necessary. So it can never be maintained that the spinners work without a respite. So the issue is answered against the workmen. I am of opinion that the present arrangement, so far as the number of spindles in the Mill No. 1 is concerned, is quite adequate, and no question of limiting the number to 27 spindles can arise.

Before conclusion, I should say that the parties were well advised to drop the issue No. 1, about the standardisation of work-load in spinning departments, when the Major Jute Tribunal is already in progress. So I record no finding on the issue No. 1 with the consent of both parties.

FINANCE DEPARTMENTAudit*NOTIFICATION.

No. 116F./F4P-10(31)54.—12th January 1955.—In exercise of the power conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India read with article 313 of the said Constitution and paragraph 19 of the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950, the Governor is pleased to make the following amendments in the (General Provident Fund (West Bengal Services) Rules, as subsequently amended, namely:—

Amendment.

To clause (c)(ii) of sub-rule (1) of rule 15 of the said rules, add the following Explanations, namely:—

"Explanation 1.—The expression 'amount already advanced' in clause (c) (ii) shall be construed as referring to the first advance that may be granted not exceeding two-thirds of the amount admissible under clause (c) (i). Thus under clause (c) (ii) if a subscriber who has already been granted the amount admissible clause (c) (i) applied for a second advance (not exceeding the limit specified in clause) within twelve months of the repayment of the first advance or it is still current, the authority who sanctioned the first advance will be entitled to sanction the second advance without a reference to higher authority. Where the amount of the first and second advance does not exceed two-thirds of the amount admissible under clause (c) (i) the subscriber may apply for a third advance within twelve months of the final repayment of the two previous advances or while one or both of them is or are still current. In such case, the original sanctioning authority shall not sanction the third advance except without the sanction of the higher administrative authority.

Explanation 2.—In determining whether a particular advance prayed for is the third or the second advance, any advance which has been completely repaid more than 12 months ago shall be ignored. The original sanctioning authority can grant a third advance (which is actually the second advance) if the second advance (which is actually the first advance) did not exceed two-thirds of the amount admissible under the rules and if the first advance (which has to be totally ignored) had been completely repaid more than 12 months ago.

Explanation 3.—In determining the amount of the second advance, the limit of twelve months' pay shall operate separately without referring to the balance against the first advance."

ANNEXURE.

In the matter of an industrial dispute between the Grand Hotel, 15/2, Chowringhee Road, Calcutta and their employees represented by Grand Hotel Employees' Union, 3, Ram Hari Mistry Lane, Calcutta-13.

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

The Union: Shri J. Pandey.

The Company: Shri G. P. Kar, Bar.-at-Law and Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate.

AWARD.

By order No. 2813Dis./D/11L-30/54, dated the 1st June 1954, Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred to section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between the Grand Hotel, 15/2, Chowringhee Road, Calcutta and employees represented by Grand Hotel Employees' Union, 3, Ram Hari Mistry Lane, Calcutta-13, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 592Dis./D/12L-1 dated the 23rd February 1953, for adjudication.

After summons, the parties entered appearance and filed their statements. The pleadings were completed on 26th August 1954. The parties were thereafter directed to file lists of documents after adjournments at the instance of the parties, the hearing was held on 17th February 1955.

The matter of dispute as stated in the schedule to the order of reference is as follows:—

- (1) Whether the dismissal of three workmen, namely, Francis Gomes, Dilwar Hossain and Jan Mohammad, was justified? To what relief are they entitled?

DECISION.

Regarding workman Mr. Francis Gomes.

In support of his case, the workman Mr. Francis Gomes, has deposed (P.W. 1) besides filing documents, Exts. 1 to 1(c). The Com on the other hand, has examined the Manager, D.W. 1 Mr. Cecil Benson besides proving documents, Exts. A and B, in this respect.

P.W. 1 Mr. Francis Gomes admittedly joined as Kitchen (cook) a salary of Rs. 65 per month on 14th October 1952 on the basis of Ext. A. His duty was to check all the foods taken by waiters out of the kitchen for service to the residence and their guests. On 25th October (Sunday), the Manager (D.W. 1) received a report to the effect Mr. Francis Gomes had eaten in the kitchen the chicken curry pudding which were meant for the residents. On Monday (26th October 1953) the Manager sent for him, who on being questioned admitted having eaten the chicken curry and pudding but contended that there were others who were in the habit of eating in the kitchen the food prepared for the residents. Ext. B, dated 26th October 1953, is a written explanation in this respect in the handwriting and signature of the workman.

Mr. F. G. Auda was admittedly head of the department in which P.W. 1 was then working. Ext. B, is an endorsement, dated 26th October 1953, on the written explanation (Ext. B) of the workman in which it is admittedly in the handwriting of said Mr. F. G. Auda. The endorsement shows that Mr. F. G. Auda made enquiries about the allegations against others and found them to be without basis. The Manager (D.W. 1) dismissed P.W. 1 from service by Ext. 1, dated 26th October 1953. In the said order of dismissal there was reference about P.W. 1 having been warned by the General Manager for eating in the kitchen on a previous occasion. In his deposition before the Tribunal, P.W. 1 admitted that he had been detected to take food from the kitchen one month before the occurrence on 25th October 1953 by the General Manager who had warned him not to do so. This would therefore show that this was not the solitary instance when he was eating in the kitchen and to take food to which he was not entitled. After dismissal, P.W. 1 wrote to the Managing Director on 26th October 1953, copy of which is Ext. 1(b). In that letter also the workman admitted having taken curry and pudding meant for residents. He, however, took the plea that the curry and pudding that he ate were intended to be thrown away as being remnants after lunch. He did not, however, so state in the written explanation which he submitted earlier. His written explanation, Ext. B, also reveals that he ate porridge as well. The evidence of D.W. 1 shows that porridge is a very expensive delicacy. In justification of his action the workman pleaded that he ate those things according to the practice of the department and to his concern. He could not, however, substantiate this. The evidence of the Manager, on the contrary, shows that he belonged to the category of cooks and that the cooks were not entitled to take chicken curry pudding or porridge but only vegetable curry and rice and that he could take them not in the kitchen but only in separate dining room meant for them. So, P.W. 1 was not entitled to take chicken curry pudding or porridge which he admittedly ate on 25th October 1953, in that in the kitchen. As a last resort it was suggested on behalf of the workman that the explanation, Ext. B, was procured by the Manager on the assurance that he would be pardoned. The Manager denied this suggestion. In the circumstances, I find that the dismissal of

d. The fact that the Departmental Head, Mr. F. G. Auda, gave certificate [Ext. 1(a)] after dismissal, would indicate that the man was not actuated from a motive of victimisation but acted de bono. When the workman admitted having taken the things to which he was not eligible, there was no scope for further enquiry and the man cannot, therefore, legitimately make any grievance about it. Therefore, find nothing to interfere with the order of dismissal passed against him.

Regarding workman Shri Dilwar Hossain.

In support of his case, Shri Dilwar Hossain has deposed (P.W. 2) and other workmen, P.W. 3, Shri Kurban Ali and P.W. 4, Shri Shadat Ali besides filing documents, Exts. 2 and 3. The Company, on the other hand, filed documents, Exts. C and D, besides examining the witness (D.W. 1).

2. Shri Dilwar Hossain, admittedly rejoined as Masalchi on 1st November 1953 and has been working ever since. His own statement, Ext. 2, shows that before this he had been a Masalchi in the Service Department and had gone on leave and had been due to return for duty on 13th June 1953. P.W. 2 alleged that on the expiry of leave he came to resume duty on 13th June 1953, when the Departmental Head took the rotation slip (Ext. 2) and made certain changes therein which led him to come for duty on the next day; and when he presented himself on the next day he was not allowed to do so. The Company, on the other hand, contended that P.W. 2 did not return on the expiry of leave and so the Company appointed one T. Bairagi in place of Shri Dilwar Hossain after waiting for P.W. 2 for 12 days, and that when Shri Dilwar Hossain returned sometime in the beginning of November 1953, he was told that there was no employment for him as his place had already been filled up by another man and then on his repeated applications he was taken as Ticcu Masalchi and thereafter when a vacant vacancy occurred, he was employed as a regular Masalchi on 1st November 1953, and he has been working as such ever since. The Company's version seems to me more probable and natural which I am inclined to accept. The rotation slip (Ext. 2) does not show any ground for the allegation of victimisation. When Shri Dilwar Hossain has been taken back in employment, the only ground that can arise is regarding compensation for the period of unemployment. In the present case when it appears that Shri Dilwar Hossain was at fault and did not turn up for duty on the expiry of leave sometime in November 1952, he cannot legitimately claim any compensation for the period previous to re-employment.

Regarding his claim for restoration to the post of a waiter in the Service Department which he alleged to have originally held, I think, this cannot come within the scope of the reference. Besides, I have no doubt that said Dilwar Hossain had never worked as waiter in the Service Department. The award, Ext. C, relating to the period in which he claimed to have served as waiter in the Prince's Department, does not reveal his name. The identity card, Ext. 3, which he produced in this respect seems to have been interpolated by his father's name as also by substituting his (P.W. 2's) photo in the original photo of the man to whom the card was issued. The statements of P.W. 3 and P.W. 4, who deposed having seen P.W. 2 to work in the Service Department, are not reliable. Shri Dilwar Hossain is, therefore, not entitled to any relief.

Regarding workman Shri Jan Mahammad.

In support of his case, Shri Jan Mahammad has himself (P.W. 5) besides proving documents, Exts. 4, 5, 5(a) and 6. The Company on the other hand, has filed documents, Exts. E, E₁ and F, examining the Manager (D.W. 1).

It was alleged that Shri Jan Mahammad was discharged on a plea of "work not satisfactory" as he was an effective member of the Union. Shri Jan Mahammad admittedly joined the Grand Hotel from Delhi as Head Confectioner. Ext. E, dated 3rd July 1953, shows that the Manager of Grand Hotel sent requisition to the Secretary of the Associated Hotels of India, Ltd., Delhi, among others, for an Assistant Confectioner with two Assistant Confectioners. The evidence shows, in pursuance of the said requisition the Secretary of the Associated Hotels of India, Ltd., had sent Jan Mahammad from Delhi, who thus joined the Grand Hotel as Confectioner with two other assistants in the Grand Hotel in July 1953. The evidence of D.W. 1, shows that within a very short period he found Jan Mahammad's work to be not satisfactory and accordingly asked for another man. Ext. E₁, dated 27th August 1953, supports this. It further appears that on such requisition, the Associated Hotels of India, Ltd., sent one Bashir Ahmed temporarily to work with Jan Mahammad. The evidence of D.W. 1, shows that Bashir Ahmed worked in the Grand Hotel for about 5/6 months and then returned to his own place, Cecil Hotel. Jan Mahammad admitted during the period Bashir Ahmed worked, he too worked. The evidence of D.W. 1, further reveals that Jan Mahammad even then could not pick up his work in spite of help from Bashir Ahmed and so in the season the management offered Jan Mahammad transfer to the Associated Hotels of India, Ltd., but Jan Mahammad was not willing to go. As his work was unsatisfactory, it appears that the management again requisitioned for Bashir Ahmed and he came to work permanently in November 1953. The evidence shows that Bashir Ahmed came to work permanently, the Manager wrote to Jan Mahammad, copy of which is Ext. F. Ext. F, dated 12th November 1953, shows that after Bashir Ahmed joined, Jan Mahammad offered to work in his own place at Delhi which he refused. The evidence reveals that he was then offered employment at Hotel Mount View, Chandigarh and that he was unwilling to go even there. It appears that Ext. F was written as a last chance telling him definitely that he failed to accept employment at Hotel Mount View, Chandigarh. The services in this hotel would stand terminated with immediate effect. Shri Jan Mahammad admittedly received the said letter but he disputed that he had declined the employment at Delhi and Chandigarh. In the circumstances, when he was unwilling to accept alternative employment, the Company had no option than to discontinue with his services. I, therefore, find that the termination of his employment was justified.

The fact that he was not given formal charge-sheet would make no difference when the Company has established that his services were unsatisfactory and that it tried to accommodate him with alternative employment as best as it could in the circumstances. It will not be of place to mention here that there was no mala fide in the termination of his employment. Shri Jan Mahammad in his deposition did not even claim that he was member of the Union and was not victimised. The allegations in Ext. 5, according to the admission of the workman in his deposition, are at least partly not correct. He has to admit that his statement in Ext. 5, that he had served in different branches of the Grand Hotel for 8 years on various terms was not to relief, 'when the workman was offered alternative employment on he declined to accept the same, I think, he is not entitled to any satisfaction either.

S. E, and F read with the evidence and circumstances reveal that employment was terminated in normal and natural course.

to be precise, I find that the three workmen concerned are entitled relief. I award accordingly.

therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to make the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

Matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. India Chemical Industries, Ltd., 188, Manicktolla Main Road, Calcutta-11 and their workmen represented by India Chemical Mazdoor Union, 59 B, Kankurgachi Road, Calcutta-11.

IN THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL, CALCUTTA.

PRESENT:

G. PALIT, District Judge, Chairman, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

for the Company: Shri N. M. Das Gupta, Advocate.

for the Union: Shri S. C. Das Gupta, Advocate, assisted by Shri Desh Gupta on behalf of the Union.

By Government order No. 1037Dis./D/11L-31/53, dated the 30th March 1953, the aforesaid dispute was referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal, presided over by me, for adjudication under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947). The said Fifth Industrial Tribunal was constituted under notification No. 3581Lab., dated 9th June 1951.

2. The reference was received here on 2nd April 1953. After notices the Union filed its written statement on 27th April 1953. The Company filed written objection on 25th May 1953. After several adjournments the case was taken up for hearing on 17th December 1954. After adjournment it was finally taken up for hearing on 1st February 1955. The evidence, including the argument, was concluded. The award is reserved.

3. The issues contained in the schedule to the order of reference are as follows:

- (1) Basic wages and grades.
- (2) Dearness allowance.
- (3) Provident fund and gratuity.
- (4) Bonus.

AWARD.

4. Let me give a brief history of the dispute as covered in the statements of the parties. According to the Union, the Company is about 40 years old. But it grants only the minimum pay of Rs. 1/10 per day to the workers. Scales of pay, rules of service, dearness allowance, provident fund and gratuity are conspicuous by their absence here. Bonus is not given for the last 5 years, but its quantum is very low. It claims only one month's wage as a condition of service. The present Union was formed in July 1951. Since then the sympathy of the Company has been all from the workers, and the Company is out for victimising the workers. Madhu and Tapeswar Ahir have been retrenched, in contravention of section 33 of the Act, during the pendency of the case. The Union demands introduction of gratuity, enhancement of basic wage, and classification of workers. It also claims dearness allowance, provident fund and bonus.

The Company contends that it was originally a proprietary concern, started in 1933, and afterwards it was converted into a limited company in 1941. Its plants are of primitive type, and as such it finds great difficulty in the matter of survival in the present market which is a competitive one. It is incurring losses. Its present complement of workmen is 100. It is not in a position to grant higher wages, neither can it give any system, provident fund, gratuity and bonus. The Company only paid bonus to the workers, in 1949 during the last five years. Then, regarding Madhu and Tapeswar Ahir, it is contended by the Company, applicable under the section 33 of the Act have been filed for permission of the Tribunal to dismiss them on grounds of misconduct. They have been placed under suspension pending such permission.

Now, coming to the evidence, I am satisfied that the financial position of the Company is anything but sound. It is struggling hard to earn its existence, and it is only making small profits. At times it is incurring losses. For instance, as per the Company's statement, I find that in 1950 the total loss was in the neighbourhood of Rs. 18,000 and odd, and in 1951 the loss amounted to Rs. 48,000 and odd. In 1949 the profit was Rs. 6,000 and odd, and so in 1951. And in 1952 the profit amounted to Rs. 6,000 and odd. In 1953, the Company, alleges, it incurred a loss. The President of the Union asked for permission for holding an inspection of the Company's accounts which I allowed. He has submitted a statement regarding t of his scrutiny of the accounts of the years 1952-53. I have allowed aid report to be kept on the record. He has found fault in the accounts and there, but that is not of much moment in view of the fact that the mts of 1952 and of earlier years were audited. But one thing that ges out of these accounts is, as pointed out by the President of the n, that the Company has been showing Rs. 18,000 and odd and 15,000 and odd in 1952 and 1953 respectively on the head of casual r. But the Company does not state before me in its written statement it is employing such huge amounts on casual labour. So there is some id of suspicion attaching to the expenditure incurred on this head of labour. It is also disclosed that about Rs. 20,000 and more in two years had been drawn by the Managing Agents besides their usual mission of Rs. 6,000 per year. It is said that this amount was drawn e names of sons and relatives of the Managing Agents. This item of diture is also not above suspicion. It is also pointed out in the said t that Rs. 2,000 and odd was shown as expenditure on account of ric charges. But the Company occupies only a small portion of the ing in the Cotton Street of the Managing Agents. This huge amount es to the total electric bill of the entire buildings. This is certainly tionable. So, though the auditor's report is given proper respect, there ne allowance based on facts which tends to show that the accounts have to some extent manipulated to blow up the expenditure, and to blow the income. However, the margin of profit is very low, or even verges sses. Keeping this in mind, I approach the specific issues raised in the nt case.

Issue No. 1.—Basic wages and grades.

he Union wants grades and classification of workers. Grades and ifications of workers can only be provided for where the financial ion of the Company is stable and sound. Here, as I have dy pointed out, losses and profits come up now and then, and the ion is anything but stable. That being so, I cannot allow any classifica- of workers, or grades in the present case.

egarding the basic wage, the Company has filed a statement based on wards of the Tribunals, regarding different chemical concerns in or about Calcutta. From that I find that the total wage in the case of r Antiseptic and Dressing Co., Ltd., is Rs. 42 (basic pay Rs. 27 plus 5 dearness allowance), as per Calcutta Gazette, dated 17th June 1954. Union Drug Co., Ltd., gives a total wage of Rs. 43 (Rs. 24 as basic and Rs. 19 as dearness allowance), as per Calcutta Gazette, dated February 1953. B. K. Paul & Co., Ltd., gives a total wage of Rs. 40 wage Rs. 30 plus Rs. 10 as dearness allowance), as per Calcutta te, dated 22nd April 1948. India Chemical Industries, Ltd., the it Company, gives, admittedly, Rs. 1-10 per day, i.e., Rs. 42-4 per a. So the wage that is being given by this Company does not compare urably with the wage given by sister chemical concerns in the locality. Union has filed Ext. 1 which shows that India Alkalies, Ltd. gives ter scale of pay. But none of this Company has been examined, nor eords called for from this Company to show that the Ext. 1 is accurate. eing the position, I am not inclined to increase the basic wage, or the total wage, including dearness allowance, that is being given by ompany. But I would call upon the Company, not by way of direc- but only by way of recommendation, to split up the wages into basic nd dearness allowance as given by the above companies, provided the rs and the management do agree on this point. So the claim of the is turned down on this head.

Issue No. 2.

I do not grant any separate dearness allowance because dearness allowance here is included in the pay that is being given by the Company. If not so, then the existing wage must be considered very high in relation to the financial position of the Company, and with reference to other concerns above mentioned. So the claim of separate dearness allowance made by the Union, stands disallowed.

Issue No. 3.

The Union claims gratuity at the rate of 15 days' wages for each year of service, in addition to the provident fund. Gratuity is given only where the Company is making profits, and is financially very sound, because it is a long-term benefit. But here the pecuniary condition of the Company is almost desperate. Although it is making profits now and then, but it is uncertain. So the claim of gratuity is turned down.

Regarding the claim of provident fund, I think, some provision should be made in this respect. The Company is a fairly old concern. As I have already shown, the margin of profits would have been considerably increased if some of the heads of expenditure were properly accounted for. So I do not say that the Company is without profits. Besides, provident fund contribution is not payable at once. It is payable only at some future date. Workers who work in a concern should have some provision for old age; otherwise they cannot peacefully stick to their employment. So I grant provident fund contribution at 6½ per cent. of wages to be contributed equally by both sides, viz., the employer and the employees. The amount under this head would not be much. It would be nearly Rs. 4,000 per year as I find from the audited balance-sheet. The Company ought to lay this for its workers as a retirement benefit. This rule shall be prospective from the date of operation of the award.

Issue No. 4.

As I get from the Company's written statement that bonus was given by the Company once only during the last five years, and that was in 1949, so bonus is not a condition of service here. In the present condition of the Company, I am unable to grant any bonus. Even the burden which I have imposed on the Company on the head of provident fund seems to be well enough for the present. I am not inclined to make the burden heavier at the present moment.

In the conclusion, I should point out to the workmen that they have to be content with the present wage and conditions of service, considering the pecuniary condition of the Company. If I grant more benefit to the workmen, which might be legitimate and called for, ordinarily, I would be accelerating the ruin of the Company which will result in throwing them out of employment. Bad employment is certainly hard, but unemployment is harder still. The workmen should face the position in this spirit, and accept the award in good grace.

ANNEXURE.

Matter of complaints filed by eight workers, separately, viz., (1) Shri Kalipada Tung, (2) Shri Chandidas Chatterji, (3) Shri Sindhu Manjhi, (4) Shri Panchanan Ruhidas, (5) Shri Gourhari Chakrabarty, (6) Shri Satish Chandra Samanta, (7) Shri Satya Charan Samanta and (8) Shri Barendra Nath Bagani, under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, as amended by the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950, against Messrs. Siddheswari Cotton Mills.

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

1. G. PALIT, District Judge, Chairman, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

The original reference out of which these cases have arisen was made by Government order No. 84Dis./D/3L-23/52, dated 6th January 1953, and the subsequent corrigendum No. 2342Dis./D/8L-20/53, dated 1st July 1953.

AWARD.

The eight applicants preferred separately applications under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act for redress of their grievances, namely, that during the pendency of the main case before the Tribunal, the Com did not obtain prior permission of the Tribunal for its action, and as the section 33 of the Act is said to have been infringed. The Com of course, denied all this. Later on, however, the parties have filed petitions of compromise in all the eight cases before me. I have through the said petitions, and I find them to be in order. I accept and incorporate them into my award as its component parts. These petitions of compromise find place in the Appendix. The award is passed accordingly in terms of those compromise petitions. This award will govern all eight cases under section 33A, analogously.

Jails

RESOLUTION No. 2893H.J.

Calcutta, the 12th November 1954.

Subject:—Read the report on the administration of the Jails in West Bengal for the year 1952.

During the year under report, 28,519 convicts constituting 64 per cent. of the total figure were sentenced to imprisonment not exceeding a month. Government note with regret that the admission of such short term prisoners remained as high as before. Short term imprisonment is undesirable as it exposes the prisoner to the contamination of prison life and at the same time gives no chance for their reformation. The Government have passed the West Bengal Offenders (Release on Admonition and Probation) Bill, 1954, and it is hoped that there will be noticeable improvement in this direction.

2. The average period of the detention of under-trial prisoners during the year as compared with that of the previous year was slightly shorter in respect of Magistrates' cases but was longer in Sessions cases. The State Government, however, note with pleasure that the Government of India have introduced a Bill in Parliament which aims at more speedy trial. This may result in considerable reduction in the daily average number of under-trial prisoners in jails as also the period of detention.

3. Government are also alive to the problem of over-crowding in Sub-jails. In recent years, proposals for extension of the following Sub-jails were administratively approved and funds provided therefor—

1952-53.

Diamond Harbour Sub-Jail.

1953-54.

Kalimpong Sub-Jail.

Raigunj Sub-Jail.

1954-55.

Mathabhanga Sub-Jail.

Lalbagh Sub-Jail.

Asansol Sub-Jail (conversion into a Special Jail).

4. Government have noticed with regret the large number of admissions of juvenile and adolescent offenders in the jails, though there has been some decrease compared to those in 1951, so far as adolescent offenders are concerned. The existing facilities for the training and reformation of such offenders in the Industrial and Borstal Schools at Berhampore are adequate and the Borstal Institution provides accommodation for as many as 500 inmates. In spite of these arrangements for their treatment on Borstal lines, it appears that the Courts have not taken as much advantage of these facilities as could have been expected. In order to avoid such state of affairs, the District Officers have already been directed to instruct the Prosecuting Officers to draw the attention of Courts to the various provisions of the laws dealing with juvenile and adolescent offenders.

5. Subdivisional Officers are ex officio Superintendents to Sub-jails. Under the existing rules the Superintendent has to visit the Sub-jail at least twice a week. Government note with regret that the number of visits in some cases, particularly in Asansol, Vishnupur, Basirhat, Jangipore, Mekliganj, Siliguri, Kurseong and Kalimpong were as low as 11, 11, 5, 10, 5, 3, 4 and 9 times, respectively, during the year. Government have, therefore, issued a circular directing the Subdivisional Officers to pay more frequent visits to Sub-jails as laid down in the rules.

6. Government note with pleasure the total quantity of Jail garden produce was 13,197 mds. during the year as against 13,197 mds. in 1951 and that many of the jail almost self-sufficient with regard to vegetables some of them were even able to sell to the vegetables worth Rs. 7,774 after meeting own requirements. As the co-operation of Agriculture Department in the matter of cultivation of the jail garden is always desirable department have been requested to direct Agricultural Officers to exercise greater vision over jail garden and to render new advice for further improvement of the produce.

7. Government take this opportunity of registering their appreciation of the services rendered by Dr. P. K. Biswas as Inspector-General of Prisons during the year.

By order of the Govt.
R. K. MITRA.

ANNEXURE.

Statement of an industrial dispute between Uma Art Press and Saxena Press of 23/3, Armenian Street, Calcutta and their workmen represented by Press Employees' Association, 249B, Bowbazar Street, Calcutta.

THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Companies: Shri Sanat Kumar Mitra, Advocate.

For the Association: Shri J. C. Bose, Pleader.

AWARD.

Order No. 2609Dis./D/13L-21/54, dated the 24th May 1954, the order of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Uma Art Press and Saxena Press of 23/3, Armenian Street, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Press Employees' Association, 249B, Bowbazar Street, Calcutta, regarding the matters specified in the schedule thereto to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 592Dis./D/12L-5/52, dated the 23rd February 1953, for adjudication.

After summons the parties entered appearance and filed their written pleadings. The pleadings were completed on 30th July 1954. The parties were thereafter directed to file lists of documents. Then after adjournments the hearing of the parties the hearing was concluded on 18th February 1955.

The matters of dispute as stated in the schedule to the order of adjudication are as follows:—

Service conditions.

Basic wages and dearness allowance.

Provident fund and gratuity.

- (4) Working hours.
- (5) Leave and holidays.
- (6) Bonus.
- (7) Whether dismissal of Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar and Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy was justified? To what relief are they entitled?

4. The dispute was confined during hearing to the one as formulated in issue No. 7.

The case of the two workmen, Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar and Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy, represented by Press Employees' Association (hereafter called the Association) in this respect is as follows: Uma Press and Saxena Press (hereafter described as the employers) are controlled under the same management. The management never cared to redress the genuine grievances of the workmen in spite of verbal representations. So the Secretary of the Press Employees' Association on behalf of the workmen forwarded a charter of demands as in Annexure "A" to the management with a copy to the Labour Commissioner, Government of West Bengal, on 24th November 1953.

Immediately on receiving the said charter of demands, the employers called all the workmen of the two presses and asked them to sign a "no dispute" declaration which was flatly refused by Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar, the elected representative of the workmen of the two presses. Failing to get a "no dispute" declaration, the employers resorted to victimisation. They first dismissed on 26th March 1953 Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar without any notice or without any charge-sheet. The matter was taken up with the Labour Commissioner. In course of conciliation proceedings on 2 January 1954, the employers took the plea that Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar was dismissed on account of his unsatisfactory work, when an enquiry directed to be held in the office of the presses regarding the said allegations. The employers instructed their workman, Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy, who was in charge of Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar, to depose during the enquiry that Priya Nath Mazumdar was hopelessly inefficient. Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy refused to give such false evidence and told the truth during the enquiry. Even then the employers tried to persuade Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy to give in writing that Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar was inefficient as also to sign a "no dispute" declaration. When eventually employers failed to get them, they dismissed Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy without any charge-sheet or notice on 18th February 1954. The dismissals, both of Priya Nath Mazumdar and Khagendra Kumar Roy, were unjustified and illegal and resorted to by way of victimisation.

In the circumstances, the Association prayed for reinstatement of the workmen and for payment of compensation.

The presses appeared separately and filed separate written statements though virtually on the same grounds. Their case, briefly stated, is as follows. Uma Art Press and Saxena Press are two independent and separate concerns—former press carrying on business at 26/3, Armenian Street, while the latter at 26/4A, Armenian Street.

Regarding Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar, the presses denied that he was an accredited representative of their employees and that he was dismissed on 26th December 1953 without any notice, and pleaded that he was discharged by notice, dated 23rd November 1953, terminating his employment after one month from service of notice on account of his unsatisfactory work.

and that while he was under notice of termination of employment, he the letter of demands drafted on 27th November 1953 without any ledge and consent of the then employees of the presses. The Saxena denied that the charter of demands was issued on 24th November 1953 contended that it was drafted on 27th November 1953 and was dated November 1953 from an ulterior motive. To entangle the presses with the charter of demands was prepared with a back date and fitted to the Labour Commissioner, Government of West Bengal, who d memorandum No. 4631/LCN, dated 8th December 1953, to the na Press. The presses had no occasion to call upon their employees to "no dispute" declaration. The allegation that Shri Priya Nath umdar was dismissed following such refusal is untrue.

likewise, the allegation that Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy was asked to se falsely against Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar and that he was asked gn "no dispute" declaration is false. There was no occasion to call any on to give evidence and to sign "no dispute" declaration. Shri gendra Kumar Roy was never dismissed but ceased to attend on and 18th February 1954 after getting his the then outstanding dues on 17th uary 1954. The presses thus submitted that the claims of the workmen ld be dismissed.

DECISIONS.

Issues Nos. 1 to 6.

These issues were not pressed by the Association during hearing. In the umstances, I make no directions in respect of these issues.

Issue No. 7.

In support of its case the Association has examined P. W. 1 Shri Priya h Mazumdar, P. W. 2 Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy and its Secretary, W. 3 Shri Indu Bhusan Sarkar, besides proving documents, Exts. 1 to 6. The presses, on the other hand, have examined the proprietor of Uma Press, D. W. 1 Shri Kripa Sankar Saxena, Secretary, Burrabazar Owners' Association, D. W. 2 Shri Krishna Lall Varma and the etor of Uma Art Press, D. W. 3 Shri Uma Sankar Saxena, besides ng documents, Exts. A to G.

efore going into the merits, it is necessary to state certain facts leading e dispute as are either admitted or established in evidence in order to icate the evidence and circumstances. Uma Art Press and Saxena were established one after the other at long interval—former in 1935 he latter on 8th July 1952. Uma Art Press has uninterrupted existence its establishment except a year or two following bombing in Calcutta g last world war when it remained closed. D. W. 1 and D. W. 3 others of whom D. W. 3 is the older. According to the declarations under the Press Act, D. W. 3 Shri Uma Sankar Saxena is the sole etor of the former press and D. W. 1 Shri Kripa Sankar Saxena of tter press. Their another brother, Shri Hari Sankar Saxena, owns separate press named, Hari Art Press at 33, Tarachand Dutta Road, a. The presses are situated in separate premises and they maintain e records and account papers. They hold separate license and pay al taxes separately.

a Art Press was initially doing business both in art printing and rk. Both the workmen concerned had originally joined Uma Art Press—workman Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar (P. W. 1) as a Machinist April 1947 on a salary of Rs. 45 per month and workman Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy (P. W. 2) as a compositor in or about 1935 on a salary of Rs. 50 per month in connection with job work in the said press. The salary of P. W. 1 rose to Rs. 75 and of P. W. 2 to Rs. 120 per month by gradual increments.

Uma Art Press had six machines in connection with job work. In the first part of 1952 it disposed of all the six machines and stopped doing job work. Then the Saxena Press was established in July 1952 on acquiring two of the six aforesaid machines for job work. It started to do only job work from August 1952. Uma Art Press, on the other hand, ceased to do job work from first part of 1952 and continued to do only art printing work.

After job work was closed in Uma Art Press, the two workmen concerned—Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar and Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy—came to join Saxena Press in August 1952 on salary respectively of Rs. 75 and Rs. 125 per month, when the said press started job work. So both workmen were last employed in Saxena Press.

According to the Association, P. W. 1 and P. W. 2 were dismissed respectively on 26th December 1953 and 18th February 1954 by way of victimisation following presentation of charter of demands on 24th November 1953. The Saxena Press denied charges of victimisation and alleged that the charter of demands was presented on 24th November 1953 and contended that P. W. 1 Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar was discharged on account of his unsatisfactory work by one month's notice (Ext. B) on 24th November 1953 or on 25th November 1953 expiring after one month from then and that P. W. 2 Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy ceased to attend on and from 18th February 1954 without notice after taking his then dues on 17th February 1954.

At the relevant time in November 1953, there were altogether five employees in Saxena Press including P. W. 1 and P. W. 2 and five employees in Uma Art Press. According to the case of the Association and the evidence led by it, all the aforesaid employees of the two presses failed to get redress by direct approach to their employers, jointly wrote to the Association in November 1953 for moving the employers and the Labour Commissioner for improvement of their service conditions regarding increment in pay, leave, etc. Upon such petition, it was alleged that a charter of demands was forwarded to the presses with copy to the Labour Commissioner on 24th November 1953.

The evidence, however, shows that the charter of demands was not sent either jointly or simultaneously to the two presses but one after the other, first to Saxena Press and then to Uma Art Press, that after 24th November 1953. A charter of demands was first sent to the Manager of Saxena Press through registered post with A.D. The acknowledgment receipt (Ext. 2) shows that the said charter of demands was addressed to the Manager of Saxena Press and was posted on 28th November 1953 and not on 24th November 1953 and was delivered on 30th November 1953. Ext. 3 shows that copy of the charter of demands addressed to the Manager of Saxena Press was delivered to the Labour Commissioner on 28th November 1953. Subsequently a separate charter of demands, dated 3rd December 1953, although in similar terms, was sent to the Manager of Uma Art Press and copy of the same was forwarded to the Labour Commissioner (vide Ext. B).

P.W. 3 Shri Indu Bhusan Sarkar who sent the charter of demands under his signature stated therein that having been instructed by a large number of workmen of the respective presses who were members of the Association, the said charters of demands were being sent for redress. Such claim in view of the total complement of the employees the presses had at the time, namely 9 and 5, or at any time, is on the face of it anything but real. During hearing P.W. 3 deposed to the contrary that all the employees of the two presses were members of his Association and that he sent the charter of demands on their joint application to him. But neither the register of membership nor the alleged joint application was produced to support either of these claims.

Be that as it may, after such presentation of charter of demands, the presses replied separately by Exts. C and C1 that in the matter of service conditions complained of, they were following the terms and conditions of the agreement as entered into between the Press Employees' Association and Burrabazar Press Owners' Association to which these two presses belonged. D.W. 2 proved the said agreement (Exts. G to G2). Exts. F and F1 leave no room for doubt about the genuineness of the said agreement entered into in 1946. The Association could not point any deviation in observing those terms on the part of the presses (employers). As a matter of fact, issues 1 to 6 as formulated regarding these service conditions were not pressed by the Association during hearing. It would, therefore, appear that the employees had no genuine grievance under these heads. The probability, on the contrary, is that the charter of demands was sent in the instance of P.W. 1, Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar as a counterblast to a notice of discharge served on him shortly before this.

Regarding merits of the case, I may straightaway note having regard to the background, evidence and circumstances that I do not believe the case of the Association that the two workmen, P.W. 1 and P.W. 2, were dismissed by way of victimisation. I rather believe the employers' case at P.W. 1 Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar was discharged by the notice, dated 23rd November 1953 (Ext. E) served on 24th November 1953 or on 25th November 1953 terminating employment after expiry of one month from the date of service of the said notice, and that P.W. 2 Shri Khugen Kumar Roy ceased to attend work on and from 18th February 1954 after taking his outstanding dues on 17th February 1954. Though the employers denied that the employees of the presses were members of the Association, none of them has been examined by the Association to support their claim. It has already been noted that neither the register of membership nor the letter said to have been jointly written by the employees of the two presses to the Association was produced. P.W. 3 on the contrary deposed that the Association had membership of 16,000 and it was not possible for him to say without looking into the records who was member of the Association and who was not. Had there been joint representation of the employees of the two presses, the charter of demands would not have been sent at different times. The fact that the charter of demands was first sent to Saxena Press on 28th November 1953 rather supports the employers' case that it was sent at the instance of P.W. 1 Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar when he was under notice of discharge. The charter of demands was subsequently sent to Uma Art Press, it appears, was so sent as the presses were regarded as inseparable, being owned and managed by the brothers as from a motive to enlist sympathy of the employees of the sister concern to hide the hidden hand of Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar who engineered

P.W. 1 and P.W. 2 contradicted each other regarding case of victim. P.W. 1 deposed in examination in chief in this respect as follows:

"Saturday was our payment day. On Saturday, the 26th Dec 1953, when I went to receive payment, I was asked to wait by the employer. After the other workmen were paid and left the place, the employer asked me to sign a statement declaring that we had no claim regarding the demands which we were making through the Union. As I refused to sign the said declaration the employer told that I was not required any longer. The service was terminated".

P.W. 2 gave direct lie to the above case when he deposed as follows:

"The employer stopped increment as also bonus from the year 1953. We, the employees, requested the employer to continue the increment and bonus. The employer did not pay heed to our request. We then submitted a petition to the Union regarding those grievances. The Union then took up our cause and forwarded a charter of demands to Uma Art Press as also to Saxena Press with copy to the Labour Commissioner. We received a receipt of the said charter of demands from the employer but he was displeased with us. The employer Shri Uma Sankar Saxena sent for all the employees. The employees were 12 in number at the time. We, the 12 employees, were asked by the employer to sign a 'no dispute' declaration. We refused to sign such declaration. As we refused to sign such declaration, workman Priya Nath Mazumdar was sacked".

In cross-examination P.W. 1 admitted that before 26th December 1953 he was not asked to sign any "no dispute" declaration. His subsequent statement that in the middle of November 1953, he was asked by the employer to cease connection with the Union is a new case and unreliable.

The second page of the charter of demands sent to the Saxena Press dated 27th November 1953, while the date in the first page was changed from 27th November 1953 to 24th November 1953 (vide Ext. A). The fact that the second page is dated 27th November 1953, it is obvious that the charter of demands was not prepared and sent prior to 27th November 1953. The acknowledgment receipt (Ext. 2), it has already been noted, makes mention of the letter containing the charter of demands addressed to Saxena Press having been despatched on 28th November 1953. The notice relating to termination of employment of Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar, on the other hand, was dated 23rd November 1953 and evidence shows that it was served either on 24th November 1953 or on 25th November 1953. This would prima facie show that the action of the employer of Saxena Press in serving notice of discharge had no connection with the presentation of charter of demands. The alteration of date from 27th November 1953 to 24th November 1953 in the first page of the charter of demands addressed to the Manager of Saxena Press on the contrary suggests that this was done at the instance of the workman P.W. 1 from a motive to antedate, that is, to give a date anterior to the date of service of the notice. Exts. 2 and 3 reveal that charter of demands was received by the Manager of Saxena Press on 30th November 1953 and by the Labour Directorate on 28th November 1953. The charter of demands addressed to the Manager of Uma Art Press, was, on the other hand, dated 3rd December 1953 (Ext. 4) and was thus apparently served thereafter. So the presses could have had knowledge about the presentation of charter of demands prior to 27th November 1953 in any view of the matter.

will not be out of place to mention here that in their anxiety to that the presses are not separate concerns but are the joint ventures brothers, there have been likewise interpolations in the notices, 5 and 5(a). The notices were issued by the Labour Directorate to Saxena Press and Uma Art Press calling upon their representatives to attend a joint conference. In the notices addressed separately to two presses, the name of the other press was interpolated to show that they are joint properties. Exts. H and H1 which are the original of those received by the presses separately show that Exts. 5 and 5(a) have been interpolated by addition of the name of the other press. The conciliation records also show this. It further appears that the date of receipt in acknowledgment receipt (Ext. 2) has been changed from 30th November 1953 to 28th November 1953. The acknowledgment receipt shows that the charter was registered on 28th November 1953. So it is more probable that the charter was delivered on 30th November 1953 as seemed to have originally stood. Under the circumstances it is very likely that the charter of demands was issued to Saxena Press and subsequently to the Uma Art Press at the instance of Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar after he had received the notice of termination, Ext. E, terminating his employment on the expiry of one month from the date of service either on 24th November 1953 or on 25th November 1953. The story of the employers having called all the employees after the issue of charter of demands and asked them to sign "no dispute" declaration of Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar having declined to do so for himself is very convincing and unreliable apart from the fact that P.W. 1 stated it in his deposition. There is nothing either to support the contention that P.W. 1 was representative of the employees or their spokesmen. The circumstances rather point in support of the employers' case that he was discharged by a notice served either on 24th November 1953 or on 25th November 1953 terminating employment on the expiry of one month from the date of service on the ground of unsatisfactory work and negligence.

In regard to Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy, it is said that as he refused to produce evidence in support of employer's plea of unsatisfactory work, P.W. 1 Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar in course of an enquiry held on 3rd and 4th February 1954, he was dismissed on 18th February 1954. It is stated that in the joint conference held on 29th January 1954, when the employer had given out that Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar was discharged on the ground of his unsatisfactory work, the Conciliation Officer directed the Joint Secretary of the Association to hold enquiry into the matter. The enquiry was held in the office of the press. It is said that in pursuance of the order of P.W. 3 and others held enquiry on 4th February 1954 and there Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy refused to oblige the employer by supporting the charges of inefficiency against P.W. 1. From the evidence and circumstances, the Conciliation Officer believes this case. It is not probable that the Conciliation Officer conducted the enquiry by P.W. 3 and other office bearers of the Association on the charge of unsatisfactory work against P.W. 1 or that he could agree to such enquiry by P.W. 3. The letter which P.W. 3 submitted to the Labour Officer on 19th February 1954 to the effect as below is set out in the following case:—

In a joint conference held on 29th January 1954, it was agreed that we, the representatives of the workers, would meet the employer in his office for an amicable settlement. I myself together with the General Secretary of our Union went to meet the employer on that date. Unfortunately, the employer took an adamant attitude towards the demands of the workers and no settlement resulted. I have already intimated to you the above matter personally.

Under the circumstances, I would request you to refer the Government for referring the dispute or disputes to a private Tribunal." (Vide letter, dated 19th February P.W. 3 on the record of conciliation proceedings re Saxena Press).

No doubt such story of victimisation finds mention in the (Ext. 4) which Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy made to the Labour but it seems to have been concocted. His (P.W. 2's) own evidence effect that on 17th February 1954 there was altercation between the employer over his work on the contrary suggests that on 17th 1954 he took up his dues till then and ceased to attend on and from February 1954 and thus left voluntarily as alleged by the employer. Thereafter it appears that on a cooler moment he grew wiser, since the other discharged worker Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar and got up. Had presentation of charter of demands any connection with termination of their employments then all the employees would have been satisfied not merely the two workmen, and that at long intervals. Then, Khagendra Kumar Roy incurred further displeasure on 4th February by his alleged evidence in support of Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar, likely that the employer would wait to terminate his employment February 1954.

So to be precise, I find that there was no victimisation and that termination of P.W. 1 Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar was terminated and of Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy ceased in the manners indicate employer.

As regards relief, Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy is entitled to relief as he had left the job voluntarily. As regards Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar when he was discharged by a notice but without enquiry, I think he should get compensation corresponding to retrenchment relief. In respect although the two presses have ostensibly been functioning independently, I think, the workman will be entitled to count his services with Uma Art Press in the matter of assessment of compensation when the proprietor of Uma Art Press made a declaration (Ext. 1) that such counting to the other workman Shri Khagendra Kumar Roy transferring his service to the Saxena Press in August 1952. Having regard to the length of service of P.W. 1, the financial position of the employer and other relevant factors, I award two months' salary at the time drawn as compensation to the workman Shri Priya Nath Mazumdar. The presses are directed to pay the amount within 7 days from the date the award becomes enforceable.

I award accordingly.

NOTILAL CHAKRAVATTI, District Judge, Judge, Sixth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances.

Company. Shri P. Mondal, Barrister-at-law, and Shri D. Basu Mukherjee, Solicitor of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co., Solicitors.

Union. Shri B. K. Choudhury, Counsel, assisted by Shri P. Mondal, Secretary, of Mercantile Employees' Union.

Acting under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act (XIV of 1947), the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department order No. 6012Dis./D/11L-293/53, dated Calcutta, the 30th Dec 1953, and subsequent addendum No. 700Dis./D/11L-293/53, 13th February 1954, referred the aforesaid dispute for adjudication, regarding the matters specified in the schedule to the Order of Ref

SCHEDULE.

- (1) Whether the retrenchment of (a) Shri Nishit Dutta Chowdhury, clerk, (b) Shri Baidyanath Mukherji, Typist, (c) Shri Kumar Chatterji, Typist, (d) Shri Sudhir Kumar Das, (e) Shri Mohon Lal Ghose, Sarkar, (f) Shri Fulana Bearer, (g) Shri Bireswar Sarker, Bearer and (h) Shri Bireswar Sarker, Bearer, is justified? What relief they are entitled to?
- (2) Whether the suspension of Shri J. M. Sen Gupta is justified? What relief is he entitled to?

AWARD.

The Union and the Company have entered into a compromise and the parties prayed for an Award of "no dispute" in terms of the compromise petition. The Union representing the employees of the above company gave up the claim in respect of the retrenchment of Shri Dutta Chowdhury, Shri Ajit Chatterji, Shri Sudhir Kumar Das, Mohon Lal Ghose, Shri Fulana Misir and Joylall and it has been submitted that a "no dispute" award may be entered against them.

As regards Shri J. M. Sen Gupta, the Company also brought an application under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act for permission to dismiss him but in the original proceeding, the issue with regard to J. M. Sen Gupta was whether the suspension of Shri J. M. Sen Gupta was justified and what relief is he entitled to? By the compromise Shri Sen Gupta voluntarily resigns his service under the Company on the understanding to give him certain sums of money. This disposes of the No. 2 in the reference case as well as the application of the Company under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act as against Shri J. M. Sen Gupta.

Shri B. N. Mookherjee of schedule No. 1 and Shri Jyoti Prasad Roy, the applicant under section 33A are going to be reinstated by the Company in terms of the compromise.

Bireswar Sarkar of issue No. 1 in the reference has been confirmed a durwan with effect from the date of the compromise. He is not to receive any money from the Company under the present Award. The compromise on the whole is a reasonable one on principles of salvaging by settlement.

Shadeo Misir against whom the Company filed an application under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act for permission to dismiss him voluntarily resigns from the service in terms of the compromise and is to get certain sum of money in terms thereof.

Dhan Bahadur Gurung, against whom also the Company filed an application under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act for permission to discharge him is now retained in service and his suspension order is withdrawn by the Company. As the entire reference case has been disposed of by the abovenamed compromise an Award is hereby made accordingly, and the compromise petition do form part thereof and is made Annexure A to the Award.

AWARD IN SECTION 33A PROCEEDING.

Case No. 88/33A/1954.

The original reference out of which this present application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act has arisen was made under Government order No. 6012Dis./D/111L-293/53, dated Calcutta, the 30th December 1953, and subsequent Addendum No. 700Dis./D/111L-293/53, Calcutta, the 13th February 1954.

ORDER.

No. 1288Dis./D/4L-3/54.—24th March 1955.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4834Dis./D/4L-A)/53, dated the 18th November 1953, the industrial dispute between the Joint Steamer Companies, namely, Messrs. And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the said Tribunal an application in writing was filed by Sri Debendra Chandra Dey, workman of the said River Steam Navigation Co., Ltd., in their Joint Traffic Audit Department, against the said Company before the said Tribunal alleging that the said Company had altered to the prejudice of the said workman, the conditions of service applicable to him immediately before commencement of the said proceedings;

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the said Tribunal has adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the State Government;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE.

The matter of a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, as amended by the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950, filed by Shri Debendra Chandra Dey, a workman of River Steam Navigation Co., Ltd., in their Joint Traffic Audit Department, 2, Fairlie Place, Calcutta, against the aforesaid Company. (Case No. 173/33A/54.)

FORE THE SIXTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL, CALCUTTA.

PRESENT:

MOTILAL CHAKRAVATTI, District Judge, Judge, Sixth Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances.

For the Company: Shri N. K. Raha, Pleader of Messrs. Orr Dignam & Co., Solicitors.

For the workman: Shri Amar Chakravorty, Advocate.

During the pendency of the reference case existing between The Joint Steamer Companies, namely, Messrs. Kilburn & Co., Managing Agents of the India General Navigation & Railway Co., Ltd., Calcutta and Messrs. Mcneil & Barry, Ltd., Agents of the Rivers Steam Navigation Co., Ltd., Calcutta, under Government order No. 2885Dis./D/4L-8/52, dated Calcutta, the 28th October 1952, the present applicant Shri Debendra Chandra Dey an employee of River Steam Navigation Company, Limited, in their Joint Traffic Department of Messrs. River Steam Navigation and India General Navigation and Railway Companies was made to retire in 1953 on the alleged ground that he had put in 37 years of service with the Company.

The applicant Debendra Chandra Dey contends that this retirement notice (Ext. 3) is bad in law and fact because his contention is that although he was appointed in June 1914, his probationary period continued up to 1921 or 1922, and therefore his period of service is less than 35 years. He further contends that he is at present aged 53 years and odd, i.e., less than 60 years.

The contention of the Company is that the petitioner is not a workman nor was he concerned in the reference case mentioned above and further he has put in 37 years of service and therefore under the rule he was properly asked to retire and it is also contended that the retirement order was passed by the controlling office in Pakistan as the petitioner was a Pakistan employee.

AWARD.

It is admitted by the Company that in West Bengal, the rule of the Company regarding retirement is that only on completion of 60 years of age, an employee is to retire and that there is no such rule in West Bengal that on completion of certain period of service an employee is to retire and that such rule exists in Pakistan. The question therefore is whether the petitioner is an employee of River Steam Navigation Company in India or whether he is an employee of River Steam Navigation Company in Pakistan and whether the petitioner is a workman or not within the definition of the term in Industrial Disputes Act, and whether the petitioner has completed 35 years of service.

Petitioner Shri Debendra Chandra Dey admits that he was an Audit Inspector of the Company at the time of the forced retirement in question. From the exhibits marked on the side of the petitioner it appears that the petitioner Shri Debendra Chandra Dey was an Audit Inspector but Ext. F, filed by the Company, where there was an agreement between the Joint Steamship Companies and the Bengal Mariners' Union in Pakistan and which the Company relies, shows that the Audit Department employees are treated as "clerical and subordinate staff" for the purpose of retirement. There in clause (4), the provision is that:—

"Retirement should normally be effected at 60 years of age or on completion of 35 years' service", and this provision is under heading "Retirement of clerical and subordinate staff".

Therefore the position appears to be admitted that the Audit Inspector of the Company is nothing but a clerk. The Company has not produced a paper to show nor any oral evidence to make out that an employee like petitioner Shri Debendra Chandra Dey, nomenclatured as Audit Inspector is anything other than "clerical and subordinate staff", and that regarding such officer (as distinguished from workman) there is any retirement as prescribed by the Company or any award or agreement.

From the evidence it appears that the petitioner was recruited by the Joint Agents Office at Barisal and it was confirmed by the Head Office in Calcutta. At the time of the creation of Pakistan the petitioner was posted somewhere in East Bengal (now Pakistan). In 1950 he was transferred to Calcutta and in December 1950, he was ordered to be transferred to Barisal in Pakistan but the petitioner went on leave and he remained on leave till re 1951. The petitioner admits that in May or June 1951, he was sent to Khulna in Pakistan. It appears that he was transferred back to Pakistan sometime in 1951 and he was working there till the forced retirement in question. Although the retirement order was originally issued by the Joint Agents at Barisal, the Head Office in Calcutta ratified the said retirement order (see Ext. 6). There is no evidence that the petitioner was sent for Pakistan service or that he ever agreed to have his Provident Fund Account transferred to Pakistan, on the other hand, there is oral and documentary evidence that the Provident Fund Account was transferred to Pakistan without his knowledge and consent. From the evidence I conclude that the petitioner was an employee of the Company whose Head Office was in Calcutta and that he was practically an employee of the Company in India. He may go to Pakistan and elsewhere to do Company's business but that does not amount to his service being transferred for good, from India to Pakistan. Therefore the petitioner was a workman of Messrs. Rivers Steam Navigation Co., Ltd., in India although he was posted for some time being in Pakistan to do work for the Company (India) there.

Under the reference the dispute was between Messrs. Rivers Steam Navigation & Co., Ltd., and India General Navigation & Railway Co., Ltd., on one hand and the workmen in West Bengal, on the other. If the petitioner does not fall within those category, namely, "workmen in West Bengal", he will not be held to be concerned in the said dispute. It appears that the dispute was for bonus for the years 1949 and 1950. Throughout the year 1950, the petitioner was admittedly posted in Calcutta and therefore he is interested in the said dispute. Moreover when he was an employee of the Company situated in India (although transferred to Pakistan to do Company's business there) I hold he remained a workman in West Bengal in spite of such temporary posting in Pakistan. Therefore my conclusion is that the application under section 33A is maintainable.

Admittedly there is no rule in the Company so far as India or West Bengal is concerned that an employee is to retire on completion of 35 years of service. The rule is that an employee is to retire on completion of 60 years of age. Admittedly the petitioner Shri Debendra Chandra Dey has not completed 60 years as yet. Moreover there is no satisfactory evidence on the side of the Company to show that the petitioner was retired in 1916. The alleged Service Book (Ext. C) does not appear to be the original record at all. The important page on the left hand side containing printed headings has not been properly filled up. It has not been signed either by the employee or by the Verifying Officer. It seems this book was written sometime after June 1953. There is no witness to vouch for the genuineness or authenticity of this document. I must therefore conclude that Ext. C, the alleged Service Record, is a worthless document on which no reliance can be placed in any way. Therefore I conclude that the petitioner has not been at all able to make out that the petitioner Shri Debendra Chandra Dey completed 35 years of service before the retirement in question.

In view of the petitioner's contention, that the Provident Fund was improperly transferred to Pakistan without his knowledge or consent, I did not enter into such enquiry at this stage because the said transfer, if it was made in 1951, i.e., before the reference was made by the Government. It does not matter whether the petitioner had had knowledge or not of the said transfer at that time. Therefore that matter cannot form the subject matter of application under section 33A in the present case.

The retirement order is therefore liable to be set aside and the petitioner is entitled to be reinstated. The Company, opposite party No. 1, i.e., Rivers Steam Navigation Co., Ltd., shall pay compensation equivalent to the basic wages for the period of forced unemployment since the date of the illegal retirement in question up to the date of reinstatement and the award shall be made within ten days from the date of publication of the award in the Calcutta Gazette.

The proceedings arising out of this reference still pending.

n 29th October 1954 Shri Jatindra Nath Sen Gupta, Weaving Report of the Shree Ambica Jute Mills, Ltd., filed a complaint under n 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act stating as follows:—

he complaint who has put in one and a half year's service in the Com- , having a clean record of service, was attacked with high fever since vening of 31st July 1954, which rendered him physically unfit to d his duties on Monday, the 2nd August 1954, and that on that very he submitted an application for leave, and in support of his illness he itted a medical certificate from a qualified doctor on 6th August 1954. 3th August 1954 he came to resume duties, but his attendance was not led, and he was asked to see the Manager, and on his seeing the ger, the latter did not give him any directions, as a result of which turned home. Subsequently he received a letter from the Company 19th August 1954, wherein certain offences were alleged against him, he was asked to explain. Thereafter the complainant approached ompany several times to know their decision but without avail, and a month he received a communication from the Company, dated September 1954, intimating that his services were dispensed with ffect from 1st August 1954. In the circumstances, he prays for full wages y of compensation for forced unemployment with effect from 18th t 1954 and reinstatement without break in the continuity of service.

its written statement, the Company states that the complainant joined ill at first in June 1950, but in August 1950, he developed tuberculosis, his request, was retired on medical grounds. In February 1953, he approached the Management for giving him a budli job, as there was improvement in his health. The Management conceded to his request even though the complainant's health did not allow him to do the work of a clerk since 19th February 1953, he was provided with a employment wherever there was a vacancy in the Mill. The complainant absented himself from duty with effect from 2nd August 1954 without obtaining prior permission of the Company, and in order to cover up period of unauthorised absence, he submitted an application, dated August 1954 and also a medical certificate, dated 5th August 1954, asking for leave for an indefinite period. After absending himself for 18 days without permission, he reported for duty on 18th August 1954 when he was asked to see the Manager and to explain the cause of his absence, which he failed to do. Thereupon on 19th August 1954 the Management issued a charge-sheet asking him to explain his unauthorised absence. The complainant submitted his explanation, which was not considered sufficient by the Management to condone his absence from duty, which constituted a misconduct under the Standing Orders entailing dismissal. The Company, in conclusion, submits that the termination of service of the complainant is justified, and he is not entitled to reinstatement or any compensation.

On 3rd February 1955 the complainant filed a petition stating that he had since resigned from the service of the Company and has been paid all dues in full. In the circumstances, he prays for withdrawal of his petition under section 33A, as no dispute exists. This petition appears as Appendix A to this award. The petitioner is, therefore, permitted to withdraw his application under section 33A of the Act, and there will thus be no "dispute" award.

Miscellaneous Case No. 139 of 1954 under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Mr. A. Magermans, C/o. Mr. L. C. Rae, 48A, Park Street, Calcutta
Petitioner,

versus.

Messrs. Great Eastern Hotel, Ltd., 1,2,3, Old Court House Street, Calcutta
(Opposite party).

For the petitioner: Shri J. Pandey.

For the opposite party: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate.

AWARD.

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed on 31st July 1954 by Mr. A. Magermans. He was a receptionist in the opposite party hotel. Two notices—one dated 1st April 1954 (Ext. I) and the other dated 11th June 1954 [Ext. 1(a)]—were admittedly issued on him, the last one terminating his employment on the expiry of 31st July 1954. After such service of notice and before actual termination of employment from 1st August 1954, an industrial dispute between the opposite party and their workmen was referred to by Government order No. 3404Dis./D/111-91(A)/54, dated the 13th July 1954, to the Tribunal for adjudication.

The complainant alleged that as his employment was terminated during the pendency of the said proceeding without permission, the opposite party had contravened section 33 of the Act. The opposite party, on the other hand, contended that as the notice of termination of service was served on the complainant at a time when there was no proceeding pending before the Tribunal, no permission was necessary and they had not violated section 33 of the Act. It was accordingly pleaded that the application under section 33A was not maintainable apart from other considerations.

As the objection goes at the root of the case, it has been heard first and preliminary objection.

DECISION.

Mr. A. Magermans admittedly joined service of the opposite party as a receptionist for one year from 1st August 1952 on the basis of appointment letter, Ext. A. His term of service was thereafter extended by letter of nd July 1953 (Ext. B) for another year from 1st August 1953 to 31st July 54. By ext. C dated 30th July 1953, Mr. Magermans acknowledged receipt of the said letter dated 22nd July 1953. Then the opposite party used the notice dated 1st April 1954 (Ext. 1) informing Mr. Magermans that his services would not be required after 30th June 1954. On 2nd April 54 the latter (Mr. Magermans) replied that he could not accept the said notice as valid as his terms of employment with the opposite party were for a full and complete year from 1st August 1953 to 31st July 1954 (vide Ext. D). Then the opposite party issued another notice on 11th June 1954, Ext. 1(a), to Mr. Magermans to say that his period of employment would terminate on 31st July 1954 and would not be extended and that this should be treated as a notice of termination of employment.

Admittedly at the time no proceeding before the Tribunal was pending. A proceeding commenced on 13th July 1954. It was contended on behalf of the complainant that as his employment was terminated on 31st July 1954 without permission from the Tribunal, section 33 of the Act was contravened. The opposite party, on the other hand, contended that as the notice of termination of employment was served when there was no proceeding pending, section 33 had no application.

On giving careful consideration to the arguments advanced on either side, it appears that the contention of the opposite party should prevail. Section 20(3) of the Industrial Disputes Act lays down that proceedings before a Tribunal shall be deemed to have commenced on the date of the service of dispute for adjudication. In the present case it was so referred on 13th July 1954 when the dispute must be deemed to have commenced. Section 33 prohibits the employer from discharging or dismissing a workman during pendency of the adjudication proceedings before the Tribunal without express permission of the Tribunal. The notice terminating the employment, ext. 1(a), was however served on 11th June 1954 before the commencement of the proceedings on 13th July 1954. When the termination followed the notice as a matter of course without any further action on part of the employer, it is obvious that the employer did not do anything during the pendency of the proceedings since 13th July 1954. So, section 33 had no application in the present case. The fact that termination of employment took place during the pendency of the adjudication proceedings, would be of no help as the act, namely, service of notice, from which termination followed had been taken before the commencement of the proceedings. Section 33 puts a ban to an action by the employer in the matter of discharge, dismissal, etc., during pendency of the adjudication proceedings. In the present case when such action, namely, service of notice, had been taken prior to the commencement of the proceedings, it is obvious that there was no violation of section 33. I am, therefore, of opinion that the complaint under section 33A is not maintainable and must accordingly fail.

award accordingly.

SHRI M. C. BANERJI, District Judge (Retd.), Judge, First Industrial Tribunal.

For the Company: Shri T. M. Paul, Representative of the Company

For the Workman: Shri B. R. Roye himself.

AWARD.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 4032Dis./D/8L-21/54, dated the 19th August 1954, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Victoria Cotton Mills, Ltd., 370, Upper Chitpore Road, Calcutta-6, and one of their employees, Shri Biswa Ranjan Roye, 3, The Mall, Dum Dum Cantonment Calcutta-28, regarding the matters specified in the following schedule to this Tribunal for adjudication.

SCHEDULE.

1. Whether the dismissal of Shri Biswa Ranjan Roye was justified? To what relief is he entitled?

Notices were issued on both parties, and they filed written statements setting forth their respective cases.

The workman in his written statement states as follows:—

Shri J. Agarwalla, a big industrialist and businessman of Calcutta, a number of business firms, such as cotton mills, iron foundries, export port firms, etc. The head offices of all these firms are located at 370, Upper Chitpore Road, which is also the residence of Shri J. Agarwalla. The employee approached S. P. Agarwalla and one of his sons in December 1950, for a job in any of the firms, and he was asked to join from 16th January 1951. Accordingly, he joined on 16th January 1951 and from then onwards he was serving a firm styled as Messrs. East Indian Co., Ltd., 70, Upper Chitpore Road, Calcutta, doing business in exports and imports, as an assistant to Shri B. Sircar. There are some other firms styled as Messrs. J. Agarwalla & Sons, Ltd., Messrs. International Mercantile Corporation, Ltd., Messrs. Nursing Co., etc., and Messrs. Victoria Cotton Mills belonging to the employers. The last-named firm was under lock and key and the employers got possession of it only in 1952 from the Official Receiver, High Court. Though all these firms are styled as public limited companies, actually Shri J. Agarwalla, in collaboration with his sons and grand-sons, are the Directors and the real owners of all these firms. Some time in 1952, the employee was transferred to the Victoria Cotton Mills in its Spinning section at his own request, where he was working as an Assistant to Shri Bankim Chandra Sircar. While he was working as Spinning Assistant, he had serious eye and nose troubles, for which he sought for transfer under medical advice. Shri J. Agarwalla asked him to join the head office. There was, however, no written transfer orders. He further states that from the very beginning of his service, he pressed the Company to give him a letter of appointment, but the employers replied by saying that it was not customary for them to issue any letters of appointment. During his tenure of service from 1951 to 1954, he had no dispute with the employers, but once in 1953, Shri A. P. Agarwalla asked him to make purchases of some household commodities and he complied with the orders. Shri Agarwalla abused him in a filthy language for making delay in making the purchases. He also abused the Bengalee community, to which the employee gently protested. Shri Agarwalla grew more and more angry, and threatened to discharge the employee from service. The employee begged for apology in writing. Shri Agarwalla wrote "O.K." on the letter of apology, and asked him to make over the application to the Accountant who maintains the establishment files. When on 10th February 1954 the Company discharged him without any previous notice, he filed a petition to the Labour Commissioner in protest, and during conciliation proceedings in the office of the Labour Commissioner, he found something written in red and blue pencil on his letter of apology which were not written at the time when he submitted it. He does not know why he has been discharged. He, however, gathered from one of his colleagues, Mr. J. K. Mathew, who was discharged one day earlier than on 7th February 1954 (Saturday), all went out of the office after 3 p.m. and some time after that, an intimation card from Messrs. Tata Co. came through post for one or two wagons of pig irons. Since the day following was a Sunday and there was none in the office at the time, it being passed 3 p.m. on a Saturday, the employers took action on the letter. On the 9th February 1954 when he went to office, Mr. Mathew told him that from date, they were both being discharged. On his approaching Shri Agarwalla, he was assured that it was Mr. Mathew and not he who was being discharged. On the following day, i.e., 10th of February 1954, he was given a certificate which mentions that he was being discharged. He does not pray for reinstatement but prays for equitable compensation.

The Company in its written statement states as follow:—

The employee never approached Shri S. P. Agarwalla. The fact is that his brother-in-law, Shri Bhattacharjee, an official of the East Pakistan, who is a friend of some of the Directors, approached one of the Directors to provide his brother-in-law, the employee, as a paid or unpaid apprentice and to give him training in commercial firms' work. This youngman who is a refugee, was given an opportunity of learning work of mercantile firm. He, however, proved a failure and the Directors of the Company were not satisfied with his work. He was given several chances for improving himself and learning work without any effect. It is further stated that he was careless, inattentive and was without any sense of responsibility. He absented himself frequently without report, and in one instance, he was reprimanded for his negligence and was given a warning. He was tried for some time as a store purchase clerk, and whenever he was sent out for obtaining quotations from the market, he would always be away the whole day without getting any quotations or making any purchases. As a purchase clerk, he used to be given advances of money for making petty purchases. He has till now not given any account of a certain sum of money which he received as advance from the Company.

The issue framed for the decision of this case is the same as that mentioned in the order of reference, and is as follows:—

Issue.

1. Whether the dismissal of Shri Biswa Ranjan Roye was justified. To what relief is he entitled?

DECISIONS.

On the date of hearing on 4th March 1955 the workman, Shri Biswa Ranjan Roye, filed a petition at my intervention, stating that his disputes have been amicably settled with the Companies and he has no claims whatsoever against the Companies and their Directors. He has been paid his dues as per terms of this petition in my presence on 4th March 1955. The compromise petition filed by the workman appears as Appendix A to this award. BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Dr. S. K. Bose, President.

For the Company: Shri P. R. Mukherjee.

AWARD.

This industrial dispute between Messrs. National Tin Box Mfg. Co., 36C, Barrackpur Trunk Road, Calcutta and their workmen represented by National Tin Box Mazdur Union, 57/7, Barrackpur Trunk Road, Calcutta, regarding the dismissal of 23 workers, names mentioned below was referred to this Tribunal for its adjudication under Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2826Dis./D/101-33/5 dated 1st June 1954.

Both parties filed their written statements.

In its written statement, the Union alleged that 19 workers were suspended on 19th January 1954, without any previous notice and were given back-dated letters within three or four days, accusing them on various charges, namely, (i) refusal to accept charge-sheet, (ii) adoption of slow-down* tactics, (iii) sit-down strike, etc. The workers handed over their explanation to the charges in due course but there was no enquiry. It is not true that some of the workers did not reply to the charges. They tried to meet the management to represent their case but failed. They received their full pay through the intervention of the Chief Inspector of Factories. About three or four weeks after this some of the workers went to the factory for enquiry but they were run over by the motor cycle of the Manager. That case is still pending before the Sealdah Police Court. The remaining four workers out of 23 mentioned in the list went on a deputation to the management on 13th February 1954, when they were immediately suspended. The management dismissed the first batch of 19 workers on 19th January 1954 and the second batch of four thereafter. The workers preferred an appeal to the Labour Appellate Tribunal against the award of the Second Industrial Tribunal and that irritated the management which immediately took action in dismissing all the workers without obtaining the permission of the Labour Appellate Tribunal. The management induced some of these workers to do so falsely in the criminal case against some of the union leaders and workers were victimised on their refusal to do that. The Union asks for their reinstatement and other relief.

Messrs. National Tin Box Mfg. Co. (hereinafter called the company) denied the allegations made by the Union and stated that the National Tin Mazdur Union had no right to represent the workers before the Tribunal. It also denied the allegations that the Manager deliberately run over two of the workers and said that it was a case of pure accident for which a criminal case was pending. There was no deputation of any worker to meet the management on 13th February 1954. A section of the workers resorted to "go-slow" tactics, came to the factory, loitered round, inducing other workers not to do any work. The management viewed this with grave concern and issued several verbal and written warnings but without any result. The management could not allow this to continue indefinitely for it meant loss of production and consequent loss of reputation and income. The management thereupon framed charge-sheet and sent them to the workers concerned; some received them and replied but others did not. The company have good evidence to show that they in collusion with one another adopted deliberately "go-slow" tactics with a view to cause mischief and loss to the management, and, accordingly they were dismissed from service. The workers are accordingly not entitled to any relief in this case.

The issues as per schedule to the order of reference are as follows:—

FINDINGS.

Issue No. 1.

Of the 23 dismissed workers, Shri Haradas Marick was placed under order of suspension on 16th January 1954, pending an enquiry into the charges of misconduct and was dismissed with effect from that date. He is number 1 of the list of dismissed workers, attached to the order of reference. The workers, No. 2 to No. 19 of the said list, were suspended on 19th January 1954, pending enquiry and were dismissed for misconduct with effect from that date. The remaining four workers (No. 20 to No. 23) were placed under orders of suspension on 13th February 1954 and were dismissed on 15th February 1954, on the ground of misconduct. The Union's case is that these workers were victimised for their Union activities and were dismissed, in a violation of the principles of natural justice on false allegations of misconduct. The management of the company, a proprietary concern, justifies this act of dismissal on the ground of serious misconduct, viz., of adopting go-slow tactics in work and inciting others not to do any work. The workers (No. 20 to No. 23) were dismissed on additional charges of stay-in-strike on 13th February 1954 and for wrongfully confining the proprietor and the manager after the working hours. Dr. S. K. Bose on behalf of the Union, challenged the legality of the order alleging that the workers were all dismissed without the permission of this Tribunal, and also of the Labour Appellate Tribunal, within 30 days of the publication of an award of this Tribunal and during the pendency of an appeal before the Labour Appellate Tribunal, Shri P. R. Mukherjee on behalf of the company, supported the said order of the management, both on grounds of law and on facts. He said that the order of dismissal was passed at a time when permission of the Tribunal was not necessary. It appears from Ext. F, that a compromise award between the parties, of this Tribunal, dated 15th December 1953, was published in the Calcutta Gazette on 7th January 1954. It is true that 19 out of 23 workers of this dispute were suspended on 16th January 1954/19th January 1954, but they were dismissed by an order, dated 13th February 1954. The order of dismissal took effect from the date of the order of suspension, viz., 16th January 1954/19th January 1954. It is, therefore, clear that the order of dismissal was passed after 30 days of the date of the publication of the compromise award. Under the certified Standing Orders (Ext. N), the order of dismissal takes effect from the date of the order of suspension. In these facts and circumstances, it cannot be said that the order of dismissal was passed in contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, without the permission of the Tribunal. Shri P. R. Mukherjee frankly concedes that an appeal against the compromise award was pending before the Labour Appellate Tribunal when the orders of dismissal of these workers were passed. But, he says the appeal was incompetent in law and, therefore, would not attract provisions of section 22 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act. In fact, neither party to the compromise award preferred appeal. It was some of the workers of the Mazdur Union, who were parties to the award preferred the appeal, which was summarily dismissed. In these circumstances, the permission of the Tribunal would not be necessary for dismissing the workers found guilty of misconduct. In this contention of Dr. Bose fails.

Question now is whether the action of the management in dismissing these workers is justified. Of the 23 workers mentioned in the schedule, 19 were charged for intentionally not doing any work and inciting and instigating others under threat of assault to stop work. As a result, there was no work in the factory for 15 days. These workers were placed under suspension pending enquiry, and were asked to submit explanation within 7 days. The remaining four workers were given charge-sheets on 12th February 1954 and on 13th February 1954 for i) not doing any work for some time past, inciting and instigating other workers not to do work under threat of assault; and for ii) leaving the place of work at about 9-30 a.m. with the machine open and unattended and inciting some workers actually engaged in work to come to the office and create a row and intimidate the management with threat of creating dangerous situation unless the 19 suspended workers were given employment; and (iii) for joining a sit-down strike on 13th February 1954, after the working hours and misbehaving within the factory premises in spite of the requests of the manager not to do it as he was not permitting the proprietor and others who were inside the factory to leave it. Ext. N is the certified Standing Orders of the factory. These were certified on 9th March 1954. The certified Standing Orders were sent to the company by the Certifying Officer on 15th March 1954. Mr. S. K. Bose filed an uncertified copy of the same which is marked Ext. 1. Dr. Bose asked the Tribunal to accept his copy of the Standing Orders and reject that of the company on the ground that the company's Standing Orders were not finally adopted for it was in the process of ratification. I could not follow his point here. Ext. N is the certified copy of the Standing Orders. There is nothing in it to show that it was not finally adopted by the Certifying Officer. On the other hand, Mr. Bose's copy (Ext. 1) shows many corrections and interlineations and does not appear to be certified by the proper authority. Be that as may, the Standing Orders were not in force at the time of the alleged incident in January and February last year. Accordingly, the Standing Orders are not of any material help in this case.

The charges of adoption of go-slow tactics and inciting workers not to work in the factory are admittedly serious cases of misconduct, punishable with dismissal from service. The 'stay-in-strike and unlawfully confining the management after working hours' are also cases of misconduct. It has been held by the Labour Appellate Tribunal in a case reported in 1953, L.A.C., page 414, that a deliberate go-slow policy is not a legitimate weapon in the armoury of labour. It is an odious method of undermining the stability of the concern. It has been made a misconduct under the "Model Standing Orders" prescribed by the Industrial Employment Standing Orders Act, 1946. There cannot be two opinions about the fact that a deliberate go-slow policy is a serious misconduct.

Question for decision in this case is whether the allegation made by the management in the charges are true. In this case, the management did in its statement before this Tribunal that the workers did not submit written explanation to these charges and refused to accept the charge-sheets when tendered to them. The Union examined six out of 23 workers in this case, who said that they duly submitted written explanation to the charges. There was no enquiry after that and they were most arbitrarily dismissed from service on false allegations. The Union relied on a receipt (Ext. C), admitted on the side of the management, which shows that written explanations from 19 workers were received by the then Manager on 25th January 1954. Shri R. N. Mallick, the then Manager, is no more in the service of this company. Accordingly, he has not been examined as a witness in this case. Shri Ajit Kumar Addy, son of the proprietor, and the present Manager of this company, has deposed in this case on the side of the management. He said that the last four of the list of dismissed workers submitted explanations and attended the enquiry. Of the remaining 19, three or four submitted explanations; others did not. None of them was given any written notice to attend the enquiry. He, however, admits that Ext. C is signed by their Manager and it shows that he received 11 applications. So, the position is that all the workers were given charge sheets. They submitted their explanations denying the charges. There was no enquiry, not even in the case of last four of the list of dismissed workers. There is nothing on record to show that any such enquiry was held. Dr. Bose said that all these 23 workers were dismissed without any enquiry although they demanded it and denied the charges levelled against them. It is one of the principles of natural justice that no one should be condemned unheard. A reasonable opportunity should be given to one before he is condemned by any impartial body. In this case, the Standing Orders, which were not in force at the time, provided that the workers should be allowed an opportunity to defend themselves in all cases of allegations of misconduct against them. The management did not think it worthwhile to allow any such reasonable opportunity to these workers before taking a penal action against them. So, there is clear violation of the principles of natural justice. Dismissing a worker from service is no doubt a management function, for the management has the acknowledged right to maintain internal discipline. In the Buckingham & Carnatic Co., Ltd. vs. their workmen, reported in 1952, L.A.C., page 490, the Labour Appellate Tribunal held that a Tribunal would be justified in going into the merits of the case where—

- (1) There is want of bona fides;
- (2) There is violation of the principles of natural justice;
- (3) There is basic error of facts; and
- (4) There is perverse finding on the materials.

On the facts established in this case, the Tribunal should enter into the merits of this case in order to see for itself whether the action of the management is justified or not. The management is said to be labouring under a handicap in this case. The Manager, responsible for drawing up of the charges against these workers and dismissing them from service, is no longer in its service. He attended the Tribunal on the day of its hearing but his evidence was not tendered for reasons best known to the management. Shri Addy, proprietor's son, who is looking after the management of this business now, naturally could not say anything very relevant for the purpose of our present enquiry. He said nothing about the charges against the last four of the list of dismissed workers, i.e., about the alleged stay-in-strike, wrongfully confining the proprietor and others after the working hour on 13th February 1954. On the contrary, he said that the workers did do any sit-down-strike. Apparently, there is no evidence on record of this case to prove any of the charges brought against the last four of the list of dismissed workers, viz., Shri Dharendra Nath D, Shri Gour Ch. Das (Fabrication Department), Shri Adhir Halder and Shri Ashutosh Dey. This Tribunal, therefore, finds that the alleged charges of misconduct against them are not established. Their dismissal from service is not justified.

Regarding the remaining 19 workers, who were dismissed on 16th January 1954/19th January 1954, the only direct evidence on the side of the management to prove that they adopted go-slow tactics in work is that of Shri Addy. There is no other positive evidence to prove any of the charges brought against any of them. As I have said above, none of them deposed before this Tribunal and denied the charges and said that they did not adopt any go-slow tactics in work. Shri Addy's evidence is that in 1952, one Shri Sinha wanted to develop this business and employed new hands. In 1953, there were more men in the company's employment. By this, he probably meant a surplus staff. But he said that there was no peace in work for the Head Mistry could not keep up his promise regarding execution of work within due time. Other workers also did not execute any work within due date. In August 1953, the management issued a general notice to all workers asking them to do work properly so that the quality might improve. He further said that there were quarrels between the members of the two rival unions, one led by Kumar Biswanath Roy and another by Dr. S. K. Bose. Dr. Bose advised the workers not to do any work with a view to put pressure on the management to concede their demands. As a result, the workers did not do any work and used to move about in the department. The Head Mistry expressed his inability to take any action against them. Shri Addy admitted that there was no Stock Register or Production Register or Production Charts, either weekly or monthly. But they have got a Register of Orders. He said that during the last five months before the dismissal of these workers, he lost five or six orders due to delay in execution and also as the work was not up to the standard. They lost their biggest customer, the Bengal Chemical, as the latter detected leakage in finished goods supplied to them. The work in the factory was running very smoothly now and had only six workers were suspended for not doing any work in this year. On relevant dates, he found the workers sitting idle for the whole day without joining any sit-down strike. They were paid full wages for that period. Shri Addy further said that some of the workers joined the Mazdur Union before the Pujas of 1953 and that all these workers did not do any work between December 1952 and January 1954. On cross-examination, he admitted that he did not address any letter to the Workers' Union, complaining against this. Shri P. R. Mukherjee on behalf of the company relied upon few extracts from the Sales Register to show the gradual fall in sales since 1952 (vide Exts. M and N). At the same time, he conceded that there might be other factors which resulted in this reduction of sales. This fall does not necessarily point to the alleged adopting of go-slow tactics by the workers. Shri Addy's evidence is that the customers frequently complained against the quality and quantity of work, and also of not executing the work in due time. The complaints are Exts. J1 to J4. The company's replies are Exts. L1, L2, J, J5 to J8. Of the said complaints, Ext. J2 is from National Tobacco Co., dated 3rd October 1954. This cannot be connected with the relevant period mentioned in the charges, namely, a fortnight from the 5th of January 1954. Ext. J1 is a complaint from John Peterson, dated 23rd October 1953, regarding leakage in finished goods. This also cannot be directly attributed to the alleged go-slow tactics in work. Ext. L1 is a complaint from Caloram, dated 7th January 1954. This speaks of failure to supply in time due to labour trouble. Ext. J3 is a complaint, dated 2nd June 1953, from the Laboratories regarding the supply of articles "not as per sample". Ext. J4 is a complaint from the Bengal Chemical & Co., dated 27th October 1953, regarding the leakage found in finished goods. Ext. J is the company's reply, dated 26th November 1953. All the other replies are between 20th January 1954 to 28th January 1954. By that time, all these workers were placed under orders of suspension. The management cannot confirm its evidence by statements made in these letters, which are not contemporaneous in point of time. As I have already said above, a charge of going slow in work is a very serious charge of misconduct. No Tribunal will countenance any such misconduct on the part of a worker. The seriousness of the charge therefore requires that the evidence to prove it must be direct, sufficient and above suspicion. It is very difficult to believe that the company has not got any Stock Register or any account showing weekly or monthly production of the factory. Unless the normal rate of production is proved to the satisfaction of the Tribunal, it is not possible to say that the alleged go-slow work has in actual fact affected the overall production in any way. Shri Addy's evidence is that in course of five or six months before the dismissal of these workers, the company lost five or six orders only due to delay in execution of work and the work being not up to the standard. Delay in execution may be due to many things and there is no record coming from the management's side to show that the Head Mistry and the workers were at fault in any of the alleged cases of delay in execution of work. P.W. Shri Sailen Manna is the Head Mistry in-charge of the Tool Department. He said that the charges of adoption of slow-down tactics were absolutely untrue. There were four dice-makers and a helper when he was first appointed. The management appointed 16 dice-makers thereafter, who after sometime were considered to be surplus. The Manager wanted to get a report from him accusing them of adoption of go-slow tactics in work with a view to get rid of them. He did not agree and that is why the Manager suddenly brought out a charge-sheet against him. On this evidence, it is not possible to find that any of these workers deliberately adopted a concerted action of going slow in work or incited and instigated other workers not to do any work. The adoption of going slow tactics means doing less than the normal work and not its complete suspension. Shri Addy's evidence is that these workers did not do any work between December 1952 and January 1954. There is no mention of this in the charges. The charges said that there was no work for a fortnight beginning from the 5th of January 1954. It is too much to believe that the management would tolerate this sort of go-slow tactics in work for over a year and at the same time, go on paying regular wages. In fact, during the period in question, there was payment of full wages to the staff. After all, a fair day's wage has got to be earned for a fair day's work. Shri P. R. Mukherjee said that the management issued warning from time to time against this go-slow in work. He relied upon Ext. J1, a notice, dated 9th September 1953, and Ext. J—another notice, dated 13th January 1954. In Ext. J1, the management requested the workers to abandon the policy of going-slow which they pursued for a long time resulting in reduction in work. This is a general notice addressed to all the workers and not to the workers numbering 23 involved in this dispute out of total complaint of over 60 workers. In Ext. J, the management said that there was no work in the factory since 5th January 1954 and requested the workers to do the work in full, otherwise it would be obliged to declare a lockout from the 14th on. This evidence at the most speaks of a general accusation of slow work against all the workers of the factory. Both parties have furnished evidence of motive explaining probabilities in this case. It has got to be considered against the background of what happened previously.

between the workers and the management. There is admitted evidence on both sides to show that a rivalry existed between the two Unions since October 1952 and there were pullings in different directions. The Mazdur Union, led by Dr. Bose, is affiliated to the Forward Block and the other Union, older in point of time, led by Kumar Biswanath Roy, is affiliated to the Congress. Mazdur Union did not gain its present strength in 1952. Its members were prosecuted at the instance of the management by the members of the rival Union in a criminal case "State vs. Dhiren Kapat and others", under section 148/326, I.P.C., over an incident of 8th October 1952. Haradas Marick, Laxmikanto Das, Two Gour Ch. Das, Sristidhar Desai and Dulal Ch. Ghose opposed for the prosecution at the instance of the management. Haradas Marick, Laxmikanto Das and others retracted their evidence on 1st July 1953, and the management lost that case. Haradas Marick, one of the dismissed workers, was the first who retracted his evidence. All of them have now gone over to the Mazdur Union. On 8th July 1953, Haradas Marick was not allowed to work and Laxmikanto Das, Sristidhar Desai and Gour Ch. Das pleaded with the management for employment. The result was that all of them were dismissed. On reference to this Tribunal, they were subsequently reinstated. On 1st September 1953, Dr. Bose made unsuccessful attempts to come on record of another case between the parties pending before this Tribunal. That case was compromised behind the back of Dr. Bose. Naturally, some of the workers were disappointed by the compromise award, dated 15th February 1953 and it was on 15th January 1954 that these workers sent a letter to the management informing their decision to prefer an appeal against that compromise award. In fact, there was an appeal by some of the dismissed workers and it was summarily dismissed. At least four of the dismissed workers including Haradas Marick are on the executive committee of this Mazdur Union. Some of the workers according to the evidence of Shri Addy came over to the Mazdur Union before the Pujas of 1953 and demanded Pujas bonus. The management had to pay them bonus. It relied upon several letters, including the letter, dated 27th February 1953 to the secretary of the Tin Works Union to show that go-slow was practised a long time. That letter was a reply to the demands put forward to the Union. In it, the management pleaded its inability to meet these demands due to "financial crisis". In Ext. 2, the Manager's letter, dated 30th June 1953, to Kumar Biswanath Roy, the Manager pleaded heavy loss due to slump in business. Then come the general orders, dated 9th September 1953 and 13th January 1954. These letters show that the management took up inconsistent pleas in defence to the workers' demands, and they do not establish the company's case. Considering all the evidence in the light of probabilities, the Tribunal finds that the allegation of go-slow in work is only an excuse to get rid of an undesirable staff of workmen, for sometime considered surplus requirements, without payment of legal compensation, and that some of these workmen have become an eye-sore to the management for their union activities. The Tribunal further finds that the charges against the workmen have not been established. Accordingly their dismissals are not justified. I answer the issue accordingly.

This relates to relief. The normal relief in case of wrongful dismissal is reinstatement. I see no reason why in this particular case, the workers should not get that relief. Some of the workers said that they are still without any employment. It is difficult to believe that to be true and all have not deposed. In view of the financial difficulties spoken of by Shri P. R. Mukherjee, on behalf of the company—difficulties which do not seem to be unreal—I am not inclined to give any of these workers any wages, or compensation for the period of unemployment. The workers will be reinstated in service within 7 days from the date of publication of this award. I answer the issue accordingly. This is my award.

Phillips, Sub-Manager, Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China, 4, Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta, on the one hand and three of the employees of Messrs. Mousell & Co., Ltd.; aforesaid, namely, Shri S. K. Nath, Porui Road, Behala, Calcutta-34; Shri, S. B. Bose, 18, Srikrishna Lane, Calcutta-4 and Shri S. C. Das, C/o. Shri Shankar Chandra Nandan, Hatkhola, Chandernagore, district Hooghly, referred under Government order No. 4070Dis./D/11L-12/54, dated the 24th August 1954.

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT.

SHRI S. C. MUKHERJI, District Judge, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Workers: Shri B. K. Choudhury, Counsel.

For the Company: Shri S. K. Mullick, Solicitor of Messrs. Sanderson & Morgans, Solicitors.

By Government order No. 4070Dis./D/11L-12/54, dated the 24th August 54, the aforesaid dispute was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. The issues framed by the Government were the same as the issues framed by this Tribunal and they were as follows:

- (1) Whether the aforesaid three employees are entitled to receive the balance of the gratuity amounts as claimed.
- (2) What relief are these employees entitled to.

On receipt of the aforesaid reference, notice was issued to the parties. The Union filed its written statement on 17th September 1954 and the Company filed its written statement on 18th October 1954.

The Union contended that the Company discharged the 3 clerks named in the aforesaid order of reference, viz., Shri S. C. Das on 1st September 1953, Shri S. K. Nath on 1st April 1953 and Shri S. B. Bose on 1st April 1953 and the Company agreed to give the said Clerks a gratuity of Rs. 5,610, Rs. 7,200 and Rs. 2,688-8, that thereafter on 7th July 1953 the Company called a meeting of the Directors in which it resolved that the assets of the Company be wound up, that after deducting the amounts already paid from the sums mentioned above, Shri S. K. Nath was still entitled to the balance of Rs. 6,500, Shri S. B. Bose Rs. 1,988-8 and Shri S. C. Das Rs. 5,002-4. Lastly, Company on July 16, 1954 stated that all assets were in the hands of the Receiver, that they cannot do anything in the matter.

In reply the Company stated that the Tribunal is not competent to give directions to the Receiver who is an Officer of the Court, that they categorically denied that the said employees are entitled to the gratuity as claimed in the petition and that the sums claimed are due to them.

AWARD.

At the time of trial during discussion the parties came to certain terms and filed a joint petition of compromise which is on record. I accordingly make my award in terms of the said petition of compromise, which will form a part of my Award. As prayed for in the petition, Receiver is requested to give intimation to Shri S. K. Nath, Shri S. B. Bose and Shri S. C. Das before making no payment other than the Bank's claim and costs as well as his own costs, charges and expenses.

Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal
